

1680-11-12

Roger Longworth, Phineas Pemberton, November 12, 1680

Roger Longworth

PRINT Identifier: 16090

 Part of the Archival Science Commons, and the History Commons

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>

University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Roger Longworth, Dublin, Ireland, to Phineas Pemberton, Bolton, Lancashire, 1680-11-12, vol. 1, pg. 154a, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 16090, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/291/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Roger Longworth
Dublin

9 mo 2. 1680.

to
Phineas Pemberton

Built one.

towards in all these parts and generally were blessed for the increase of I begin to be disheartened to see the people here and all the other I never expect will any considerable number of us to have any friends there matters as far as for me and for my dear and all the friends there My friend and Bro.

High Ground and Bre:

Page Longworth

2. Lincolns 2. Emberton / Dublin. 7. 2. d. 7. 9. mo. 8d.

my dear and well beloved friend, and that which I love and abide for ever, remain Let these few lines be my salutation unto and thy dear wife, the god of my life be with and prosper you for ever, and multiply thy blessings upon you is the desire of my soul, and the breathing of my life; and now I am content by these few lines, thou mayst understand, I perceived thy letter, dated the 14 of y. 8. my coming into the City, the last seventh day morning, which I was glad of; and I had a joy before I write of your desires, and heard a shain, with you, but it was returned that the Lord, would forgive you over the small, and all his iniquities.
I am sure, though you be, as amongst woolfs, and lions, yet the flesh will not you, as you are faithful the Lord shall give it, who will perform it, and more dear hearts, my soul, and life, is with you, in your testimony, my dear love to James son, and his dear wife, may I not say sufferings as like unto his, but the god of heaven and the whole earth is with him my dear love to all friends as if I did name them, I have been very well since I parted with ^{these} and my horse has arrived and very well, I am in good company England as far as the health you is over, which begins this day, was

Dear

Brother after my kind and lovinge Respects presented unto thee these few lines are to let thee unde-stand that I am at in good health at this present we allinge blessed be god for the same These are to lett thee vnderstand that I never reciev any lett from thee before since thou went ought of England but the last becomme date the 15 of the 6 month and also doe vnderstand by thine that my brother is dead in Barbados pray thee lett mee know by thy next lettow how hee dyed by sickness or otherwise I am heartely sorry to heare that thou art Imprisoned more glad to heare thou wert Released pray thee lett mee heare from thee as soon as thou art Released If thou come downe into the country pray thee lett mee know if it be any ware neere Colton or Lantashire and I will give thee the meeteinge as for thy sisters the are in good health and desire to be remembered to thee and likewise Thomas Hordman of Longworth and also the Rest of all our friends in generall which is all at present soe I rest and Remaine yo^r o^r lovinge Brother

Ho. Longworth

(Hm) Longworth (1)

Longworth
James
of Bonthon in Longworth

30/