And well beloved friends J. H. pp. pp. A. H. pp. pp. whose under hand: good Council - And Drive, both of them outride My heart since I have you: Myself without Number considering how the Lord God hath worked for me - Inwardly & outwardly - but the instrument of Many friends of truth who have been deeply concerned laboured for the redemption of My soul: & to the instrument of Many that have stood in opposing of me: for I have heard that they speak on word Against Mrs. Ginn's hand house: But those that were most cruel have said they were sorry & would make no more: Against me: I have found friends - great or with many words: Believing that you are lovers of My love, which I do at this time show from My very heart: O soul, & in that love I do intreat you to breathe unto the Lord for me: that he will for all things be kept close in your heart renewing My love may be remembered unto all friends in both your families: I find that the Lord is reward you all for your love - & kindness to me: & in that while the Lord God hath pleased in My heart just you

Dear friends if thou have freed on to write: it would show My Dear wife Remembering her love unto you all kindly and joyfully with in the right party
