

1681-05-17

Roger Longworth, James Harrison, May 17, 1681

Roger Longworth

PRINT Identifier: 16100

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton> University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Roger Longworth, London, England, to James Harrison, n.p., 1681-05-17, vol. 1, pg. 160, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 16100, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/300/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

10

London y^e 4th of y^e 9th mo: 81

J. H.

Dear friend and Bro: in the everlasting lives for ever & I do hereby salute thee thy dear wife and family son and daughter by these few lines may understand I came over now into this City - I am very well blessed be the name of the Lord, I write to thee from Bristol desiring thee, to send me some health -
I hope it is come to thy hand, I hope to see thee, to-morrow, yesterday morning my stone journey, and I did go: noon
of Bristol, was coming out of Malvern row, a bout six of the Clock, and was not sent a bow: 4. miles but was wote: 3: in way men, and 20: Hay:
being about: 2: or 3 Road before go:
noon, and was, in an open place
the post so quiet, and one of them did meet go: and 2: met me, and about a horse length or: 2. short, the best man stand, and I had a sight of them I was prepared, and clapt to my horse, and brake thro, and quitted my self, and go: was taken and
all he had, but we are all well Love, blessed be the name of the Lord for with my love to you all

Dear friend and Bro: in the everlasting lives for ever & I do hereby salute thee thy
dear wife and family son and daughter by these few lines may understand I came over now into this City -
I am very well blessed be the name
of the Lord, I write to thee from Bristol
desiring thee, to send me some health -
I hope it is come to thy hand, I hope
to see thee, to-morrow, yesterday morning
my stone journey, and I did go: noon
of Bristol, was coming out of Malvern
row, a bout six of the Clock, and was
not sent a bow: 4. miles but was
wote: 3: in way men, and 20: Hay:
being about: 2: or 3 Road before go:
noon, and was, in an open place
the post so quiet, and one of them
did meet go: and 2: met me, and about
a horse length or: 2. short, the best man
stand, and I had a sight of them I
was prepared, and clapt to my
horse, and brake thro, and quitted
my self, and go: was taken and
all he had, but we are all well
Love, blessed be the name of the
Lord for with my love to you all

Roger Longworth
London

3mo 7. 1681.

to

James Harrison