I have waited for yr young man ^{now} since he came home & yet he has sent it with his mother, if he is not willing to Imbrace the warmer for his voyage for to hand sea, for I thought it was necessary to give the they Lynd if thou may not be appointed I should be glad to hear of thy & thy dear wife well fare with yr dear children in that Country together you are transporting yourself, It was now to me when I heard of thy partings I kindly desire the & all honest friends of good passage, for I have not without to object of yr going, being satisfied, the Lord has furnished you with his wisdom & counsell to over all things Just with Endeared Love to be a the dear wife thy dear father & friends with truly I friend Hon: Edward

There be now that I would have had yr black man again

Comps Di Roger Haydock & Jm Haydock had send my dear Love to you & legal to you if they had freedom will as all of them and still be very glad of to see or by & in the future to give me love Lynd, whether they can come or not —
