Library Exhibit: Recollections of a Cartoonist

Special Collections & University Archives latest exhibit, "Recollections of a Cartoonist: The Glenn "Marty" Stein Collection of Cartoon Art, 1955-2013," features a selection of drawings, sketches, political cartoons, and comic strips from the "Glenn "Marty" Stein Collection of Cartoon Art, 1955-2013." Based on Stein's unpublished manuscript, "Recollections of a Cartoonist: Creating in Different World," the exhibit includes examples of Stein's work from the 1970s through 2008.

Stein, a Florida native, drew editorial cartoons from 1999 to 2008 for three Orlando area publications, the Orlando Business Journal, The Apopka Chief, and the Spanish-language paper La Prensa. Stein's editorial cartoons tackled issues the nation and the world were debating at the turn of the millennium, including immigration, civil rights, and political corruption – many of which are still relevant today. In addition to political cartoons, Stein also created a number of gag cartoons and comic strips, several of which are included in the exhibit. In 2009, Stein gave up cartooning to focus on writing and lecturing about polar history.

The exhibit will be on display through July 2017, in the John C. Hitt Library, 5th Floor Exhibit area adjacent to Special Collections & University Archives
