Lo: fa: The 17th 2nd modj,

These in Answer to Thyns I write to day by James Allons but I have further to Inform thee that Ann is mightily slept wth fleame today & takes nothing to make on her filz of bal & Tob are better formerly; therefore she takes less for before she took nothing but in her filz therefore her filz being less she takes less when she takes any thing it drinks none of food will she suffer to come into her mouth ~~but~~ willingly & if any be put in she put it forth; the doctor says if she have but strength to get under her fleame there may be hopes on her, but she is mightily cloged wth it; I wst wth her just now to see how she wst & asked if I must write to her & she say yes; she sleeps little today & yester day she slept most of all day; I think to be at home to morrow for any thing I know thou says nothing how thou dost but I hope thou wilt be better, thou must not send any more if thou canst well avoid it for the last day of this month I have 15th 17th to pay & be wst I think & I have about 20th to pay yet in what moneys thou wst canst be wst I think & I have not the balance low to thee 2nd.
