well & dearly beloved in the Lord Jesus Christ, who hath begotten us, in his Son, into himself, and one unto another, and made us as an apple, written in one anothers hearts for that we cannot for go, but remember the goodness of the Lord, but many times, being broken in the spirit of his Son, and occasioned, to make mention of the name of the Lord our god one unto another, who hath be gotten us, by his own overflowing love, of your, to him over all to the honor, and the glory for ever, and now I have heart by this thou may understand that I had ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{the} going into an account of your affairs, I find it at Liffnagarine, in the north of Ireland, and I write to thee again, desiring a few lines, how it was with you, I have not ~~the~~ any, it may be, the time was too short, I have written to Dublin, to send, to me, at Cork, and if thou have not written, before this com to thy hand, I desire this, to let me hear from thee, I shall be, at Dublin, the Lord will, at the half yearly meeting w^{ill} will be upon the 3. day of the 3. mo. at which time, I do expect to hear, from you, but my dear friend, and honorable, in the Lord, James Harrison, whom I dearly love, I have had, an advice upon me since I came into this County, and much desired to a word from you, I write my love, in the best of my ability for I have a share with you, I am now better satisfied blessed to the name of the Lord, ^{son} my, is to thy dear wife, father mother, and all friends, as thou remembers, if Roger Haydock be in the County, my love to him, and all go to go: Haydock, tell him I have now what I have, as concerning, that he writes to me about, and if he have not answer, I shall get him one when I am at Dublin, give me an account, what is be-com, of my move, whether he be found, for in last I lost thy friend and Bro:
