BELGIAN TRIO WILL PLAY ENGAGEMENT AT ROLLINS

FAMOUS MUSICIANS TO APPEAR IN KNOWLES ON FEBRUARY 14

Take Place of Zoellner Quartet Whose Engagement Was Canceled

These two artists will appear in Knowles Hall on the evening of February 14th in place of the Zoellner Quartet, who have recently cancelled their engagement with the college. The conservatory is fortunate in being able to substitute a concert of this character at such short notice and was able to schedule the organization because of their having a date in Daytona the following day.

Student Association and Conservatory tickets admit to this concert.

DAISY JEAN, BELGIAN 'CELIST'

Daisy Jean, although born in Le Havers, of French and Scotch parentage, was reared in Belgium, and is considered a product of her adopted country.

As a rule the parents of so great an artist as Daisy Jean have shown musical ability. In this case there was none mentioned, and it is all the more extraordinary that she is one of five children who have each become professional musicians of unusual rank. Daisy Jean played in public, with success, at the age of 10, and at 15 was the gold medal with highest honors, in competition with 22 of her classmates at the Royal Conservatoire of Brussels.

The parents of Daisy Jean were not willing to risk the possible loss of health and a general education of their daughter for the sake of spectacular display. Consequently, she did not, between the ages of 10 and 15 play in public. But since her graduation she has made good her

BASKET BALL TEAM RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP TO CAROLINA

COMPLETE SUCCESSFUL CIRCUIT PLAYING BEST TEAMS IN COLLEGES OF THE OLD PALMETTO STATE

SHIFT OF LINE UP WINS OVER FURMAN UNIVERSITY

Injury to Fletche, Star of Team, Loses Hard Game to Presbyterian College

The Rollins team arrived in Greenville Thursday afternoon and rested at the Imperial Hotel until Friday afternoon, when Furman University was played at the Y. M. C. A. Gym. The team were ready for a battle sayal at 5:30 and went after the "Carolina Hurricanes" in great shape. The lineup was changed from that of the first three games; Dow playing forward in place of Palmer, and Stone taking guard. This proved to be a much stronger lineup. The first half ended 14 to 9, Rollins leading from the start. At the start of the second half, Furman made a spurt and scored three baskets from the floor, putting them in the lead 15 to 14. "Smut" Fletcher then got the team together, putting a lot of pep into them. By close guarding and a hard offensive at the proper time Furman was kept from scoring, while Rollins made seven points. "Smut" was a bit dazed in this game from his injury in the P. C. game, but his fighting qualities made it possible for the team to win. The lineup:

Rollins (21)      Furman (15)
Fletcher.....L. F.-R. G. Quisenberry
Dow.....R. F.-L. G.....Walters
Nelson
Surr.....C.....Richardson
Warner.....L. G.-R. F.....McManaway
Stone.....R. G.-L. P. Carpenter
Goals from floor: Fletcher 3, Starr 1, Dow 2, Carpenter 2, Richardson 4, Quisenberry.

Goals from fouls: Fletcher 3, Carpenter

Referee: Mackay and Schultiz, Y. M. C. A.

Time: 30 minute halves.

Presbyterian 24, Rollins 20

The third game of the trip, with Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C., resulted in a tough defeat for the Rollins team. P. C. had nearly defeated Newberry a few nights previous, and Rollins had expected P. C. to have a fast team. But when the game started it looked as though Rollins was to have an easy time, for the score soon stood 14 to 7 in her favor and the team working in great shape. But at this time "Smut" Fletcher was knocked into the bleachers at the side of the court and hit the back of his head, temporarily paralyzing him and necessitating his removal from the game. This accident seemed to affect the whole team and slowed up the offensive, and soon Rollins entered on the defensive. The guards were left alone, as the forwards failed to aid them. Dow, Stone and Warner played their hardest to stave off defeat, but P. C. gradually came to the lead and won out, 24 to 20. The score at the end of the first half stood 15 to 14. The lineup:
Rollins (20)      Presbyterian (24)
Fletcher.....L. F.-R. G. Eichelberger, Tallwood

NET STARS PLAY OFF THE FIRST MATCHES

TENNIS TOURNAMENT GOING WELL

The annual elimination tournaments to decide the tennis champions of Rollins are well under way. Several matches have been played off and a good brand of tennis has been displayed.

It is to be regretted that more entries have not been received for the mixed doubles. This is usually a feature of the tournament, but it had to be cancelled. Everyone is requested to play their matches by the time appointed so as to give the "finalists" time to practice for Founder's Week.

The matches played so far are as follows:
Warner-McGinley—Werner, 10-5; 6-0
Seely-Vincent—Vincent, 4-0; 4-1;
7-5. Vincent, 8-2; 6-3.
Wright-Rominger—Rominger, 10-8; 3-6.

The Rollins Sandspur

Established in 1894 with the following editorial:

"Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet many-sided, audaciously tenacious, yet as girthy and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combats and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

THE VICTORS COME HOME

Once more the old school flushes with pride for its heroes. This time we have a double set; the basket-ball warriors and the gang that cleaned up at Tampa. Is there a student on the campus who is not proud of them? No, not one.

If there is anyone who has ever thought for an instant that Rollins is a dead number on the athletic field or in the gymnasium his or her ideas along that line must surely be dissolved by this time. Oh yes, someone may say that Rollins only won a single game on the whole trip. That is not a fair basis on which to draw conclusions. It must be borne in mind that the team played five games in seven days, spent two of those days going and coming; played on entirely strange floors, some of which were exceedingly queer, and played each game in a different and widely separated place. The victory over Furman University is worth the whole trip. However, there is not a single store that Rollins is ashamed of. Not one school cleaned up with us.

Another thing which counts much among those who made the trip is the heightened regard for Rollins with which every one came back. The new perspective of the old school is most satisfying and there is not a man on the team but will say "Rollins for me every time."

The team is certainly to be congratulated on the fine record of clean sportsmanship which they left behind. Clean sportsmanship is an integral part of Rollins and the practice of it on the field never fails to elicit praise from the opposing team; a thing which is often of more value than a victory, for the effect is more lasting. This fine record left by the team is just another thing which makes us feel as proud of them at this time. Ill-gotten gains are a pleasure to no one.

Then the Tampa clean-up. Here we have to hand it to Prof. Blair for his continuing interest in aquatic. It is due much to his partiality for water sports that we were able to do what we did on Monday. Those girls and boys have the best old Rollins can give in the line of praise. All together now—three cheers for the whole bunch! Now fifteen more!

SIGMA PHI NOTES

Sigma Phi announces the following new members: Ruth Waldron, Rosa Brooks, Nora Wells, Marguerite Harris, Louise Hoskins, Mary Bourke, Margaret Sedgwick, Lottie Coleman, Frances Bell, Katherine Barnes and Bertha Gram.

The doctor has ordered Katherine Barnes to keep to her bed for a few weeks. We hope it will not prove serious and that she will return to school as soon as possible in the best of health.

Mabel Townsend and Kathryn Elms were visitors in these parts over the week-end. They seemed to have pressing business here.

Everyone was surprised to see Helen Waterhouse on Sunday night. She has come down to stay with her aunt in Matland, and will probably be a frequent visitor on the campus—anyway, we hope so.

Miss Dyer and Mrs. Hayward enjoyed a trip to Daytona last Tuesday.

PHI ALPHA FOAM

Correction

We wish to correct the error made in the omission of the name of Charles E. Ward from an item in this column last week. The name of this young man, as probably everyone on the campus has no doubt noticed, should have been present among those absent on the basketball trip to South Carolina. If the reader will add this name to the three names published last week he will come to the conclusion that four Phi Alpha men composed half of the squad of eight who discovered what a good school Rollins is.

Ask Harley

Let's eat an orange.

Trip

A. Stone, Red Palmer and Charlie Ward returned Sunday afternoon from a basketball invasion into South Carolina. The fourth brother, Ken Warner, stopped off at his native burg of Crescent City. We found out during the short time that the train stopped that the reason that he was called the baby elephant was not because of his size, but because of the large number of peanuts that he ate.

Faculty

Ern Stone became the head of the department of science during the absence of Prof. Blair in Tampa with the war canoes. Some of the stars of the classes almost made tens.

Use The Sandspur

Pledge Leete stated in his latest interview that he didn't take up the bootblacking business in order to make a fortune. Besides he is looking for the guy that said that advertising pays.

Notice

Watch for the book reviews that start in this space next week.

ALPHA ALPHA SCANDAL

We notice that Messrs. Griener, Dow, Stevens and Knowles seem to be trying to increase their chest expansion. Observe the bright new A. A. pins.

It is rumored that Fat, who is unable to walk around to his bed, lies down on the first one and is rolled over to where he belongs.

Just as Don Knowles was becoming an expert bedmaker he lost his job.

We claim that Max Sloan is the greatest fisherman at Rollins. We have proof that a fish jumped into his boat once; the poor fish.

Pledge Wilbur Waddell has been promoted to the faculty, his position being head instructor of German. Congratulations, Wilbur.

Pledge Bell is rapidly becoming a model young man. If you do not believe us, ask him.

What, ho! a new sodas squirt at "Smuts." Goofey and Bill now rise with the dawn???? and walk briskly to their place of business. Will wonders never cease?

K. E. KICKS

Wednesday night Dolly was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday spread in her room. All of the K. E.'s were there with their usual good appetites, and they made the most of theasts.

Dolly Darrow and Helen Dickinson entertained with a wolver roast Friday night. The party went across the lake in canoes to the point. After supper the evening was spent playing ukeles and singing around the camp fire. Those invited were Dale Hill, Leo Wilkerson, Elnora Mendell, Elsie Arms, Minnie Wendell, Margaret McKay, Helen Everhard, Marjorie Rickard, Eva Missoldine, Helen Hanna, Florence Bumby, Ruth McKee, Mary Knoke and Miss Edwards.

Miss Hildegard Slaughter, an attractive young girl of Jacksonville, and a former room-mate of Helen Hanna in 1911-12, will leave in April for a three months' visit in Europe. Miss Slaughter will be accompanied by her parents.

ROLLINS COLLEGE CONSERVATORY NOTES

Rollins to Give Credit for Music Toward Academy Diploma

The Faculty Committee of Rollins College, at a recent meeting, has voted to allow two units credit out of 16 if necessary for the Academy diploma. This is in line with the practice of progressive secondary schools everywhere. The College already gives credit towards the A. B. degree on the basis of 20 hours out of the 125 necessary for graduation, of which eight hours may be for recital music.

Joint Recital at Country Club
One of the most delightful concerts ever given at the Winter Park Country Club took place Wednesday evening, February 3, when the program was presented by Marjorie Ross, mezzo; Lotie Greenup, violinist; and Jean Knowlton, soprano. All the units were in fine form and the audience, which filled the Country Club, was enthusiastic in their appreciation.

 The Music Faculty of Rollins College entertained the Lutz Quartet in Miss Ross' studio after their concert at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. Phillips of Orlando. This was a very impromptu affair and the chief feature of the evening was a ceremony of coffee drinking by all the guests from the famous Beethoven coffee cup, of which Miss Ross is the proud possessor.

professors of M. Gevaert, then director of the Conservatoire of Brussels, but she would develop into a superb artist, and has appeared with the principal orchestras of Belgium. She has played often in Ostend under the direction of Hinskopf, and in Antwerp with the Nouvaux concerts under the direction of Mortelmans, Niskich, Otto Luss and Hans Richter. She also played frequently at court and is much appreciated by the King and Queen of Belgium.

The press, in general, voiced the opinion that Daisy Jean was the greatest woman vocalist of her day. Pablo Casals, who heard her before she won her medal, was so interested that he invited her to come to Paris.

In the bombardment of Antwerp the Jean family were driven from their home and fled to England. During the next year Daisy Jean played in many private concerts in London, and the following season, at the request of the Belgian Ambassador, she came to this continent with two other artists to work for her suffering country. These artists spent one season in Canada and three in the United States, giving concerts for the benefit of Belgian babies. When Daisy Jean returned to Antwerp in 1919, she was decorated by the queen, and the Belgian people presented her with a wonderful Italian 'cello as a token of their appreciation of the work she had done in America for her country.

Daisy Jean is appearing at Avellan Hall on January 22 under the management of Lindoux's Musical Bureau, recently organized for the purpose of introducing Belgian artists to the American public.

Marinus De Jong

Marinus de Jong was born in Oosthoek, a little village on the Belgian frontier, one of a numerous family of peasants, whose father's only ambition was to make him a good farmer in spite of his great genius for music. This manifested itself at an early age, when he began to compose without having the least knowledge either of theory or of harmony. (Continued on page 6)

To Raise Standings

An effort to raise the standard of scholarship has been started by the Sigma Beta Phi fraternity of the University of Toledo. Each member of the fraternity will be supplied with a card for each subject every two weeks. On the card the professor reports the man's standing, his ability, attention in class, and promptness. The fraternity is thereby enabled to keep accurate account of the progress of its members.

The faculty of Toledo University has received the plan with enthusiasm.

NO FORUM SUNDAY

Owing to the postponement of Founder's Week to the 25th, there will be no Sunday Forum tomorrow.

Dr. C. Telford Erickson, official representative of the Albanian government to the United States, will address the Forum on the Sunday of the 25th. Those who heard Dr. Erickson last year know of his charm as a speaker and will delight in hearing him again, this time on "War's Aftermath in the Balkans."

CALENDAR

Monday, Feb. 14—Royal Belgian Quartet, Knowles Hall, 8:00 P. M.

Tuesday, Feb. 15—Y. M. C. A., Prater room, 7:15 P. M.; Y. M. C. A. Cloverleaf Parlors, 7:15 P. M.

DR. CLARK ADDRESSES STUDENTS ON "PROPAGANDA"

The students at Rollins were favored in Chapel Tuesday morning by having Dr. Charles Eason Clark as the speaker. He spoke from an unbiased point of view on "Propaganda." In referring to the accounts of atrocities of the recent war, he stated that a large per cent of them were either overdrawn or entirely fictitious. He warned the audience against believing all that the newspapers report in regard to such things, as it is often merely systematically arranged propaganda. Dr. Clark is well informed on this subject and it was a pleasure to hear his talk.

Columbia, Mobile

It is customary at Columbia to have a Farmers' Week during the first part of each school year, at which representatives from all schools in the state are present. Short courses are given by the faculty on poultry husbandry, soils and farm crops, poultrying, bookkeeping, home economics, horticulture, dairying, agricultural engineering, animal husbandry, and animal diseases and their prevention.

The agriculture classes of Plant City High School are holding an exhibit at the Tampa Fair. The classes have begun selling fresh vegetables and they now have on sale several kinds of lettuce and Chissno cabbage.

ROLLINS GIRLS DEFEATED BY WINTER GARDEN

Last Tuesday night the Girls' Basketball sextette journeyed over to Winter Garden only to be beaten by the High School with a score of 24 to 11. At one time the score was 11 to 11 in Rollins' favor and our girls were going in good form when Miss Brooks broke her glasses, letting the forward start a Winter Garden rally.

Miss Natt was easily the star for Winter Garden while Jimmie James, Easter Russell and Rosa Brooks played well for Rollins. Rollins showed their lack of teamwork and spirit but they put up a game fight and are now working on some good plays under Coach Brewster.

MEMORIES FROM SOUTH CAROLINA

Jacksonville—Smut taking us to a GOOD restaurant.

Greenwood—Starr loses his Frat pin. We see some REAL mud. Host Greenwood in the alley. Wonderful gym.

Nashberry—Some real fellows here. "Scum heat and running water in every room." Rats, rotten. Mud, trees deep. We discover what a wonderful place Rollins is.

Clinton—Presbyterian College, somewhat crowded. Rats, the same old girls, Warner and Coach buy a suit. Dow and Palmer go to a party. (SOME representatives from Rollins.)

Greenville—Furman University, "Atlanta Go-ay-gin," Imperial Hotel, the best in the South. Stared two days here and wanted to stay more. Peach of a place. Some good bookers in this burg, too! Ward wants to go to Spartanburg. Smut takes us to the Y. W. C. A. to see Miss Bellows, a teacher at Rollins last year.

Columbia—Capital of the State. Pretty nice place, too! Rats, good; as was the music.

Jax—Missed Tampa Special by one minute. Starr decides to stay all day.

Crescent City—Warner stopped off to spend a few days with the Orange Pickers' Union.

Maitland—Alford Stone has one L&N and does stay on the train.

Columbia "Outlaws" 34, Rollins 19

The Columbia (S. C.) "Outlaws" defeated Rollins in what proved to be the closest game of the week at the Columbia Y. M. C. A. Saturday night by a score of 34 to 19. The Rollins boys surprised their opponents during the first half by leading most of the time. But near the end the "Outlaws" got through the Rollins defense and led 12 to 6 when the whistle blew for the first half. Clean passwork by the experienced "Outlaws" baffled Rollins in the second half and the Columbia team gradually drew away from the local team until near the close Rollins staged a rally and made several baskets. Nervous were the "Outlaws" outclassed except during the early part of the half, when Rollins showed a good brand of team work. Rollins was not an easy mark in any of the games and it is safe to say that the boys made an excellent showing and should receive a lot of credit for their gameness, fight, good sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct. They always played a hard clean game, and left a most favorable impression of Rollins wherever they went. The lineup: Rollins (19) "Outlaws" (34)

Dow, . . . . . R. F. L. G., . . . Park

Goals from fouls; Fletcher, 4; Park, 5.

President Marion H. Burton of Michigan University is heading a campaign to raise $13,000 for foreign relief. The students are to do the soliciting and the receipts are to go to the Chinese Families Fund, European Students' Fund and the "Camp" "Outlaws" Fund.

Princeton to Limit Number of Students

Princeton University will limit the number of its students according to an announcement by authorities of the university. President J. G. Hibben has appointed a committee of the faculty to devise a plan for restricting the enrollment.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HOLDS PRINC

The Sophomore Academy Class held their first picnic of the school year last Friday night at the home of Wilhelmina Freeman. About twenty-two attended, chaperoned by Miss Edwards and Mr. Roundtree. After dining all they could possibly hold, the class spent an enjoyable evening, and all regretted to leave at 10 o'clock. The Sophomore class wishes to express their appreciation to the Freemans in throwing open their home to the class for the evening and helping in every way to make the affair a success.

NEW HOME FOR BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB TO COST $10,000

Winter Park is very fortunate indeed in having not only a set of public spirited and wide awake women, but also the business men of the town are aware of their opportunities for the advancement of the town, as is shown in their new club building which is in the process of construction on Park avenue, near the Rollins campus.

This building, although not as spacious and luxurious as the new Women's Club here, will serve the purpose for which it is being built. The main lounge room is 40 feet by 30 feet, making ample commodious space for the third business man to go and tell about his part in the Great War, while the others all around in apparent awe at one of the fellow members, who never notices that it is the old standard box. Then there is another smaller room to be used as a library and reading room, also an office, a kitchen and a bath. The park is to be made very attractive by being studded with many Corinthian columns. The basement is to be a finished room fitted for athletic purposes and the aim is to ultimately turn it into a gymnasium.

The Business Men's Club, although new to Winter Park, is to be congratulated upon its steps taken toward the progress and prosperity, not only of their organization and the town, but also of Rollins College, which they are pleased to advance through the medium of the reverse side of their stationery. This endeavor evidences the perfect harmony and co-operation existing between the town and college.

We wish the Business Men's Club all the success they deserve.

Apology Due

Miss Elizabeth Carter Hall, otherwise known as "Johnny," wishes to make apology to the Hon. Charles Ward for the notice which appeared in The Sandspur of February 5th. This article was not written by her and she wishes it so stated in the columns of said paper. We'll admit that she is not the proper target for said jokes appearing in said paper, but when there is no other suitable target, why not let us make use of the said target for said jokes appearing in said paper? said John editor laugh said!

mony. Until he was 15 years of age he worked without a teacher, practicing in secret without the knowledge of his parents. This talent then came to the attention of a wealthy family and he was sent to the Antwerp Conservatory, where, in the establishment of all, he was admitted to the superior class in piano and was able to follow without difficulty the classes of counterpoint and fugue.

At the end of two years of study with Emile Bosquet (Prix Rubinstein) and with Ludewyk Mortelmans (Prix de Rome) he won his diploma with the highest honors, after which he withdrew to his native village and remained in retirement for four years, making a profound study of Gregorian Chant with the Benedictine Fathers.

In 1919 a competition was organized for the composition of a Prelude and Fugue. Marinus de Jong won the prize in competition with the best compositions of the four Royal Conservatories of Belgium, and the jury further honored him with the statement: "Let his work be compared favorably with the famous fugues of Bach."

When that date Marinus de Jong has made his name famous throughout Europe, playing under the direction of Hans Richter, Otto Lohse, Friedrich Wagner, Cologne, Weimar, etc.

He will appear at Auditor Hall on Monday night for the engagement of the Rollins Musical Union, specially organized for the purpose of introducing Belgian artists to the American public.

The Swimming Team

A few weeks ago a meeting of the swimming team candidates reported to this meeting the importance of the training was emphasized by Dr. Colton, the schedule discussed, and the outline for practice presented. The candidates then signified their intention of entering certain events. This resulted in about 24 boys reporting for the swimming events.—Huntington Record.

MISS FRANCIS ELLEN LORD

The life of Miss Frances Ellen Lord, which was recently published in the Wellesley Alumni Record, is of special interest to those who knew her at Rollins. Her early life was spent at Portland, Maine. At the age of seventeen she began teaching Latin at Gorham Seminary. At the opening of Vassar College she was called there, where she organized a department which has ever reflected credit on the institution. After seven years of service there she went to Wellesley, remaining there twenty years. She then went to Rollins, where she made herself greatly beloved by her untiring efforts.

Miss Lord had a personality too subtle to permit familiarity, but so dominating in its dignity and calmness that it commanded deep respect.

She was known not only as a Latin teacher but as an author, having written several Latin and Bible books. In both of these fields she had a broad influence and will long be remembered as one of the pioneers of education.

COMMUNITY FORUM

Rome, was recently on the Yale faculty, and during the war was with the Italian armies as writer and lecturer on international questions.

He spoke of the debt the world owes Italy for having kept her neutrality in the early days of the war, thus enabling France to send her troops on the Italian border against the enemy. He pointed out that Italy, by allying with Germany and Austria, could have brought the war to a close within one year, but the in-born hatred for the Austrians tended to place the national sympathy on the side of the Allies. By explaining the history of Plims, and the Italian interest in it, he showed the causes of one of the Peace Conference's greatest controversies. According to population Plims belongs to Jugoslavia, but commercially and industrially it is an Italian port. Some of the differences in the peace settlement were due, he said, to the ignorance in regard to Italian questions on the part of the Peace Conference executives. His viewpoint was distinctly Italian, but he gave things as they appeared to the Italian people. In telling of the Austrian drive into northeastern Italy, which was checked long before it was thought possible, considerable distance in front of their big defensive line, he said that to him it was a very favorable indication of the morale of the nation, and that in all national crises the glory of old Rome would survive and become triumphant.

Mrs. Rubina-Ravi Brooks added to the interest of the Forum by singing some Italian songs in her usual charming manner. This musical treat is one of the features of the Forum.

Six Weeks Pay for Professional Study.

The Louisiana State Department of Vocational Training believes that every teacher of vocational agriculture should be given an opportunity for self-improvement. It does not expect the teachers to use their vacation time for this purpose. Therefore, for the year 1919-1920, six weeks' leave with pay was granted to teachers who used this time attending courses approved by the State Superintendent of Agriculture.

University of Utah

A bill has been recently introduced into the House of Representatives of Utah restricting the curriculum of its schools and excluding all subjects pertaining to agriculture and some of its sciences. According to this bill, a degree is not to be given in either domestic science or art. The teaching of agriculture is to be advanced in the state agricultural college.
