I'm not Hal

The first thing you might have noticed is that I'm not Hal! Hopefully you got my email, or a warning from Hal that I would be taking over as Psychology librarian. Although I can't match his humor and grace, I can try to help with all the things Hal helped you with. A short list: in-class or online instruction, research support, resource purchases, and support for your students.

New Website

The UCF Libraries has a brand new website debuting in Fall 2015! The website was designed to meet the needs of our users, and we think you'll be pleased with the easy access to searching, hours, help, and the resources your students need to be successful. A good place to start would be the Services for Faculty page (<http://library.ucf.edu/services/services-for-faculty/>).

Note: If you linked to our old site in your syllabus, Webcourses, etc. you will likely need to update your links. Let me know if you need assistance locating a page.

Streaming Video

UCF Libraries provides access to four collections of online, streaming video that you can use in class or online: Alexander Street Press, Films on Demand, Swank Digital Campus, and Kanopy. Find out more at: <http://guides.ucf.edu/facultystreaming>

Reach for the STARS

Do you want to ensure persistent access to your (or your students') work?
 Are you ready to increase discovery of scholarship and creative endeavors?
 Do you wish you could discover open access materials & projects created by UCF authors?
 Are you or your students interested in documenting & recording UCF's history and progress?
 Have you been waiting for a mechanism that will allow you to share your work while retaining your copyright?

Look no further than STARS, UCF's digital repository created as a Showcase of Text, Archives, Research & Scholarship at <http://stars.library.ucf.edu>. STARS can help publicize, disseminate, and provide ready access to works by, for, and about the University of Central Florida. As a Technology Fee funded project to use the Digital Commons repository platform sponsored by the UCF Libraries, STARS is available to host and promote research, creative activity, and institutional outputs. Best of all - if you own the copyright to your work, the copyright for materials uploaded to STARS remains with you.

Do you have an idea for a new project or collection? Let us know at <http://bit.ly/1JK2njx>. For additional information, comments, questions, or suggestions, contact the STARS manager at STARS@ucf.edu or get in touch with Carrie.
