Deare friend

Frankford the 18 Jun 70

James I receiv'd thine and read the contents that of Thoope thou wilt not take it amiss that I sent the the Lad to the he had a great mind to come to the and advise with the brother hath worke ~~enough~~ enough for him but he is not willing ~~to~~ to go to ~~be~~ there any longer he ~~is~~ considers that his things are one and he must serve the longer when he is bound he is willing to serve a yeare and a half longer for a trade he may beat brother Roberts or at brother Coops but he is not willing to staye long he is much dissatisfied I desire the not to ~~neglect~~ neglect adviseing with friends for he wants a master he knows that brother hath nothing to do with him I could saye more but I leave my Deare love to the an thine Alce Denton

Thomas hath a mind to goe to see his brother at burling house I think I to give him leave
