my deare & Right wellbelov'd friend in y^e aboundance of Life y^e inlarges my heart mightily towards y^e begetter of it & all y^e he hath be gotten into it, where god pleases us all, & mon, I deare Rodger for farming y^e office mentioned for y^e p^r p^r think it a very profitable office for him, & he for it, he also likes it well ~~also~~ he deare loves it to thee, as also my wife phoebe I deare love also, we are all praisely well blessed to god for it, Littell An only is weak still, we have had one Wth: J^r with y^e hath skill of wale bodys, & he saith y^e she may recover for anything he sees, & his opinion is y^e she is troubled with y^e v^l: & hath adu^l -d^r to y^e gods to his eye, & from other plain in y^e fid of his neck, & she is much troubled with fleome, I am not without hope of her but she is very care on her boddy, I deare Elmor p^rownall is from Liverp^ols whose love is to thee, y^e ship y^e John Sim^ork goes in, is gon out of y^e River this day week Tho: Brassy is thought will god out this day, y^e ship y^e Wth: y^eardley goes in is not like to god yett, for they want som passinge or fraught & y^e p^rownall seems to make noe hast, if thou see Tho: Hurting remember my love to him, & tell him y^e I am sorry his ship was not com when I was at London for then I could a had passinge & know for him sooth to his satisfaction mine, & many other friends & if thou see Wth: p^rown before thou goe out of London, remember me kindly to him to philipp ford, Rodg^r E. M. & other friends as thou art friend, & especially to Juliana my good & very well -d^r friend whom I kindly respect, for shall his wife & Andrew wright, Elmor p^rownall remember her love to George, he used to call her little Elmor, we are & shall be glad to hear from thee my love is to Steven (ripp when thou see him, thing relating to truth is well heard away, I was with Capt Lacey y^e last week & got a note from him for A^r he has ought me long, he asked for thee, god handing little else but abiding love in y^e form of life incedasing I bid thee farewell, remaining thy ever loving friend & Brother in y^e fellowship of y^e gospall of x^t.
