Dear by Colours

Oct 20 ⁴/_{mo} 1601 wife in the aboundings of a biding love whereby our hearts would together, & by which we are somewhat truly ~~into~~ into one body not to be broken do I deeply salute thee my dearest, my love thou art known, & of this I am sensible, & in love we can enjoy one another the far distant therefore I need not to enlarge by hereby saying I know thou know more than I can demystify, therefore there are to acquaint thee that this day between 3 & 4 of clock we came into London & am now well but had done nothing as yet I have had a good journey my mare had carried me very well only first day night left at Dunshurst I had a fit of vomiting but it was not very long, I am now at my fathers lodging he is with me but I dare love it ~~to~~ to mother & the the rest of both our families he is ~~very~~ very look but I do not know as yet whether I shall have his company home or not he seems to be nigh ready for going my land but at home very pleasing fellow traveler & very condescending & well satisfied with my company so far; we came well on together & when I was not well was much concerned for me he was not here but I know his report is to thee my dear love to mother to ~~the~~ grandmother to our little ones I have thought of abigail I shall be glad to hear they are both well my love to J.C. An distant H.H. J. H. G. next as if named them, thou needs not to write to father for I have not thy but shall continue in last thy endeared husband The molinist bring your desires to be remembered to thee
