*Deceased.

"Resolved, That, in the opinion of this association, it is a part of the highest duty and interest of every civilized State to make provisions when necessary for the maintenance of law schools, and the thorough professional education of all who are admitted to practice law."—Report of Committee on Legal Education to American Bar Association, 1891.

"The time has gone by when an eminent lawyer, in full practice, can take a class of students into his office and become their teacher. Once that was practical but now it is not. The consequence is that law schools are now a necessity."—The late Chief Justice Waite.

"There is little, if any, dispute now as to the relative merit of education by means of law schools and that to be got by mere practical training or apprenticeship as an attorney's clerk. Without disparagement of mere practical advantages, the verdict of the best informed is in favor of the schools."—Report of the Committee on Legal Education to American Bar Association, 1879.

Professor Bryce, in the American Commonwealth says that the superior attainments of the members of the legal profession in the United States is due "to the extraordinary excellence of many of the law schools."

LOCATION.

The University is located in the City of DeLand, the county seat of Volusia county, Florida. DeLand is situated about twenty miles from the east coast of the peninsula, and about one hundred miles south of Jacksonville, and may be reached directly by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, by the East Coast system via Orange City, or by the boats on the St. Johns river, which land at Beresford, four miles away.

The city is on high pine land, not near any water and is remarkable for its general healthfulness. The climate is almost a specific for throat and lung troubles, catarrh, rheumatism, etc. Students who are unable, from delicate health, to attend school during the winter in the North, find it possible to pursue their studies here regularly, and yet constantly improve their health.

DeLand offers many attractions to families desiring to establish winter homes in Florida, or to become permanent residents. The city has water works, electric lights, paved streets, brick business blocks, an ice factory, four weekly papers, seven white churches, and a well organized public school. Since 1889 there has been no licensed saloon in Volusia county, and prosecutions for illegal selling are prompt and vigorous.

COLLEGE OF LAW.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

The College of Law was opened in October, 1900, and its growth from the beginning has been marked. It is the purpose of the College to prepare students to practice law. In carrying out this purpose, it is sought not merely to familiarize the student with certain rules of law, but also to develop a legal mind and to train him in the art of legal reasoning. The right to modify the work and requirements of the University, as set forth in this catalogue, as occasion demands it at any time, is reserved.

THE DEPARTMENT BUILDING.

During the first two years the College occupied rooms in Elizabeth Hall. These quarters were necessarily cramped and entirely inadequate to the needs of the rapidly growing work. In October, 1902, the new Science Hall, a beautiful brick building two hundred feet long, eighty feet deep and three stories high, was opened. The style of the building is of the Spanish Renaissance, with low, nearly flat roof, the brick walls being finished in grey stucco. The entire south half of its third floor is given up to the College of Law. This provides two large lecture rooms, a room for the Library, a Practice Court room, the Dean's office and a hall for the Kent Club, the law debating society, thus furnishing ample room for the College of Law and giving it a home second to none in the South.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

Applicants for admission to the Junior class must be at least nineteen years of age and to the Senior class twenty. Graduates or matriculates of colleges, and students who have completed an academic course satisfactory to the faculty, will be admitted to the College of Law without examination as to preliminary requirements and may become candidates for a degree. Other applicants, if candidates for a degree, must give satisfactory evidence of educational qualifications sufficient to enable them to pursue successfully the study of law.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING.

Attorneys at law who have been admitted to practice in the courts of this state since the new law regulating admission to the bar went into effect will be admitted to the Senior class without examination. Other applicants for advanced standing must pass an examination in all subjects in which advanced credit is sought.

ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Persons who are unable to comply with the above requirements are allowed to become special students, with the privilege of pursuing a selected course of study, but without the privilege of being enrolled as candidates for a degree. They are permitted, under the guidance of the Dean, to select such subjects from the different courses as they are able to pursue with profit to themselves.

A like privilege is extended to all other persons desiring to take only certain courses offered in the College of Law. All persons admitted to the College of Law are admitted subject to all the general rules and regulations of the University, and such special rules as the President of the University is empowered to enact and enforce.

EXAMINATIONS FOR ADMISSION.

In the fall of 1908 examinations for admission will be held in the Law Building, September 28th and 29th, beginning at nine o'clock in the morning and at two o'clock in the afternoon of each day. The examinations on the first day will have reference to general education. The examinations on the second day will have reference to legal education, and will be confined to candidates for advanced standing. Applicants for advanced standing, unless exempt from the preliminary requirements, should be present at both of these examinations. Candidates should aim to present themselves on these days, as they are expected to be in attendance on the first day of the term, at which time the regular course of instruction will begin. No examinations for advanced standing will be given after the first month of the fall term.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

There are two approved methods of instruction used by law schools, namely: the text-book system and the text-book and case system combined. The work will not be confined to either system. Realizing that each of these methods has in it elements of good, the faculty will endeavor to combine in the course the good features of both.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study is a graded one and covers a period of two years of thirty-three weeks each. The College year is divided into three terms, the fall and winter terms of twelve weeks each and the spring term of nine weeks. As the curriculum in the Law

EXAMINATIONS.

It is the desire of the Faculty to characterize the work of the College of Law by its completeness and thoroughness. As one means to this end, two days are set apart at the close of each term for the examination of all students upon the work of that term. The examinations are in writing and are rigid and searching, but are not final. During the last week of the Senior year all members of the Senior class must pass an examination in all subjects given in the course and attain a minimum grade of 75 per cent. in each subject in order to be recommended for a degree.

THE PRACTICE COURT.

A well organized Practice Court is a regular feature of the course in the Senior year, and the work in it is emphasized. Beginning with the Winter Term, weekly sessions of the Court are held, over which the Judge of the Practice Court presides. The object of the course in the Practice Court is to give the students practical instruction in pleading and practice at law and in equity and actual experience in the preparation and trial of cases, thus removing the main objection raised to law school training, that it is theoretical and not practical. The work in the Practice Court is divided into three classes of cases.

FIRST. Cases arising upon statements of fact prepared and assigned to the students, upon which they are to issue, serve and return process, prepare pleadings and bring the cause to an issue on a question of law. The case is first heard on the pleadings and the questions arising thereon are argued and disposed of. At the second hearing, after the pleadings have been approved, the case is argued and decided on the questions of law involved, the facts being admitted.

SECOND. In the second class, actual controversies are arranged and assigned for trial as issues of fact. The students are here required to issue the proper process and prepare and file the pleadings necessary to produce an issue of fact. They then subpoena the witnesses, impanel the jury, examine and cross-examine the witnesses and argue the case to the court and jury.

THIRD. In this class the necessary papers are prepared to bring the case before the Supreme Court for review, and the legal questions arising in the lower court are argued and decided.

LAW LIBRARY.

Through the generosity of the bar of Florida the College of Law was enabled to begin its career with a good working library, including the reports of the Florida Supreme Court, the United States Supreme Court, the American Decisions, the American Reports and American State Reports, the Digests and Statutes of the State and the United States, and many of the leading text-books and books of reference. Since the year 1900, the reprint of the English Reports and the State Reporter System complete have been added. The State Reporter

System, issued by the West Publishing Company, gives us every case decided in the court of last resort of every State in the Union since about 1870. This, with the selected cases before mentioned, affords most excellent facilities for the study of the case law of the American States. The Class of 1903 left to the College of Law, as a memorial, the Chancery Reports of the State of New York; the Class of 1905, the New York Common Law Reports; the Class of 1906, the Lawyers' Reports Annotated; and the Class of 1907, the Michigan Reports to the Northwestern Reporter. Important additions will be made to the Library during the coming year.

The students of the College of Law have access to the General Library of the University.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

The Kent Club is a literary Society, the membership and work of which are under the control of the students of the College of Law. It meets in the evening once a week in its hall in the Law Building. This hall has been set apart for the exclusive use of the law students and has been by them well furnished with chairs, tables, curtains, pictures, etc.

UNIVERSITY PRIVILEGES.

The advantages of the other departments of the University are open to such students in the College of Law as desire and are able to accept them. Courses in Constitutional and Political History, International Law, Political Economy, Logic, Rhetoric and English Composition are particularly recommended to law students. No extra charge will be made for such courses, but students in the College of Law will be permitted to take them only with the consent of the Law Faculty and of the professors whose courses they wish to take.

THESES.

Each member of the Senior class, who is a candidate for a degree, is required to prepare and deposit with the Dean of the College of Law before the first Monday in January, a dissertation upon some legal topic selected by himself and approved by some member of the faculty. The dissertation must contain not less than four thousand words and must be satisfactory in matter and form, and the student presenting it must be prepared to be examined upon the subject. It must be typewritten on paper of uniform size and quality.

DEGREE.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws will be conferred on the completion of the course of study previously outlined. Students admitted to advanced standing may, if qualified, receive the degree after one year's residence, but in no case will the degree be granted unless the candidate is in actual residence during all of the Senior year.

EXPENSES.

For students who room in the dormitory, the charges for two students occupying one room will be $254.10 for each student per year. This includes tuition, board, furnished room, heat, lights and washing.

Students whose financial condition requires them to economize in their expenses may secure accommodations in Conrad Hall at lower rates. The number of such rooms is limited and application should be made as early as possible, when terms and conditions will be given.

To those living in the city or in Conrad Hall, the charges for tuition will be $72.60 per year.

The text-books used in the department may be found in the law library, but it will be necessary for students to provide themselves with books for their daily use. The cost to students for books is about $45 a year for each year of the course. As these books are very useful in beginning practice, the purchaser loses nothing. By purchasing second-hand books, and selling or exchanging, the item of cost of books can be materially reduced.

A fee of $5 is charged for a diploma conferring the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

For further information, address the Dean of the College of Law, or the President of the University.
