
Pemberton Correspondence

Quaker Correspondence

1702-03-17

Abigail Pemberton, Israel Pemberton, March 17, 1702

Abigail Pemberton

PRINT Identifier: 16078

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

Citation

Abigail Pemberton, n.p., to Israel Pemberton, n.p., 1702-03-17, vol. 2, pg. 180, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 16078, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/279/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact lee.dotson@ucf.edu.

to 6 of 1 me 1792

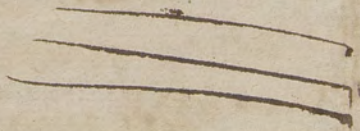

Dear Brother

This comes by cussen of Janney where by thou may know that we are all well excepting poor ~~and~~ Robert and Priscilla hath got a cold but I must be short but tell thee ~~that~~ I am sorry to hear that thou art not very well pray let me hear as often as thou canst for I hear the small pox are much in your family but I was glad of the account thou gave me that the ^{love} them so easily But by thy mastes account we here that little ebee is very ill which gives mee no small trouble we have not seen the articles sent but John Watson gave some account and if it be so as he tells us we cannot consent to it for cossen stays so I cannot give the particular account but mother has in A letter to thy master which thou maist see are our of objections but I shal want come with anything like terms and a honest man we shall be willing to go out as soon as thy master can settle the business for there is no occasion of stay upon my account for Jeremiah seems unwilling to go to monthly meeting and I resolve not to go any other way some have been pleased to say that it is because I am in love with James Logen because I lodged there for too or three nights when I was in town be pleased to let mee hear what they say of it there whether the say anything concerning him in town any that may make that the reason thou may tell them thou knows to the contrary but say nothing of thy reason for it till I give thee a further account they may let mee have a line from thee by the by the by all our loves are to thee this is from thy affectionate Sister

which I desire thee
 to keep secret

Abigail Fember

To Israel Pemberton
These

Abigail Pemberton
1 mo b. 1702
to Israel Pemberton