Dear

I C: understanding by Grot at my return was living & the next day saw one after my coming home drew the mortgage the wife and other business presented a day or two my going to him but last day went over, took John Gurkel bond of his son with me, & told him my business he said he would not seal it, until he had the money asked if we would engage for the payment of it to him & told him I would for the payment of for the children use & Gurkel told him he had given a note to agree to what the meeting should do in paying forth the youngest child & money must go that way he said he mattered not he would have the money paid to him upon the sealing of the mortgage & until then he would not seal & told him I would have him to secure the children's money for his own part if he stood in need we must help him the children ought to be secured he said he stood in need of none of us the money he would have thus we left him & this in great haste I thought good to acquaint thee

when I went down to newcastle, & bought of the men 2 falling apes byed them together & directed them to Job Branting & directed them to send them first but they were never sent that we know of if they be not sent I would not now have them now sent my wife bought the where because they came not but if they were sent let me know by whom or when Dear love ad all at present from thy friend
