my deare

th 3 day of the 2mo 1700

I receiued thyne and was glad to heare of thy helth I expect the this weeke Adam is not come he is not willing to come till the corns home the glasher is not come we are all well and nothing amis thou art often in my remembrance and arnistly desir thy returne as soon as thou canst for I am all alone I want I want the uery much I receiued iust so time is but short so I take leue with thee in that most deear and neer loue that brought us together and I hope will remaine if
 Alice Pemberton

I doubt the beaf will los in was attu ing to go to the river side for a lode of goodes and bring him to for our nibix are a killing we want our paudering tube but if I thought they would stum hom quick in our not en Cook is not cum our sookes do follow their bisnis the bricks are got safe home
