The 20th <sup>12</sup>mo 51

Dear father

I have ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~thyne~~ <sup>thyne</sup> & have & shall be very considerate in the matter, & hope things may be well however if they be not so well, as now I am not without doubt but the Lord will sustain in the exercise whereby they may be the better borne for I have much peace in my self in the matter, & that is great satisfaction at present; if things fall so that I must go I do not question but they will be well, if they fall otherwise I hope they will be well; I have not borne nor am not ready to rush into the matter but do believe if the Lord so order it so as that I must go, things will gradually fall in their course & I hope thou wilt be preserved in the exercise Ann we hope doth mend but she is weakly latter, nothing else slept freely well last night wth wth dear love to the whole at present but am thy loving son

I have sent 1st of powder of Enularampana thou may mix it wth small sugar Candy or sugar & lick it

Thine heart I am Bolton
