Deare

SP

Bristo the 7 the 2^d moth 1702

Samuel I cannot but sorrow with the for thy deare late the Lord is pleased to take yong & well as agee my deare husband hath of the spooke of him and said he gueschard ^{that} he would live long he was so wise he much admird his wisdom the being so yong & I have beene much concerned for thy funeralle and of the inquired after them I shall bever desire to heare how it pleas the Lord to deal with deare Israel ayn not is sumthing beter the rest is not thy kinse hath satisfied me I am contented with his coming and his maner but for all his funeralle and gooe I did not know what to thinke of that by reason of our owne bises and sum sike my righting to the after that manner was not for my one Intrust I can truly saye I cannot expect the yet to my deare love with Abigailes to the and wife of Israel
