Special Collections & University Archives proudly presents...

Book Conservation of the William L. Bryant West Indies Collection

This exhibit surveys the process of conservation work performed on rare books of the Bryant Collection, a scholarly collection of over 2,000 books and periodicals on the history, geography, economy, and social life of the West Indies and the Caribbean area. Through photo documentation and books from the collection, the Book Conservation of the William L. Bryant West Indies Collection exhibit displays the meticulous craft of conservation work done by the book conservator, Christopher Saclolo, at Special Collections & University Archives.

This exhibit runs from July 6, 2015 - September 30, 2015.

UCF through the Decades

This exhibit displays University Archives memorabilia and documents that illustrate the breadth of UCF's expansion from its beginnings as the Florida Technological University to its current status as one of the nation's leading metropolitan research universities. The exhibit highlights University "firsts" and various department, faculty, staff, and student contributions and ends with a glimpse at where the University is headed in the near future. Come take a visual tour through UCF's expansive history as a campus and community.

This exhibit runs from October 1, 2015 - January 29, 2016.

— For more information on the exhibits, please contact Special Collections & University Archives, located on the 5th floor. —
