I have waited for y^e young man ^{now} ~~husband~~ since he came home & yet he has sent it with his mother, if he is not willing to Imbrace thy warmer for his voyage for to home Soe, for I thought it was necessary to give thee thy Lynd if thou may not be appointed I shall be glad to hear of thy & thy dear wife and fare with y^e dear children in that country together you are transporting yourself, it was nowy to me when I heard of thy intimations I kindly desire thee & all honest friends of good passage, for I have not without to object of y^e going, being satisfied, the Lord has furnished you with his wisdom & counsel to order all things just with endearing love to see the dear wife thy dear father & friends & friends & friends Hon: Edward

There be now that I would have had y^e black man again

Comes Di Roger Haydock & for Haydock has sent my dear love to you & regret from y^e if they had freedom will be all of y^e & are still to very glad of to see or be & in y^e future to give me love & Lynd, whether they can come or not —
