The 4th mo 20

To father

It falls out so I can not come this week but I would have thee make an and ask yer Colbourn to over me for 7th Ash Colour — 0: 0 Limp oyle 3 qts att — 2: 9

This is the sum I will 2: 5 take to law. When I told him of Margery says thou hast the whole to take from him in my name for 6: whole yeares rent to be expired all may day next he said to me that there was another half yeares rent due but to my mistake at

I remember it is not untill the 1st day of the next month but that thou will find by the former Deeds

I wanted money at Chester & I borrowed of Isaac Jesse Junior 12 £ of Ralph Legway 12 £ & I gave to either of them A note under my hand for payment of it upon demand, & Jon Clarke's gran mother is like to by Aman came yester day for him & he is gone & I should have gone to manister myself to have paid it but he is gone

Twenty one, therefore desire thee to let Margery go with it or go thy self on 4th day at furthest & take it on G: Bath of the notes from either of them if thou goes thy self I shall allow for him of A row I have sent thee in monys 17 to & I suppose thou may have by thee to make it up 24 £ is all I have att present & I should have sent more but thou should not have so much by thee as to make it up if I can see it good this is so he not

Yours affectionate son

John

make it up in 2: 12 as a part of the go with it or go thy self all the money & the other will be paid if thou must have some over plus it may return any
