Dear Friend Bristol the 5 of the 2 mo 1702

Dear love to the thy dear wife and family and I shall I should be glad to know what mind you are with the nomaly and Am

Samuel Carynder I receiued thine dated this instant and am satisfied whith what the ha dune the marrieg is not like to be acomplished yet I thinke if the thinke fit to settle his next month or sooner iff it can be with conueni Robert hath been uery ill now is sum thing better Am not is uery weeke the tennant is desiorus of cuming soon and I think it will be best I am sen sensible of thy exercise and trouble mie exercise hath been small sens the left us I am uery well in helth blessed be the Lord for it I have much to saye to the pray let mese the as soone as the canst conueniantly heare is many deats should be paid I am under a concarne about them a few lines by this bairer would be uery exesptable time is short In hast
Alice Pemberton

I haue not seene the agrement but if it be as John tels me how can mony be raised for deats and legacies with out the stock and saruants be desposde of and concerning a barne will half the produse of this place bilde the barne and find robin cloathes I cannot se that it will I am not willing there should be anye intris upon my account nor as little as can be upon any others for it is aeting thing these few lines are the sacond consideration I thought to had the sheeps but we shal not difer a few lines from the
