my deare & Right wellbelov'd friend in y<sup>e</sup> aboundance of Life y<sup>e</sup> inlarges my heart mightily towards y<sup>e</sup> begetter of it & all y<sup>e</sup> he hath be gotten into it, where god pleases us all, & more, I deare Rodger for farming y<sup>e</sup> office mentioned for y<sup>e</sup> p<sup>r</sup>o-think it a very profitable office for him, & he for it, he also likes it well, he deare loves it, as also my wife, whose I deare love also, we are all pretty well blessed to god for it, Littell An-only is weak still, we have had one with y<sup>e</sup> with y<sup>e</sup> hath skill of weak bodys, & he saith y<sup>e</sup> she may recover for anything he sees, & his opinion is y<sup>e</sup> she is troubled with y<sup>e</sup> evil, & hath ad-dres to y<sup>e</sup> gods to his eye, & from other plain in y<sup>e</sup> of his work, & she is much troubled with fleome, I am not without hope of her but she is very care on her boddy, I deare Elmore p<sup>r</sup>ovnaal is her from Liverpools whose love is to her, y<sup>e</sup> ship y<sup>e</sup> John Simons goes in, is gon out of y<sup>e</sup> River this day week Tho: Brandy is thought will god out this day, y<sup>e</sup> ship y<sup>e</sup> Witt: yeardley goes in is not like to god yett, for they want som passage or freight & y<sup>e</sup> women seems to make no hast, if thou see Tho: Hurting-remember my love to him, & tell him y<sup>e</sup> I am sorry his ship was not com when I was at London for then I could a had passage & know for him sooth to his satisfaction mine, & many other friends & if thou see W: p<sup>r</sup>ovna before thou goe out of London, remember me kindly to him to philipp ford, Rodg<sup>r</sup> E. M. & other friends as thou art used, & especially to Juliana my good & very well -od friend whom I kindly respect, for shall his wife & Lndress wright, Elmore p<sup>r</sup>ovnaal Remem ber her love to George, he used to call her little Elmore, we are & shall be glad to hear from her
