SCHOOL YEAR OF 1919-1920 CLOSES TODAY

GRADUATING EXERCISES IN KNOWLES THIS MORNING

Dr. Murphree, President of the University of Florida, Will Address the Graduating Class

At 10:30 this morning the graduating classes, students and friends of the College will gather in Knowles Hall where Dr. A. A. Murphree, president of the University of Florida will address the graduates. Chancellor James Brooks will confer the baccalaureate degrees and present the diplomas and certificates.

As a speaker, Dr. Murphree is known for his magnetic personality, his whole-souled and sympathetic manner of appeal to all that is best in men and women. Dr. Murphree, as head of the State University, is known afar as one of Florida's foremost educators, and those who know him are loud in their praise of his efficient handling of students, and his integrity in business and administrative affairs. Dr. Murphree's address is anticipated with a great deal of interest.

The program of the exercises is as follows:

TENTATIVE PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR ANNOUNCED

ALL DEPARTMENTS TO BE STRENGTHENED, STATES
CHANCELLOR BROOKS

High Standard of Scholarship To Be Insisted Upon; First Year
Academy Dropped

Though too early to announce the definite program for the coming college year it is of very general interest to know that careful plans are under way for a very successful term. Every department of the institution will be strengthened, and a high standard of scholarship and quality of work insisted upon.

The fact must be recognized that here, as well as elsewhere, the present year has been necessarily one of reorganization and reconstruction. The disturbed economic and social conditions resulting from the World War have reflected themselves in the educational world as well as in other phases of our American life. It has been gratifying to note that there has been at Rollins a steady improvement throughout the year both in the quality and quantity of work accomplished and in the school spirit and seriousness of purpose on the part of the student body as a whole. Regarding plans and program, very little definite information can be given at this time. The new catalogue will come out in the course of the next month and later bulletins will be duly

TEAM CAPTAINS ELECTED FOR NEXT YEAR

At a meeting of all athletic men, held in the gym last week, the captains for the 1921 teams were elected by their respective players, the managers of the several teams of the past season having charge of the election in their sport.

Lloyd Boyle, in charge of the meeting, opened the same with a short speech. The captains were unanimously elected and are as follows: Football Lloyd F. Boyle; basketball, A Maxwell Sloan; baseball, Frederic H. Ward.

At a meeting recently held by the basketball girls, Frances James was elected captain for the 1921 team.

The following have been elected to manage the 1920-1921 major teams: football, Frederick H. Ward; men's basketball, Carey Roberts; Girls' basketball, Dixie Hill; baseball, A. Maxwell Sloan.

Letters were presented to those having won their "R's" during the past season, at Chapel on Thursday, May 28th, by Chancellor Brooks. A six inch old gold, old English "R" was awarded the following girls who earned them on the basketball team: Misses Phelps (capt.), Shorer, Knoske, Russell, Richards, Salisbury and Sutherland.

A nine inch, old gold, block "R" was awarded the college men and a seven

BACCALAUREATE SERMON DELIVERED BY L. E. McNAIR

THEME OF SERMON IS THE
VALUE OF WISDOM

Rev. McNair Refuses Eight Other
Invitations In Order to Speak
At Rollins

The first event of Commencement Week occurred last Sunday evening, May 30, when the baccalaureate service was held in the chapel in Knowles Hall. To the strains of the prelude played on the pipe organ by Mrs. Christine Reece Harcourt, the graduating classes of the various departments of the College, led by Marshall Kinnear, entered and took their places in the front seats. The rostrum was beautifully decorated with ferns and potted plants. There were about thirty graduates, from the College proper, the Academy, the Conservatory of Music and the Business department.

After an invocation by Rev. C. A. Vincent, pastor of the Winter Park Congregational Church, the congregation rose and sang the hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King". This was followed by a scripture reading and prayer by Dean Luther Pardee, rector of All Saints Episcopal Church. Mrs. James Brooks, who never fails to please with her singing, then rendered a solo, singing one of Buck's compositions.

The Baccalaureate address was given by Rev. Lindsey E. McNair, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, who, in his masterful way, admonished the graduates to acquire high ideals and follow them closely.

Rev. McNair refused eight other invitations to deliver baccalaureate address.

STUDENT PLEDGES TOTAL $6,340.00

ENTIRE CAMPAIGN GIVEN IMPETUS THROUGH LOYAL
SUPPORT OF ROLLINS
STUDENTS

A very gratifying report of the Student Committee on the Endowment Fund states that pledges thus far received total $6,340.00 with a few more to be heard from.

The way in which the student body took hold of the endowment campaign of their own initiative and rushed it through on the campus was admitted to be a surprise to even the most optimistic members of the general committee in charge. Nearly three thousand dollars was pledged among the students through the activity of various

FLORIDA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS SENDS MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

CALL ATTENTION TO GREAT SCARCITY OF WELL-EQUIPPED TEACHERS AND EQUALLY APPALLING SCARCITY OF TRAINED NURSES.

President Ward has been requested by Dr. Grace Whitford, chairman of the Department of Business and Professional Women of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, to convey the following message to the young women of the graduating classes of the college:

"Dear Young Women of the Graduating Class:

"To you, the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs sends greetings and every good wish. She wants to call the attention of those of you who are contemplating taking up a profession to the great scarcity of well-equipped teachers in the state and to an equally appalling scarcity in the number of registered trained nurses. Both lacks may have serious results if the ranks of the workers are not recruited from good material. There are no older nor more honorable professions for women than those of teaching and trained nursing. The young woman who prepares herself properly for either is doing her state and nation a patriotic service.

"Miss Hortense Broward, 419 East Forsyth street, Jacksonville, will serve in an advisory capacity to any of you wanting information as to teaching requirements, conditions, etc., in Florida. Miss Esther Brown, superintendent of the City Hospital, St. Petersburg, will do the same in regard to trained nursing.

"Again to you all, Godspeed!

"Sincerely,

"Grace Whitford, M. D."

ESSAY ON ELBOWS

(Lloyd Boyle)

There are elbows and elbows. Some are simply well-behaved parts of the human anatomy. Others are wild, uncontrollable things that can never be depended upon at all. The first class is so much in the minority that it is overruled by the other, which brought this subject to my mind.

Elbows are used for numerous purposes, from obtaining a more favorable location for their owners to wrestling a problem in "math" from a neighbor. On a crowded stairway one active, grouchy fellow can do more with his elbows to keep the traffic moving than with anything else I know of. A few quick jabs, and a decided acceleration may be observed in the pace of those in the vicinity.

At the dinner table, elbows are the most prominent. Some people simply must eat with their elbows horizontal or else they cannot enjoy the meal. This fault should be corrected early in life before any serious embarrassment is felt.

Peaceful, unaggressive elbows are not of much use and are the cause of much annoyance to their owners. They are always getting joggled and making blots on themes. If one falls, his elbows always manage to come down first with a crack that makes him want to laugh and cry at the same time. Elbows are usually in league with those indefinable things called funny bones, which fact makes the situation worse. If elbows cannot find anything else to do, they punch holes in the sleeves of shirts, a favorite occupation of some elbows with which I happen to be well acquainted.

It should be granted that elbows cannot easily be dispensed with. They serve as a means of giving grace to what otherwise would be awkward limbs. They help support a weary head as mine is doing now.

However, one must admit that for the sake of society, elbows should be rigidly disciplined.

STUDENTS SEND BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO PRES. WARD

No finer expression of the regard which the Rollins students hold for Dr. Ward was ever shown than the birthday greetings which were wired him on the evening of the 22nd of May after a chapel vote taken that morning. The telegram was sent to Dr. Ward in care of Mrs. Robert Black in Palham Manor, New York, where the Wards were stopping for a few days.

The message reads as follows: "We extend to you our warmest congratulations and hearty good wishes on this, your birthday. We sincerely trust that this day will bring you new hope and courage for the larger success of our Alma Mater and that you may be given many happy birthdays in appreciation of the great work you are accomplishing for us. Our best love to you."

The Students of Rollins College. In a night letter which Dr. Ward sent to Mr. Hanna he asked that the following reply be made: "Give my warmest love to students for their birthday message. It brightened my whole day. My students have always been my inspiration to service. God bless them."

GOOD BYE

The time has come for us to say "Good-bye". Commencement has come and gone. Our trunks are at the station, and we will soon be home. Home, after nine months! How good it will seem to see the folks again. Yes, and all those fine times we will be planning before long. Gee, won't life be great!

Indeed the relaxation will be greatly appreciated. Yet in our eagerness to get home there will be a certain longing on the part of those of us who will not return next fall, for the old school has fastened herself on our hearts in such a way that to give her the farewell brings a little twitching around a certain organ of our anatomy. The associations have been only the best and the fast friends we we have made will be an asset to be greatly appreciated. Oh yes, there have been things that didn't quite meet our approval at times but they were not as bad, on the whole, as we had imagined them and now we see that our judgment has been hasty at times. We are going to have a big year when we come back next fall. With that million dollar endowment and the fine loyalty of the students and alumnae that means so much, old Rollins is going to be a real school.

SANDSPUR AIMS FOR NEXT YEAR

1. 500 subscriptions—no less.
2. A peppy joke department.
3. A budget for cuts and cartoons.
4. A lively sporting section.
5. More campus news and less "fillers."
6. A paper as errorless as possible.
7. An exchange department to be read.
8. An editorial by the editor once in a while—maybe.
9. A darn good paper—AND A DECENT OFFICE FOR IT.—Amen.

CANDY FOR THE STUDENTS AND STAFF

The editor absolutely couldn't let the last issue of the paper go by without voicing his appreciation for the whole-hearted loyalty and co-operation given the Sandspur by the student body as a whole and the staff in particular. We simply couldn't resist the temptation.

The students have made the Sandspur one of the finest, if not the finest of college papers in the South this year; this boast, if you call it such, has been verified by the unsolicited assurance of students in colleges and universities that out-shadow Rollins in size by a count of two to one. They didn't outshadow us in pep though, not a bit. Everybody seemed unusually willing to help the paper this past year in any capacity that was asked and this fact made no little impression on the editor, for the greater part of the time the News Editor, a position where the loyalty of the students is appreciated to a greater degree, no doubt, than in any other. Especial mention is due Mr. A. J. Hanna and Mr. Ray Greene, who have often times stepped from the path of their many pressing duties to do something for the Sandspur. The success of many an issue has been due solely to one or the other or both of them. Such uninvited assistance demands no little appreciation. Mr. Hill, the former editor, no doubt, joins us in much, if not all that we have said.

We have shown what we can do and have surprised ourselves. We are not going to let it go at that, are we? No! Next year we are going to surprise ourselves a little more. We are going to come back here in the fall with a whole lot of new ideas and suggestions and are going to mould the Sandspur into a better paper than ever. Are we going to rest on our oars? Who said so?

FINAL STUDENT RECITALS GIVEN IN KNOWLES HALL

EXCELLENT WORK OF ROLLINS CONSERVATORY DISPLAYED IN WELL ATTENDED CONCERTS

The official school year of the Rollins Conservatory was brought to a successful close, with colors flying, by the final student recitals of the Conservatory on Monday and Wednesday evenings, May 24 and 26. Those who know the splendid results of the Conservatory work in former years were not surprised at the high standard of musicianship that has been upheld by the Faculty of the finest music school in the state. Pupils of Misses Waterman, Rous, Nickerson, Greenup, and Mrs. Harcourt took part. The two violin quartettes, of Winter Park and of Orlando, added to the variety and attractiveness of the programs.

Both concerts were well attended by students of the College and friends of the Conservatory, in Winter Park and Orlando. The programs of the two concerts were as follows:

Monday Evening.

- 1.—(a) Melody from Orfeo....Gluck
(b) Romance (for organ)..... Strauss
Gertrude Davies
- 2.—Swing Song (for soprano).... DeKoven
Marie Stout
- 3.—Serenade (for piano) ....Dennee
Frances Bell
- 4.—My Love's an Arbutus (for soprano) ..... Stanford
Persida Mladenovitch
- 5.—Serenade

THREE CONFERENCES AT ROLLINS IN JUNE

Winter Park Conference June 3-10;
 State Christian Endeavor Convention June 10-13; and W. C. T. U. "Y" Camp For Girls June 15-29

Officials of the Winter Park Conference, which comes here June 3-10, are receiving many congratulations from the religious leaders of the state for securing the adoption of the local conference as one of the eight national missionary educational conferences which are held annually throughout America under the auspices of the Interchurch World Movement.

The ranking of the Central Florida resort in the same list as Silver Bay, N. Y., Blue Ridge, N. C., Ocean Beach, Me., and other famous summering places where religious leaders of America gather each summer for outing and study has raised the citizens of Winter Park to a high pitch of enthusiasm and they are determined to demonstrate that Orange County is as fine a place for a summer vacation as it is a retreat from the wintry blasts of the north.

Following immediately at the close of the Winter Park Conference, will come the State Christian Endeavor Convention, from June 10-13, several hundred delegates are expected. Dan Poling, one of the foremost religious leaders of the world is among the speakers of the convention.

June 15-29, the "Y" Camp for Girls, under the direction of the Florida W. C. T. U. will be held and early registrations promise a large Camp for 1920. Miss Minnie E. Neal, State President of the W. C. T. U., has at-forthcoming. A postal directed to the College Office, care of the Secretary at any time during the summer, will insure the mailing of the catalogue, etc., to any person interested in any way in the college.

Majority of Faculty to Return

The year 1920-21 will open on Monday, Sept. 20th, the day of registration. The majority of the present faculty has been re-engaged for the coming year. The growing Music Department will be strengthened by two or more new teachers. The Business Department will be reinforced by one additional teacher, new courses offered, and important changes made which will build up this flourishing department. The Department of Romance Languages will be improved by the addition of two courses in Italian given by Madame Rubina Ravi-Brooks, who will also reorganize and conduct the courses in French. Other additions to the faculty will be announced later.

First Year Academy Dropped

The policy of reducing the number of years of the Academy and strengthening proportionally the college department proper has been for some time under consideration. It has been decided by Dr. Ward, Chancellor Brooks, and the Executive Committee of the trustees to drop the first year Academy. Beginning then, with the college year 1920-21, the second year Academy (corresponding with the second year high school) will be the lowest class of the college preparatory work offered. In this connection it should be remarked that the Winter Park public school adequately provides for the first year of high school work. Whatever agreements are entered into between the school committee and the administration will be scrupulously observed.

Lecture Course Considered

A thorough going lecture course conducted under the auspices of the college in conjunction with the Citizen's Advisory Committee" is being considered and the fine beginning made this year will be carried out in a much larger and more comprehensive way this coming year by bringing to Winter Park lecturers of national repute and in this way offering unusual cultural opportunities. In this connection it should be said that Miss Susan Dyer, head of the Music Department, who has done so much to provide for the college and community unusual opportunities to hear the best things in music, is collaborating with Mr. Brooks for the coming year to provide our delightful college community with the best things obtainable in musical and dramatic lines.

Million Dollar Endowment

The generous response of the many winter residents of the college town to the appeal of the town committee is also significant of many friends who are deeply interested in both the college and the community and are ready to co-operate with the trustees, the administration, and the community in putting Rollins on an efficient and substantial basis.

The $40,000 and more already subscribed through the activity of this committee is strong assurance of the final success of the campaign. Scarcely less notable in its significance of a fine college spirit on the part of the student body and of their confidence in Dr. Ward and the present administration is the $6,000 and over pledged by the students. It is believed that there are few colleges of the size of Rollins that can show a similar record.

Fine Spirit Between College and Town

The feeling of solidarity between the college and community, always strong here, has been manifestly increased during the present year. Chancellor Brooks wishes to express his deep appreciation of the many evidences and expressions he has received on the part of so many of the representative people of Winter Park in support of Dr. Ward and himself in their united efforts to work for the best interests of college and community under circumstances often complicated and perplexing owing to the conditions under which the work was dresses in order to come to Rollins to deliver the address here.

He took the text of his address from the book of Job. It was, "The Price of Wisdom is Above Rubies." He said in part: "The long searches made by Jason and the Argonauts for the Golden Fleece, by Galahad for the Holy Grail, and by Ponce de Leon in Florida for the fountain of Perpetual Youth are not to be compared to man's search for knowledge. People expect College graduates to be leaders but will not make them leaders unless they are of sterling worth. There is a big difference between intellectual power and moral power. There is the same difference between knowledge and character. The people will turn to the man or woman who submerges personal interests and turns to the right. When out in life do not ask if there is money in a thing, ask yourself if it is right. The dawn of the day is coming when people will honor the person who follows the right.

It is much easier to preach than to practice. It requires will power to put what one preaches into practice. There are two kinds of choice; one is the kind that picks its way and goes no farther; the other puts things through with determination.

Knowledge is not always power as has often been said. It may be blasted power and detrimental to the person having it. The Kaiser had plenty of knowledge. But it resulted in the blasting of his power. The best power is the sympathy that comes with information. A person is not wise until he has taken God into his heart and life. He must say and do the rest."

In his charge to the Seniors, Rev. McNair said, "The best charge that could be given you is the one given by Paul to Timothy, 'Study to show thyself approved unto God.' There

EX-PRESIDENT FRENCH ELECTED HEAD OF HASTINGS COLLEGE

His many friends in Florida will be interested in the announcement that Ex-President Calvin H. French, D.D., LL.D., (1917-19), has recently accepted the presidency of Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, one of the best known Presbyterian colleges of the middle west.

Since his resignation from Rollins about a year ago, Dr. French has been an executive secretary in the survey work of the Inter-church World Movement, with offices in New York.

Y. W. C. A. REPRESENTATIVES NAMED

BIG DELEGATION FOR BLUE RIDGE

At a short meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last week after chapel a list of candidates to go to Blue Ridge was presented to the girls and five out of the nine were chosen. The association is especially lucky this year in being able to send one of the largest delegations ever sent from here. At a meeting of the cabinet Thursday the report of the Treasurers showed that the Association possess $208.00. There is a lack of about twenty-five dollars to make the amount to send delegates to Blue Ridge. Mrs. Dyer has generously contributed five of the necessary twenty-five.

The girls whom the Y. W. C. A. have chosen as its representatives are Florence Bumby, Bertha Gram, Easter Russell, Vesta Higgenbotham, and Ruth Waldron. All those who have been to Blue Ridge knew what an inspiring place it is and congratulate these girls on their opportunity. They will start on Commencement Day and remain at Blue Ridge ten days.

Next fall when the girls return, we feel sure that they will come back to Rollins with new inspiration and new ideas toward making the Y. W. C. A. a greater success.

FORMER ROLLINS STUDENT NOW FAMOUS

Claude C. Washburn, considered one of the coming men of letters, is now stopping at Oak Hall, North Carolina, with his wife and small son. His father has a large estate near there. Mr. Washburn came to Rollins in '96 when he was twelve years old and remained here for four years during Dr. Ward's first administration. As a boy he was rosy-cheeked, in perfect health, and very popular with the whole college. He enjoyed bicycle riding and long hikes. He often walked to Orlando and back with Dr. Baker under whose care he was at Lakeside. He is said to have been a very good student.

Mr. Washburn has passed most of his life abroad and since his marriage has lived mostly in Italy, especially in Florence. He has become a very well known author and among his books has published "General Northup," "Pages from a Book of Paris," and "Order" the last of which has just come out. Mr. Washburn is very much interested in all that concerns Rollins and Winter Park and is most anxious to see the place again.

CLOVERLEAF RUMMAGE SALE GREAT SUCCESS

Last Wednesday afternoon from two-thirty to five-thirty a very successful rummage sale was conducted under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. in the Cloverleaf parlor. The collection of merchandise consisted of everything from a needle to a threshing machine. It included all sorts of dry goods such as shoes, dresses, waists, middies, pin cushions, pocketbooks, etc.

A very substantial sum was realized from the sale which will be added to the Blue Ridge Fund. The Y. W. C. A. wishes to thank all those who so generously contributed towards making the sale a success.

Conservatory Completes Very Successful Year

Miss Susan Dyer, Director,
Elected President of Florida
Federation of Musical Clubs.

The present year has been the most successful, in point of activity and number of students enrolled, of any so far in the history of the Rollins College Conservatory of Music. The registration of music students this year numbers 156, an increase of 50 per cent over last year's registration. Of these students, two-thirds were special music students not registered in any other department of the college,—106, to be exact; and as the total registration of the college in all departments for the year is 322, this shows that about one-third of the registration in the college has been in the Conservatory alone.

The unprecedented increase in numbers has made necessary the enlargement of the teaching force, which has been augmented by the addition of two instructors in the piano department, Misses Nickerson and Coffin. Another year a further increase of staff is planned, as the Orlando studios, now established for two years, are growing in importance and number of students, this year about one-third of the conservatory students being registered in this branch.

Concerts, Organizations, Etc.

An average of two informal student recitals each month has been maintained throughout the year, and the Final Recitals on May 24th and 26th, in the evening, at Knowles Hall, together with the individual recitals given by the more advanced students, have shown a high level of attainment.

This year has been marked also by

Final Chapel Exercises

Chancellor Brooks Makes Announcements Saturday Morning

At the final chapel exercises of the year, held last Saturday morning, Chancellor Brooks made a number of announcements that are worthy of record.

The next collegiate year will begin on Monday, September 20, when the entire college plant will be in working order. The buildings are to be thoroughly cleaned and repaired at the conclusion of the conferences which will be held on the campus during the month of June and the campus improved in a number of ways. The familiar scenes which will greet those who return will be something to be looked forward to all summer.

The catalogue is now in the hands of the printer and will be ready for distribution by the end of June. A number of new courses are offered, especially in the English Department. It will also, as usual, contain a list of all students for the year 1919-20.

Later in the summer, perhaps the latter part of August, another bulletin will be published by the Administration, including a complete list of the faculty and giving the fall announcements. During the summer a news letter will be circulated among the students and in this way everyone will be kept in touch with the college and its progress.

Of more than passing interest to the high schools of the state will be the announcement that the Bacheller Prize Contest will be held next Founder's Week and that the Water Meet will be continued and held this year on April 30.

PRES. WARD INVITED TO INSTALLATION OF DR. W. M. MC-GLOTHLIN AS PRESIDENT OF FURMAN UNIV., S. C.

President George Morgan Ward is in receipt, during the past week, of a cordial invitation from the trustees and faculty of Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina, to attend the installation of William Joseph McGlothlin, Ph.D., D.D., LL.D., as President of that institution on Monday morning, June 7.

Furman University is one of the oldest Baptist institutions of the South. Its former president, Dr. Po-teat, has from time to time, lectured before the student body of Rollins College. Among those taking part in the exercises will be representatives of the trustees, faculty, alumni, the General Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, the State Superintendent of Education, the President of the State Association of Colleges, President E. W. Hunt, of Bucknell University; Prof. J. C. Metcalf, Litt. D., of the University of Virginia, and others.

ALPHA ALPHA & CO. MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO OLIVIA PARK

The afternoon of Saturday, May 22nd., came, as all days are want to come, and will continue to come until that day when the earth, as far as we mortals know, will be no more. Aw, wipe your eyes, gosh hang it, this ain't supposed to be a eulogy on the region of forgotten souls.

As I was 'just agoin' to say,—last Saturday saw the setting of the scene finale on the outing activities of Alpha-Alpha Fraternity for the present year.

At about 4:30 p. m., after all arrangements had been made, including that of several days previous of having submitted the names, addresses, and life ambitions of those "going" to the Social Committee, and this same supplication having received that august body's full sanction, the brothers were on hand in front of Chase Hall ready for—well, most anything. Rodenbaugh's big truck had been engaged and onto this piled the ready crew. Cloverleaf was the first way-station. There each brother grabbed himself a queen and away we went to Olivia Park.

On arriving at the appointed place practically everyone climbed into a bathing suit and the girls merrily changed rosy complexions for the more sedate white one, the natural gift of nature, in the cool waters.

Say, you should have seen some of those rented bathing suits. Those of "Goofy" Boyle, "Peerade" Sloan and "Corrie" Roberts presented a near likeness to the flowing robes of some wandering Bedouin.

In about an hour and a half everybody was again in conventional attire and busy around the bean pot.

After supper dancing, first to the jazz music of a large victrola and later to the still more jazzy sound of a good orchestra, was enjoyed—"Peerade" Sloan hammering the drums part of the time.

Every good thing comes to an end at some time or other. Yes, even the sweet sleep of death. Even so.

Again everybody was on the truck and wending their weary ways homeward through the shades of an approaching night which gave good promise to be nearly as beautiful as the girls by our sides.

Those comprising the party were: Dean and Mrs. Hochseteler, chaperones, Karl Tompkins, Wyman Stubbs, Carey Roberts, Donald Vincent, "Goofy" Boyle, "Peerade" Sloan, Pratt Foley, "Dud" Wilson, "Cheesey" Arrants, Robert Hatch, and Misses "Pud" Phelps, Olive Bedillion, Isabel Foley, Mabel Townsend, "Liz" Mur-

MRS. JOHN K. LIST GIVES DINNER-DANCE FOR K. E. GIRLS AND PHI ALPHAS

Perhaps the smartest function in which the Greeks have figured this year was the dinner-dance given by Mrs. John K. List last Thursday evening in compliment to the Kappa Epsilon girls for whom she has acted as "Mother" during this past year. The Phi Alpha boys were invited as their dinner guests and dancing partners.

Mrs. List's large dining room was arranged for fourteen guests and the remaining thirteen were seated in the adjoining conservatory. Fraternity colors were used as decorations and the tables presented a scene of good fun and fellowship. The guests will long cherish the place cards as they contained small snap shots of "Aunt Hat" and "Uncle John" standing at the entrance to the List rose garden. Nothing could have appealed more to the college palate than the fried chicken and all the other delicious things that came during the course of the dinner.

Following the dinner, dancing was enjoyed, and punch was served thru-out the evening.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. List in entertaining was Mrs. Arthur Schultz, an alumna of Kappa Epsilon. Other K. E. alumnae and honorary members were: Mrs. W. W. Rose, Mrs. Kenneth McCulloch, Miss Marion Rous and Miss Elizabeth Meriwether. Messrs. W. W. Rose, Kenneth McCulloch, and Arthur Schultz were special guests.

Those from the college were: Chancellor and Mrs. James Brooks; from Kappa Epsilon: Misses Idabel Edwards, Elizabeth Murphy, Mary Whitehead, Helen Hanna, Pauline Phelps, Doris Tilden, Florence Bumby, Jean Wagner and Mary Knoske; from Phi Alpha: Messrs. R. W. Greene, A. J. Hanna, Robert Galt, Harold Hill, Frederic Ward, Robert Sedgwick, Richard Potter, Alvord Stone, John Glassey, and Stanley Fosgate.

KAPPA EPSILON SUNRISE BREAKFAST

The K. E. girls entertained Monday morning with a sunrise breakfast at the Seminole grounds from five to eight o'clock.

This was the last affair given by these girls and one in which each member thoroughly enjoyed herself. The girls paddled out to the picnic grounds in canoes and started breakfast with a roaring fire. Soon such good eats such as bacon, rolls, eggs, and coffee were ready for the starving "sisters." After a jolly breakfast, the girls stretched out on blankets and had a good chat together before returning to the campus.

PHI ALPHA TEA

One of the final social functions among the fraternities was the formal tea given by Phi Alpha to the Sigma Phi girls in the Fraternity room on May 19th from 4:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon. All fraternities were invited and the assembly of "brothers" and "sisters" was truly charming. Chancellor Brooks was the guest of honor at the function. A feature of the affair was the grace with which "Pud" Phelps hid from sight the numerous cups of tea and petit gateaux proffered her by the gallants who had nothing else to do. Miss Rous poured with the real grace of a Southern lady.

IRMA HOFFMAN ENTERTAINS FRESHMAN CLASS

Miss Irma Hoffman entertained the Freshman Academy Class in her home "The Terrace" at Altamonte last Tuesday evening. Dancing and games were the feature of the evening with the introduction of the old time Virginia Reel and Lancers by Mr. Hoffman. During the evening delicious cream and punch was served.

Miss Hoffman's party was one of the most delightful off-campus affairs of the season. Those enjoying Miss Hoffman's hospitality were the Misses Flora Eckerson, Florence Edris, Frances Deremus, Wilhelmina Freeman, Frances Foley, Mildred Barrett, Kathleen Brady, Lucille Deal, and Messrs. John Bryan, Theodore Potter, Leslie Schultz, Howard Vincent, Ephriam Conway, Frank Evans, Earl Haight, Roger Smythe, and Mr. and Mrs. Smythe.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS OF THE DAY

Last Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Halstead Caldwell entertained the fraternities, Sigma Phi and Alpha Alpha, at Carlova, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Caldwell's brother, Alexander Maxwell Sloan. The lower floor was arranged for dancing and the music and esprit de corps combined to make the evening a gala occasion.

The features of the evening were a solo dance by Gertrude Davies and the presentation of best wishes to the birthday child by the Alpha Alpha brothers. After the grateful acceptance of which the young man sought a soft spot.

Any reticence Max may have felt about divulging his age was wasted for a vast cake frosted in chocolate and adorned with his initials and frills of white icing appeared with TWENTY-TWO candles twinkling thereon and only SEVENTEEN did he succeed in extinguishing—FIVE years before congratulations will be in order. Delicious cream was served.

Everyone had a wonderful time and left regretting that such birthday parties cannot come twice a year instead of once in a life time.

SONG RECITAL BY MISS FLORENCE KEEZEL

Another very well-attended recital was given in Knowles Hall on Wednesday, May 19th, by Miss Florence Keezel, who has studied voice at the Conservatory for some time. Miss Keezel possesses a mezzo-soprano voice of unusually fine quality, and her interpretation of the songs was very pleasing to her hearers. She received many beautiful flowers, and the enthusiastic applause of her audience showed the appreciation of all present. The program was as follows: Aria, from Theodora—Handel Know'st Thou the Lamb? (from Mignon) —Thomas Love is Like a Wild Bird (from Carmen) —Bizet The Snowdrop —Gretchanikoff Cradle Song —Tschaiowsky Floods of Spring —Sinding The Wanderer. Barcarolle.

NEW ATHLETIC PLANS ANNOUNCED

Season Tickets to Be Again In Force

The closing of the 1920 baseball season marks the winding-up of one of the best, athletic careers of Rollins college. The entire college year has been crowded with the most successful activities, and the several teams that have represented the Blue and Gold have been of the finest standard, always holding up that ideal, Clean Athletics.

Yet—we all know there has been

PROF. HAZELTINE ACCEPTS RESPONSIBLE NORTHERN POSITION

Prof. B. A. Hazeltine has accepted a position as assistant professor in one of the large northern universities. Prof. Hazeltine will be next to the department head and have a corps of four instructors beneath him.

The college as a whole deeply regrets losing Prof. Hazeltine for he has imbued the student body with a sense of real college "pep" and enthusiasm that is remarkable. He takes with him the best wishes of the students in this matter and there is no doubt but that the students find in him as good a friend and as willing

PERSONALS

"Stonehurst", across Lake Virginia, is the scene of a general family reunion this week. Miss Annie Stone, of the Class of 1918, has just returned from Palatka where she has taught French for the past year and her sister, Miss Florence, who was graduated one year later, is home from Chowan College, North Carolina, where she has been head of the Science Department. Their brother, who received his preparatory work here and later completed his work at the University has also been spending several days at home.

Miss Lillian Watkins, of the Home Economics Department, upon leaving here, will spend three weeks in Atlanta, and later go to her home in Nashville. During the summer session she will study at Columbia University where she expects to remain until February at which time she will have completed her work for the master's degree.

Miss Dolly Darrow, of Okeechobee, arrived on the campus Monday and has been the guest of Dixie Hill. She has reserved a room for next year and will be a member of the Freshman Class.

Miss Anne Bellows, of the English Department, will soon leave for New York where she will study at the National Training School of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Miss Sara Yancey, '18, who is at her home in Orlando after a successful year of teaching in Tennessee, attended some of the exercises of the week.

Mrs. Fayette Froemke, of Lake Alfred, has been spending the week in town visiting friends. She is an alumna of K. E. and has two brothers-in-law who will be in Chase Hall next year.

Word has come of the death of Mrs. Hobart Loveland, at her home in Denver, Colo. Mrs. Loveland will be remembered as Miss Mary Simrall to those who attended Rollins from 1908-12.

Born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sherman Pike, a son, Dean Sherman, junior, at their home in Sacramento, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Pike are alumnae of the college, Mrs. Pike formerly being Miss Mable Allen.

PHI ALPHA APPLIES FOR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Beginning this week, there is running in the local press, an application from Phi Alpha Fraternity for incorporation which will make this student organization a regular corporation of the state of Florida. The request says the Fraternity applies for incorporation as a corporation without profit, the primary object being to own land and erect a fraternity house for the Rollins chapter. The total indebtedness is $25,000 and the total value of property is set at $25,000.

It is understood that negotiations are already under way for the purchase of a lot which will be completed as soon as the bonds under incorporation are distributed. These bonds are for $10 each.

Application for incorporation has been made through the alumni of Phi Alpha who are organized into the Phi Alpha Association. The Board of Directors is composed of the following: D. A. Cheney, R. W. Greene, A. J. Hanna, J. H. Hill, Warren Ingram, G. O. Charles, T. J. Evans, Jr., C. A. Boyer, A. P. Musselwhite.

During the past week a most important meeting of Phi Alpha men and their alumni was held on the campus. Matters of nationalization were almost exclusively taken up and it is expected that Phi Alpha will merge into a national organization within the next few months.

PROF. DRESCH TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS IN KISSIMMEE

Professor W. H. Dresch, professor of Philosophy and Education at Rollins for the past two years, will deliver the Baccalaureate address at the High School auditorium in Kissimmee, on Sunday, June 6th. Prof. Dresch won many friends during his stay here at Rollins, as well as in Kissimmee, where he has been the active pastor at the Presbyterian church, since last October, carrying on the work there with such marked success that the people of the church have asked him to return, offering an attractive salary. Prof. Dresch also received a call from the church at Coconut Grove, that was equally attractive. He has not fully decided whether to remain in Florida during the coming year or not, but wherever he may be, the entire college unites in wishing him continued prosperity in the work that he has carried on with such great success.

Delphic Society Presents Three One-Act Plays

"THE GIFT OF THE MAGI," "BY COURIER" AND "WILL O' THE WISP".

On Wednesday evening one of the notable events of the year occurred when the Delphic Society presented its theatrical of three one-act plays in the Winter Park High School Auditorium. These dramatics represented the final effort of the year of this literary organization. How well they succeeded was shown by the applause which greeted the final curtain of each of the three snappy little plays. The evening was far from being monotonous as each of the plays was of a different character than the other two, and the music rendered before the presentation of the plays and during the intermissions was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The entertainment commenced with several musical selections which were played by a special orchestra from the College. This orchestra played on Monday night for the Girls' Glee Club Operetta and it repeated several of the catchy overtures and intermez-zos of that production.

The first play presented was one that was dramatized from the short story by O. Henry, "The Gift of the Magi," by members of the Delphic Literary Society. The story dealt with a young woman that wanted to give a suitable Christmas present to her husband so badly that, not having quite enough money, she made a great sacrifice and bought the present. Her husband also had such a desire and made a great sacrifice to buy his wife a present. The sacrifices each made to buy the other a gift detracted entirely from the use of the presents and the play ended with a clever anticlimax.

Florence Bumby, Mary Knoske and Gerald Kinnear took the parts of the characters in this play and the able manner in which they took part made this play a success.

"By Courier," dramatized in the same manner as the first play from another of O. Henry's short stories, dealt with the estrangement of two lovers due to a misunderstanding. The young man gets a street urchin to act as mediator and finally becomes united with his sweetheart again. Olive Bedilion, Richard Potter, and Frank Palmer were the characters in this play and showed real talent as actress and actors.

The third and last play, "Will O' The Wisp," was a mystery play of an unusual character. The parts of the characters in this play were taken by four girls, Ruth Waldron, Vesta Higgenbotham, Nina Marsh and Francis James. A city woman calls at a lonely farmhouse where her husband has spent several vacations before their marriage, to find what mysterious attraction there is in the neighborhood that would interest the poet so. She finds it is the "Will O' The Wisp," a spirit which haunts the marshes near by. She seeks this spirit and is lured to her death.

The success of this play depended on the theatrical ability of those taking part and the girls in the play proved that no mistake was made in the selection of characters.

This theatrical evening was given for the benefit of the 1920 Tomokan

GLEE CLUB GIRLS GIVE JAPANESE OPERETTA

The "Japanese Girl", a very picturesque operetta, was given by the Girls' Glee Club Monday evening, May 31st. All who attended declared that they had never heard the girls sing better. It was given on Chase Hall terrace facing the lake, which spot proved to be ideal for this delightful entertainment. The setting was a Japanese garden with the full moon giving a lovely effect as it shone upon the beautiful decorations of lanterns and cherry blossoms and wisteria, while Buddha smiled down from his shrine, imparting a truly oriental effect to the whole scene. The play was full of delightful Japanese scenes as, for instance, the opening act in which the girls kneel before the picture of the Mikado.

Another delightful feature was the oriental dance in which the girls becomingly dressed in vari-colored Japanese kimonos swayed gracefully through the mazes of the dance. All the instrumental music for this affair was supplied by the special orchestra organized for the purpose by Miss Dyer.

The cast consisted of the following: Hanu San—Florence Keezel.

The Cousins: Kayo and Kiku—Ruth Waldron, Jean Wagner.

American Girls—Norma Twinn, Elsa Siewert; Dora Twinn, Catherine Barnes.

Governess—Miss Minerva Knowall, Mrs. C. Harcourt.

SACRED SKEETERNITY

The fourth irregular meeting of the Sacred Skeeternity was held lately to celebrate their victory in suppressing their bitter rivals, the Overall Club. Besides the regular good time that is had at these meetings, the privilege of membership was extended to several worthy men. Skeeterfites Burt Hazeltine, Royall Klintworth, Stanley Fosgate, and Charles Ward became Skeeters.

Listening In

It was evening and several callers were chatting in the parlor, when a patter of little feet was heard at the head of the stairs. The mother raised her hand for silence.

"Hush, the children are going to deliver their good night message," she said softly. "It always gives me a feeling of reverence to hear them. They speak of love that is in their little hearts never so fully as when the dark has come."

There was a moment of tense silent. Then—

"Mama," came the message in a shrill whisper, "Hilary found a bed-bug!"

and a small sum was realized for the year-book.

The Delphic Society is greatly indebted to the interest and assistance of the ladies that directed these plays. Mrs. Dyer directed the first play, Miss Idabel Edwards the second and Mrs. R. D. Barze and Mrs. Hiram Powers directed the "Will O' The Wisp."

ONE D. D. AND TWO MASTER'S DEGREES TO BE CONFERRED THIS COMMENCEMENT

Rollins this year will confer its first honorary degree in two years, the last one having been received by the Rev. Fred R. Marsh, of Jacksonville. This year's recipient is the Rev. Charles H. Pettibone, a prominent clergyman of West Palm Beach.

Rollins has not conferred a master's degree since 1911 when Arthur L. Slater, of the Class of '09 took these honors. This year there are two candidates, Miss Anne Bellows, Instructor in the English Department, and Miss Eva McQuarters, Instructor in English in the Orlando High School. Both have majored in English under Dr. C. K. Hoyt during this past year.

Miss McQuarters received her bachelor's degree from Rollins in 1911 and Miss Bellows was graduated with the same degree in 1915.

several unusually fine concerts such as that given by the New York Chamber Music Society under Conservatory auspices in Knowles Hall on February 3rd, and the second series at the Winter Park Country Club, given by members of the faculty and outside artists. The student orchestra also made its annual appearance at a song recital given by Mrs. Brooks, for the benefit of the Serbian Student Fund, in March, and has been much in evidence during the recent Commencement festivities, at the Japanese Operetta, the High School Operetta, and the Delphic plays.

The Girls' Glee Club has been active and successful, as usual, making a decided innovation in its presentation of an operetta, "The Japanese Girl," which was given with great effect on the rear piazza of Chase Hall, the melodious music, picturesque staging, and unique costumes making a charming and unforgettable feature of Commencement Week.

This year has also been the revival of the Men's Glee Club, which in the past has been one of Rollins' specialties. Interest in the club was late in starting, but before the end of the season, it developed into a flourishing organization, and at the concert given at the time of the Water Meet, on April 30th, made a most successful bow to the public.

Both the Girls' and Men's Clubs have devoted their surplus funds to good causes, the girls working for the Serbian Relief Fund, and the men turning over their small "bonus" to the Tomokan.

Music Convention.

One of the most interesting events of the year at the college was the annual convention of the Florida Federation of Musical Clubs, held here under the auspices of the Conservatory, March 24th to 27th. At this convention delegates from fourteen Florida clubs assembled, and there were of the guests present many distinguished people, among whom was Mr. Harold Randolph, well-known pianist, and Director of the Peabody Conservatory, of Baltimore. The meetings, addresses, and music of this gathering were of great interest to lovers of music and musical progress, and it is believed the inspira-

YALE TEAMS ABANDON TRIP TO ENGLAND

The arrangements that Yale had made to send crew, track, and tennis teams to England this summer have been annulled, and the plan, for this year at least, has been abandoned. The crew was the first to give up the plan, because of conflicting dates, the English—Henley and the Yale—Harvard races coming at the same time. In tennis, satisfactory terms could not be arranged. Under these circumstances the track team decided to wait another year.

The following statement by Dean Farr, of Yale, regarding college education, may be interesting to many here at Rollins:

"It makes no difference," he said, "which college a man selects, but it does make a difference as to what his motives are for going there. A man will get equal opportunities in all colleges, and it really makes no difference in the number of opportunities a man chances to get. It is the use to which he puts each one."

"Do not come to college solely for the purpose of the social life you will obtain, nor simply for the athletic triumphs you might achieve; but come with the idea of preparing yourself to help your fellow men. Twenty years ago, a fellow came to college to prepare himself for business, or engineering, or some other occupation, but today a fellow should come with a thought for his country."

"In these times of social and political turmoil everything will depend upon the coming generation. Therefore, do not go to college with the selfish idea of simply preparing yourself to make money, but go with the idea that you are preparing yourself to help all mankind."

That's What We Are For

tion of the meeting will exert a wide influence on musical development in Florida.

At this convention, Miss Susan Dyer, Director of the Rollins Conservatory, was elected President of the Florida Federation of Musical Clubs for the coming two years.

The Graduates.

This spring the Conservatory is graduating three students, one in piano, Miss Eleanor Coffin, and two as Supervisors of Public School Music, Miss Ruth Hoyt, and Miss Jesse Pedrick, the latter a last year's piano graduate and this year a member of the Conservatory staff.

All three graduates are well able to uphold the high standard demanded by the Conservatory of those receiving its diplomas.

The Faculty.

All of the present faculty of the music department are to return next year with the exception of Miss Anna B. Waterman, for four years head of the vocal department, who, for family reasons, finds it impossible to return to Winter Park. Her leaving will be regretted by a host of friends, on the campus and in the town, and her charming personality sadly missed in the college circle where she has made for herself such a sure place.

It is not yet announced who will be head of the vocal department next year in her stead, but Miss Dyer is at present corresponding with a Chicago vocalist and teacher whose name will be made public when final arrangements have been concluded.

NEW ATHLETIC PLANS ANNOUNCED

delinquency in some things, in spite of the decided efforts of those authorities in charge. At the beginning of the college year last fall, the system of managing the different sports so as to get the best of results was greatly handicapped. The reason for this can only be laid to the fact that sports declined during the war period and at the time of opening again, last fall, had not wholly gained their footing.

During the year Athletic Director Greene, the Athletic Council (elected from the student body), and the entire student body in general, have worked hard and in unison, with remarkable results, thus building up a strong foundation upon which to build in the future.

Much has already been accomplished, plans made, and the ball set rolling for even a greater season next year.

With the revising of the constitution and by-laws of the Athletic Association, comes the assurance of a stronger organization for the coming years in athletics for Rollins. The enlarging of the Council, which serves as the Executive Committee,—brings in older heads and representative athletic leaders besides connecting up our Association with the Alumni of the College. Perhaps no better revision could have been made and the committee should be complimented on the splendid piece of work.

Under the new constitution, the season ticket comes back into force and besides a better attendance at the games there will be more spirit as the cheering section will be stronger and better organized. Support from the side-lines is always necessary for a successful team and plans are already under way for a strong organization headed by "Dick" Potter, our enthusiastic cheer leader.

The by-laws call for a more rigid regulation on the issuing of the College "R" and this is a commendable act. The man who has worked hard and earned his letter dislikes to meet the college man who has been awarded a letter without earning it. The hard and fast rule means, placing a higher value on the "R" and gives the athlete who has the honor of wearing the symbol of honor the place he deserves among his college mates.

The by-laws further provide for the keeping of a "trophy room" and this is a matter that should have had attention years ago. In the future records, photographs, and athletic articles will be preserved in cabinets provided for such purposes.

HALF MILLION DOLLAR LOSS IN PRINCETON FIRE

Two of Princeton University's most noted buildings, Dickinson Hall, named after Jonathan Dickinson, first president of Princeton, and Marquand Chapel, were destroyed by fire last Friday.

Costly memorials and memorial windows in the chapel were destroyed, including St. Gauden's bronze, one of his most beautiful works, which was presented as a memorial to the late Dr. James McCosh, a former president of Princeton. The loss is estimated at half a million dollars.

YANKS OVERWHELM COMPETITORS IN GIGANTIC FRANCO-AMERICAN TRACK MEET

The largest indoor and field track meet ever staged by the American Forces in Germany took place at the "Y" Athletic Club in Coblenz, between the American and French Army athletes.

The meet was directed by Captain Withers, Chief Athletic Officer of the A. F. in G. and E. W. Brannon, Chief Athletic Director of the Y. M. C. A., A. F. in G.

The Americans simply swept the French off their feet, scoring 83 points to their competitors' 25. The Yanks took first place in the tug-of-war, relay race, 400 yards run, 40 yards hurdles, 900 yards run, rope climb, running high jump, 100 yards dash, 1700 yards run and standing board jump.

The French won first place in only two events, the 40 yards dash and the 200 yards run.

The Americans won all places in the 400 yards run, the 100 yards dash, and the standing broad jump.

HARVARD TRIES NEW SYSTEM OF TRACK COACHING

Through the efforts of the Graduate Track Advisory Committee, the track management at Harvard has been able to secure a special slow-speed film of track stars in action. The film is to be shown to all members of the track squad. Among the national stars who will be seen in action are F. Kelley in the hurdles, M. McGrath in the hammer-throw, H. Baker in the half mile, and F. Foss in the pole vault.

Moving picture operators from different companies were at the field Friday to take pictures of individuals in action. If it is possible to arrange it, these pictures will be shown in conjunction with the others.

By exhibiting pictures which will show stars in action, as well as those of members of the squad who are correct in form as compared with those who are faulty, the graduate committee and the management and coaches hope to develop each man so he will know the correct form for his event and then obtain speed. The showing of moving pictures is only one of the many innovations that have been introduced in track this year, and all these methods are being used to put the sport back on its former basis and to help prepare the athletes for the coming season and the Olympic Games.—The Exonian.

"With a true combination of moral insight and plain common sense, we have amended our Constitution and have provided the greatest single economic factor looking toward material prosperity ever created by legislative enactment. I believe that the economic value of prohibition will eventually be an influence for the prosperity of society, the like of which will amaze ourselves and the world."—Frank A. Vanderlip, Feb. 25, 1920.

An increase in salaries amounting to nearly 25 per cent per annum and beginning with this present semester has been granted to the faculty of the University of Wisconsin.

Success

What is the secret of success?

"Push," said the button.

"Never be lead," said the pen.

"Take pains," said the pill.

"Keep your eyes open," said the needle.

"Use your time," said the clock.

"Take Time," said the calendar.

"Don't knock," said the bell.

"Find a good thing and stick to it," said the glue.—Ex.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION FEE TO BE MORE COMPREHENSIVE NEXT YEAR

During the past week the faculty committee on Student Organization has been in conference with Chancellor Brooks regarding the organization of the Student Association and the make-up of the Student Association Fee which each Rollins student pays upon registration.

In nearly every state university of the South, notably the Universities of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia Tech., and in many of the small colleges of the Middle West, the principle of Student Organization has worked out most effectively, and it is on this general plan that the Rollins organizations will work next year.

During the past year each regularly enrolled student has paid a Student Association fee of $6.00 for the year which has included a subscription to the Sandspur, participation in the Delphic Society, support of athletics, and has cared for the usual repair to tennis courts, boats, etc. Under the plan each other organization has had to collect its own fees and finance its own schedule which has resulted in a number of deficits and waste of time to both faculty and students concerned. Next year it is proposed to put the financing of these organizations on a more business-like foundation. The Student Association fee will be increased to $15.00 and at the beginning of college an Association ticket will be issued each student. This ticket will entitle the holder to a subscription to the Sandspur, a season ticket to all athletic games, (football, basketball and baseball), membership in the Delphic Society (which support will go toward lectures by prominent men such as Hamlin Garlin, music, dramatics, and debates, etc.).

This $15.00 paid in by each student will be distributed by a committee composed of students and faculty. Thus, if there is an enrollment of 300, the total receipts would be $4,500 which will be used by this committee to finance athletic games, print the Sandspur, and bring noted lecturers and musicians to the campus.

Under this plan the student will be admitted, by this season ticket, to all games, concerts, lectures, etc., given on the campus and will not be hounded from time to time to buy tickets and pay dues to organizations. This will also provide the funds for the immediate expenditures of the committee and they can accordingly make out their budget for student enterprises for the year.

WHY GO TO COLLEGE BECAUSE

BEST PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS REQUIRE TWO OR MORE YEARS OF COLLEGE TRAINING FOR ENTRANCE

Law Schools

University of Chicago.
Johns Hopkins.
Harvard.
Columbia.
Leland Stanford.
Western Reserve.
California.
Yale.
Montana.
Etc.

Medical Schools

Push.
John Hopkins.
Harvard.
Cornell.
Leland Stanford.
Syracuse.
California.
Yale.
Pennsylvania.
Etc.

Some of the best technical schools require some culture work in graduation:

Columbia School of Architecture.
Leigh University.
Massachusetts Institute of Technology, etc.

An Oak Tree or a Squash?

A young man once asked the president of Oberlin College if he could not take a shorter course. "Oh, yes," said the president, "but that depends on what you intend to make of yourself. When God wants to make an oak he takes a hundred years, but when he wants a squash he takes only six months."

Value of the Small Colleges

"The difference between a large university and a small college is that in the large university the student goes through more college but in the small college more college goes through the student."—John A. Peters, LL.D., Yale, '42.

Mark Hopkins, than whom America has produced no greater teacher, used to say he hoped Williams would never grow into a populous university for he was convinced the best college work can be done in institutions of less than 500 students.

FINAL DOMESTIC SCIENCE SUPPER A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

On Friday evening, May 25th, the Domestic Science Class, under the direction of Miss Watkins, gave a "Sunday night supper" as the last of their series of practical demonstrations for the term. The table, with places laid for fourteen people and with its dainty centerpiece of pink and white oleanders, was indeed a pretty picture. Misses Mae Clock and Lucy Anderson presided at the chafing dishes. The menu consisted of Welsh rarebit on toast, creamed chicken, banana salad, saltines, lemon ice, cake, coffee and chocolate candy. Besides the class there were as guests at this delightful affair Misses O'Neal and Bellows, and Easter Russell. The class and Miss Watkins are certainly to be congratulated upon the successful completion of a year of genuine work.

Why Go To College

It is estimated that since the United States was founded only one man in every 750 has gone to college. Yet this small number has furnished: 17 of the 26 presidents, 19 of the 27 vice-presidents, 17 of the 34 persons in the Hall of Fame.

Broadens One's Horizon

Perhaps the chief advantage in a college education is that it broadens one's horizon. One becomes acquainted with more subjects, interested in more directions, sees more in life, gets more out of life. Little things no longer appear great, and great things one never dreamed of before rise into view. It is like climbing a mountain. One never knows the real landscape until one has viewed it from the heights.

HAVE CO-OPERATIVE COTTAGES

A cooperative cottage where they cook their own meals has been established by the coeds who are working their way through the University of Montana. This does away with the unsatisfactory plan which the girls have followed in the past of working for their room and board. It also makes the girls feel themselves on more of a social par with the other students.

MRS. JOHN T. FULLER ADDRESS Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A.

The last meetings of the Christian Associations were combined and held in Cloverleaf parlors on Tuesday evening. Mrs. John T. Fuller, the speaker of the evening, conducted the devotional exercises and selected for the scripture lesson the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, remarking appropriately on the subject of faith, so admirably treated therein. Her talk, the theme of which was "The House Not Made With Hands," was very inspiring and will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to hear her. Mrs. Fuller spoke at length on the various ways in which this idea can be employed in daily life, bringing out the importance of the spiritual side of our natures.

The Y. W. C. A. has been particularly successful in its work during the past year. The annual bazaar given in the fall accomplished its purpose and enabled the girls to meet their annual pledge of $120 for the Tampa Mission. Throughout the entire year, they have worked tirelessly in raising money for sending delegates to Blue Ridge. The annual May Day program, ably directed by Miss Bellows, was an unequalled success, and added a substantial amount to the Blue Ridge fund. At the annual election of officers the cabinet was considerably enlarged and strengthened, and it is with confident hope for a fuller and greater work that the association looks forward to next year's opportunities. The women of the world are realizing more and more fully how great are the chances for service, and Rollins girls are eager to assume their full share of the great responsibility and privilege of doing their part.

Another "If"

If we could only throttle
This big highbrow Aristotle,
And James and Epecurus, with
Some others of the clan.

Then can old Issac Newton
With his theories highfalutin',
And likewise Watt and Darwin
With his principle of Man.

If we could beat up Priestly,
Who uncorked the puzzle beastly
Which ever since has soaked up stuff
To fill the human pate

If we could only crown 'em,
Better: bottle up or drown 'em,
We'd have a world worth living in
And college would be great!

LAKE FOREST COLLEGE GIRLS PRESENT "THE JAPANESE GIRL"

It is very interesting to note that the Girls' Glee Club of the Music School, Ferry Hall, and Lois Durand Hall at Lake Forest College presented, on May eighth, the charming operetta which was given on the Chase Hall terrace, Monday night, by the Rollins Girls' Glee Club. "The Japanese Girl" is a very popular and beautiful operetta, in two acts, written by Vincent.

DR. WARD A POPULAR COM- MENCEMENT SPEAKER

Receives Many Invitations This Spring

It is interesting to note the number of invitations that have been extended President George Morgan Ward during the past spring to deliver baccalaureate and commencement addresses before various institutions of the state. He is known not only throughout the state but also in the North for his magnetic power as a speaker and he is sought for the most important addresses of the year.

First on the list comes a request from Stetson University for the commencement address. It will be remembered that Dr. Ward spoke at the University of Florida commencement last year and at the Florida State College for Women the year before that.

High schools in the state, who have wished for an opportunity to hear him are: Orlando, Sanford, St. Petersburg, Wauchula, Winter Garden, Seabreeze and Okeechobee.

SEWING CLASS DISPLAYS SEMESTER'S WORK

A fitting close to a pleasant term of work under the efficient supervision of Miss Lillian Watkins was the exhibition of this semester's work by the Sewing Class in the parlors of Cloverleaf Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 to 6 o'clock. Several new members came into the class at the beginning of this term, and the success with which they accomplished their work was clearly shown in the fine display made. The dainty blouses and dresses, as well as several charming hats, well testified to the careful instruction the class has had. Among the work of the more experienced girls, the silk dress made by Irma Sample deserves special mention. The class has enjoyed a most profitable year and it is with sincere regret that they learn that Miss Watkins will not return next year to resume the work she has so admirably carried on here for the past two years.

SERBIAN GIRLS NOT EXPECTED TO RETURN NEXT YEAR

Following the movement begun last year for the bringing of Serbian students to American colleges for their educational training, Rollins, this year, with the help of one of the prominent citizens of the town, was able to support two young women both of whom have greatly endeared themselves in the hearts of the students, citizens, and all with whom they have come in contact. The progress they have made in learning our language and customs is simply remarkable.

Though not relatives they both claim the name Mladenovitch. Both are training themselves for definite beneficial service to their country upon their return to Serbia, Persida as a teacher and Darinka as a doctor.

The two girls are anticipating spending their vacation with friends at Center Harbor, New Hampshire. It is with the deepest regret that because of their change in plans we realize the probability of their not returning next year.

FACULTY MAKE NEW ATHLETIC REGULATION AND ELIGIBILITY RULES

Rollins Continues To Uphold Clean Athletics

1.—The Faculty Committee on Athletics is entrusted with the general oversight of all field and track athletics and other competitive sports, and is charged with the management of the athletic field, tennis courts, boats, and boat house.

The management of intercollegiate contests is in the hands of the athletic council; but the scheduling of games must meet the approval of the Faculty Committee on Athletics.

3.—Leave of absence may be granted by the Dean of the College to football, baseball, or other athletic teams for the purpose of playing intercollegiate match games, such leaves of absence not to exceed six (6) days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, for each team in any one season except by previous consent of the President and Dean. The Athletic Director, or some other person designated by him to represent the Faculty, shall accompany teams on their trips, his expenses on such trips to be paid by the Athletic Association.

4.—The Athletic Council shall submit to the Faculty Committee on Athletics a financial statement of each department of athletics at the close of its season; and an annual financial statement of the Athletic Association by the first of June each year.

5.—Athletic teams shall not have contests elsewhere than upon the College grounds with any teams except those from other institutions of learning. Business details of all games played elsewhere than on the home grounds shall be arranged and carried out by the management of the teams contesting.

6.—No student shall engage in any form of athletic contest except with the written sanction of the Athletic Director, and after thorough physical examination by the Athletic Director or an assistant acting in his stead and by his request.

7.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport until after he has made written application for such permission to the Faculty Committee on Athletics and has received the written approval of his application by this committee. This approval shall be further endorsed by the Dean of the College, to the effect that the applicant is a properly matriculated student. At the time the application is made the student shall present a full statement of his previous athletic record and shall accompany this with a signed statement, on his honor, that he is thoroughly conversant with the present eligibility rules for athletics at this College and has in no way violated them. The candidate's application to become a member of an athletic team shall carry also a signed statement by the coach of the team for which he is a candidate that the coach knows of no reason why the candidate should not be permitted to play.

8.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport who is not regularly matriculated, taking a minimum of twelve hours of class-work each week in the college.

9.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport if he is not maintaining a passing grade in at least one-half of his class-work. The Dean shall require of the professors and instructors on the first and fifteenth of each month, a report of the class standing of each member of the athletic teams and when it appears from such report that a student is not doing work of required grade, as above noted, he shall be dropped from such team until his work shall appear from further report to be satisfactory. The names of the members of the athletic team shall be furnished by the Dean to the various professors and instructors.

10.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport who is not regularly matriculated.

11.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport unless he has been matriculated, and has begun his college work not later than fifteen (15) days from the opening of the first term, except in the case of a returning student who is delayed by illness or other necessity.

12.—No student who is recognized by the Athletic Council as a member of the football team shall be eligible for the following football season unless he has remained as a resident student for the entire scholastic year, or unless he gives to the Faculty Committee on Athletics a satisfactory reason for his withdrawal.

13.—No person whose name appears in the catalogue as that of an instructor, and who receives remuneration for his services as such, shall be a member of any athletic team representing this college.

14.—No student shall represent this College in any branch of intercollegiate sport, (1) if he has received, is now receiving, or is promised, directly or indirectly, any financial remuneration for athletic services rendered, provided this shall not apply to a student who has played baseball on an independent team before entering this college, (2) or if he is now, or has ever been a member, or substitute member of any of the professional or league teams named in classes A, B, C or D, in the publication of the American Sports Publishing Company.

15.—A player who has been declared professional in one branch of athletics shall be considered ineligible in all branches of athletics.

tractive plans for this coming session.

The managing board of these three meetings will take full advantage of the many opportunities for recreation which Winter Park affords. The entire afternoon of each day is to be devoted to recreation.

Lake Virginia, and the wonderful chain of waterways which stretch away on every side among scenes of surpassing tropical beauty, the two golf links of the Country Club and the entire athletic equipment of the College have been tendered the delegates. Winter Park being located on the range of hills which form the backbone of the peninsula, shares the ocean breezes with both the east and the west coast and in addition too, having the lake breezes sweeping off the beautiful chain of lakes which encircle the town.

Winter Park as a center for conferences and conventions is able to handle hundreds of delegates. The town is most central for the state and the beauty of the place together with the equipment at the college, affords delegates an opportunity to come in from their communities and have a very profitable time, combining education with a delightful outing.

A Bad "Break"

At an evening party a smart young man was introduced to a young lady and after a remark about the weather, he said gallantly:

"And have I really the pleasure of meeting the beautiful Miss Krex whose praises are being sounded by everybody?"

"Oh, no," replied the lady. "The beautiful Miss Krex to whom you refer is a cousin of mine."

"Oh, that's it. Well, I thought there must be a mistake somewhere," said the gallant youth.

Not a little of the time honored "Rollins spirit" is reflected in this hearty endorsement of the magnificent effort of Dr. Ward and the trustees of the Blue and Gold to put Rollins upon a solid financial basis—a basis from which to work out with assurance toward the high educational ideals of the institution.

Success of Campaign Assured

It is announced from the office that the success of the campaign is assured. The committee of the town of Winter Park, whose quota is $50,000 reports that already well over $40,000 has been pledged and that personal letters are being sent out to those property owners and residents not at present in town and that a substantial response is expected from this source. The local committee also plans to make a personal canvas of all the people in Winter Park shortly, with the purpose of having every resident append his name to the long list of loyal backers of the home college, even if the amount is but nominal. #### Terrible

Bill—"I read that Culebra Cat is falling again."
Dopey—"Lucky for you guys that smoke a pipe. I wish that Camels would get cheaper."

They Are Sometimes

Senior (busily writing letter)—"Is there an 'e' on the end of chaperon?"
Soph—"No, but there are two 's's' in unnecessary."

Amen!! Brother

Prof. Blair—"What animal makes the nearest approach to man?"
Goof Boyle—"The cootie."

Aw Moicy

Boity and Goity were playing in the doot. Boity says to Goity, "they's a woim in the doot." Goity says to Boity, "the woim won't hoit."
—Alphomega.

Zorbaugh Tumbles

Zorbaugh—"I had a fall last night which rendered me unconscious for several hours."
Jerry—"You don't mean it! Where did you fall?"
Zorbie—"I fell asleep."

Bow Wow

Fosgate—"I hear there is a city ordinance against drowning dogs in the lake."
Schultz—"Yes, sunken barks are a menace to navigation."—Ex.

Yards—Maybe

Hotel Keeper—"We haven't any beds long enough for you sir."
Zorbaugh—"Well, when I get in there will be two feet more."

Getting One on Father

Father—"Why do you use paint on your face?"
Daughter—"The same reason you use resin for your violin."
Father—"Why is that?"
Daughter—"To help me draw my beau."

From Those Sweet Lips

A maiden sweet, seraphic, neat,
With eyes of azure hue;
A baby stare, a childlike air,
A soul as pure as dew.

Beneath her feet a tract of sleet.
Alas! She seemed to slip.
She tried to stop. She fell kerflop!
We heard a startling rip!

A saint might cuss and make a fuss,
By righteous anger stirred.
But, oh, to think a maiden pink
Would use that awful word!—Ex.

"You say Berk came into sudden wealth?"
"Yes, lucky dog that he is."
"How was that—what do you mean—sudden wealth?"
"An old maid with a million said to him: 'This is so sudden'."—Ex.

Then Shoot 'er

Eph—"Are you one of her suitors?"
Glassey—"Yes, but I didn't"
Eph—"Didn't what?"
Glassey—"Didn't suit 'er."

A Florida Cracker

Potter—"I met a deaf and dumb man today, who had every bone in his hand broken."

Red—"Terrible! How did it happen?"

Potter—"He used to crack jokes on his fingers."

Blind! I'll Say So

Rex—"An empty banana skin hit me in the eye."

Klintworth—"Hereafter you must always have your eyes peeled."

A Bonehead In Embryo

"Does your little boy show determination?"

"Yes; he has spent the whole day blowing soap bubbles and trying to pin one on the wall."

High Cost O' Learning

Stude—"Do you drink Professor?"

Prof—"Yes indeed, I enjoy good wine."

Stude—"Do you smoke?"

Prof—"I like nothing better than a good cigar."

Stude—"H-m, 'Sgonna cost me something to pass this course."

OUR BELOVED (?)

Believe Him

Robbins—"Do you shave with a safety razor all the time?"
Dud—"No, just every now and then."

Foul Weather

Sedgwick—"Looks like rain this morning."
Berk—"Yes, but it tastes like coffee just the same."

Years or Feet?

Skid—"My, how short that coat is, Cheesy!"
Monsieur George—"That's all right, it will be long enough before I get another one."

Give the meaning of "peruke" and use it in a sentence.

The Hawaiians sell their stringed instruments at so much peruke.—Ex.

The Law of Diminishing Returns

Doc—"My dear boy, don't you know that drinking shortens your life?"
Son—"But during that life I see twice as much."

Our Way of Fishing

Man—"What are you fishing for, little boy?"
Boy—"Sharks."
Man—"But there are no sharks in that little pond."
Boy—"No—nor nothing else, so I might as well fish for sharks."—Ex.

A FABLE IN SLANG

I met her in the ball room
Looking sweet, demure and shy;
"Ah, here is the kind they used to have,
An innocent girl,"—said I.

"Here is a 'Fem' who is girlishly sweet,
Naught of this world she knows,
Surely this must be her first prom.,
Or why would she be looking so?"

I hardly knew how to approach her
I knew nothing fitting to say;
"How divinely you dance," was the opening.
Her's was: "How do you get that way?"

"Your voice is like the music,
When with you all else I forget."
But here she interrupted with
"You ain't heard nothing yet."

"Your shimmying is superb," I said,
"You set my head in a whirl,
You have 'Old Irene' in the shade."
She chirped, "I'll tell the world."

Then when the dance was over
I ventured "You're some dancer,
Ruth."
But somehow the line didn't reach her,
For she answered, "Ain't it the truth?"

When she danced off the next one,
And turned to go out the door,
She babbled a fond, "Good-bye old dear.
That's all there is—there ain't any more."

So I wandered back to the womanless throng,
And stood there feeling quite leary,
The fellow who said, "Ruth's a simple co-ed."
Surely "Didn't know the half of it, dearie."—Ex.

Oh Get Out

Eddie—"Mary how old are you?"
Mary—"Oh! In the neighborhood of fifteen."
Eddie—"Say, kid, you're in the wrong neighborhood."

Rise Up So Early In the Morn

The saddest words—
The words we hate—
Are these: "Get up,
It's after eight!"

Observe the pole-cat from afar!
In solitude he is a Czar;
Who knows the music of his purr?
Yet, later, women wear his fur.

And gaze at yonder porcupine.
Now, as to points, you bet he's fine;
I'd have you know he thinks he's slick—
He makes the fourteen points look sick.—Ex.

In Nights of Old

Sir Jim, a knight in armor bright,
Took tea with Lady Bowsers;
Most carelessly, she spilt some tea
And rusted Jim's best trousers.—Ex.

See Ya In September

Now all good things must have an end,
And so this line must close,
Your criticisms do not send,
We have sufficient woes.
