my deare

th 3 day of the 2mo 1700

I receiued thyne and was glad to heare of thy health I expect the this weeke Adam is not come he is not willing to come till the coms home the glasher is not come we are all well and nothing amis thou art often in my remembrance and arnistly desir thy returne as soon as thou canst for I am all alone I want I want the uery much I receiued iust as i was agittin ready to go to meeting so time is but short so I take leue with thein that mos deare and neer loue that braght us together and i hope will remaine
Alice Pemberton

I doubt the beaf will los i was attu ing to go to the river side for a lode of goodes and bring him to for our nibix are a killing wenant our paudering tube but if i thought the woud st cum hom quick in our not pen Cook is not cum our sookes do follow their bisnis the bricks are got safe home
