ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

PICKARD-POUND-PICKARD

Gene Tunney is with us, a self-made man if there ever was one.

Good luck to those leaving us this term. Some of us are sorry to see some of you go.

Remember that old axiom—Welcome the coming and aid the departing. Some are welcomed more heartily in coming, others aided more materially in going.

We weep tears big as onions. Our Lefty is going home. Good-bye, Lefty. We now have six athletes at Rollins.

Rollins College sponsoring prize fights, a sport of the rougher element. My word! Where is this college going to.

Tunney objects to "prize fighting." He is the world's "boxing" champion. We have no compulsory chapel, class attendance, no examinations at Rollins. Those scientific punches hurt, though, don't they, Gene?

Dissatisfied men become rebels if they have enough courage to back their beliefs. It is man's duty to wrest from his environment the fullest measure of satisfaction.

Zip Zehler and others assure Coach Howard of Orlando High, that half of his swimming team is showing wonderful form.

Spring is here bringing its usual crop of circus, ball-players and damn fools.

Never give a sucker an even break. Johnny J. Jones is in town, ask him.

Did you see "Outward Bound?" "We are all dead, all of us," says Joe. Thanks, Jo, for the inside dope. We have been puzzled for some time.

"You-all" goin' north, "law" to the folks, and tell 'em about the "Idle Hour Institution."

Tar Varsity Crew To Race Strong All-Star

Coach Chase announces that the Rollins crew is to race a crew of Winter Park and Orlando business men on Lake Maillard next Wednesday afternoon.

The affair will be known as the "Town and Gown" race. An octette of sturdy but fearfully short-winded real estate dealers, prison wardens, and hotel clerks has been working out daily under Coach Chase after the Rollins crew.

A cup is to be donated, it is understood, which will be inscribed with the names of the winning crew. (Continued on page 4)

SIGMA PHI'S ANNUAL PLAY GIVEN MONDAY

"The Twig of Thorn," an Irish play by Marie Warren will be presented by Sigma Phi sorority in the Recreation Hall, Monday night under the direction of Miss Dorothea Thomas.

This play will appeal to the public, for no one can touch the old traditions of Ireland without falling under the spell of their magic. Added attractions to the fascination of the play are a musical and esthetic background. The music by a strutting fiddler, Miss Gretchen Cox, folk songs led by Edna Wallace Johnston, and dances directed by Miss Lucille Jackson.

The scenes are laid in the cottage of Nessa Teig, near Kyleberg, in the year of the Great Famine. Among the cast are starred Cathleen Sherman as Oonah, the heroine, Colfax Sanderson, her young peasant lover, Gladys Wilkinson, the deaf grandmother Nessa, D. B. McKay as Father Brian, Isabel Green as Alice the poet, Barbara Sheffield, Maurya, Nessa's neighbor, Bee Jones, the fairy child, and neighbors, Mary Hall, Harriet Gleason, Marjorie McMichael, Helen Massey Jane Folsom and Evelyn Dodge. "Come see."

French Club Presents Two One-Act Plays

The regular meeting of the Cerele Francaise was held Thursday evening, March 15, at the Parish House.

Though the attendance was very good a plea was made by the President for better attendance at the meetings by all the members.

After the business meeting two new members were admitted to the club: Mary Shepherd and Lucy Baker.

A delightful program ensued. Robert Pepper recited, "Il Pleut Dans Ma Cour."

Ivonne Galloway and John Oakland starred in a short comedy, "Les Pauvres Gens," which received a hearty applause.

Dean Goes Wednesday To Inspect U. of Miami

Dean Caruthers has been asked by the Supt. of Public Instruction at Tallahassee, to inspect the University of Miami (Coral Gables) with a view to recommending that they be recognized by the State Department of Education for the offering of courses leading to the certification of teachers. He will leave Winter Park, March 28, stopping at several high schools along the route, and will return on the 31st. Dean Carl E. Cox of Southern College will accompany him during the inspection.

BURTON GIVES FAREWELL LECTURE SUNDAY NIGHT

Sunday evening, March 18, an inspirational hour was held at Knobel Hall at which Richard Burton concluded his lecture series with a talk on "The Secret of Happiness."

The program opened with two musical numbers sung by the Girls' Glee Club of Rollins College. Following these Clinton Scollard read two of his poems, "Sanctuary" and "The High Hill."

In giving his talk Dr. Burton said, "Many people have come to consider virtue and happiness as irreconcilable to one another. They believe virtue to be a quality which involves a series of 'don'ts' and is thus a destroyer of happiness. This view is entirely false."

"The word virtue is derived from a word meaning strength. Likewise virtue is strength. The strong man is a virtuous man. If he is a whole man, a hale man, he is bound to be a holy man."

"When virtue is rightly regarded, it ties up easily with that kind of happiness which is real and lasting."

Evans Overwhelm Odds in Hockey

Never completely losing control of the ball, the Evans defeated the Odd hockey team by a score of 9 to 0, on Thursday, March 16, at the Harper-Shepherd field.

In spite of frequent striking of sticks and aimless hitting of the ball, the girls showed a knowledge of team play. The outstanding factor was the spirit; it could not have been better.

Those deserving special mention are Harriet Gleason, Gladys Wilkinson, Mary Race, Verna Maxson, Mary Fisher and Ruth Cole.

Stella Weston, a clever goal keeper, was not allowed to show her ability, since the Evans' goal was never seriously threatened.

With basketball a first term sport next year, hockey will major, as it rightfully should. This year's work was preliminary for next. The technique is good and some exciting Odd-Even games are expected.

Some valuable Odds were missing on the team. The first official lineup read as follows:

Odds	Evans
Fisher (C)	v.f. Gleason
Rogers	i.f. Holland
McCutcheon	l.w. Daley
Scales	r.w. Walters

R. J. Leonard Stops Here

Dr. Robert J. Leonard, Head of the Dept. of Education, Teachers College, Columbia Univ., stopped over for an hour or two Tuesday, to visit the College. He is an important man in the field of education.

EVANS TROUNCE ODDS IN A 9 TO 5 THRILLER

Wednesday night the Rollins gym housed one of the keenest of the season's battles. The girls' Odd and Even basketball teams played to the finish to determine the 1928 champions. Each team had a game to their credit, the Evans a 12 to 9 victory, the Odds an 8 to 5.

The spectators by their cheering fired the players to additional spurts of effort.

The half ended with the Evans holding a one point lead, 3 to 4. The third quarter the Evans showed a sudden burst of speed and teamwork which was not stopped until they scored five points. In the last quarter the Odds scored a two point basket making the final score 9 to 5.

Damaris Wilson, center for Evans, played the outstanding game of the evening. She had the leopard's spring that got the tip off and an easy fleetness that kept her opponent rushing.

Ruby Quick was high point forward making seven of the nine points for the Evans. The splendid co-operation of Quick and Holland was commendable.

Lo Bean and E. Morton played good offensive basketball for the Odds. Lester, entering in the last quarter as Odd forward, speeded up the game and pocketed a two point basket immediately.

Centers and their running partners on both teams exhibited splendid team work.

Mary V. Fisher, guard for Odds, and Camille Beach, Even guard, played a pretty defensive game.

Miss Annie Bruce of Orlando was official referee. Jeannette Dickson and Kathryn Hosmer, score keepers and Ann Lupton and Verna Maxson, time keepers.

The line-up was:

Odds	Evans
Jane Chase	e. D. Wilson
Hazel Coley	s.e. G. Wilkinson
M. Lo. Bean	r.f. R. Quick
E. Morton	i.f. L. Holland
M. Fisher	e.g. I. Smith
M. Race	i.g. C. Beach

Substitutions made for the Odd team were, Gladys Morton for Coley, side center, in 1st and 4th quarters; Lester for Elisabeth Morton, 4th quarter.

Odds Win Over Even Girls In Second Game

With one game to their favor, the Evans were defeated by the Odds, in a girls' intra-mural basketball game, on Thursday evening, March 16, at the Rollins gym. The final score was 8 to 5.

The play was exciting, since it was a nip and tuck game until the final whistle.

Holland and Quick, forwards, and Wilson and Beach, centers, stood out for the Evans. Fisher and Race guarded well, while E. Morton, with (Continued on page 4)

Established in 1894 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-rounded yet keen-edged, subtly satirical, yet as witty and energetic as its name implies, victorious in single combat and invulnerable to a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation; all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

A few months ago an article appeared in this column suggesting that the lake front be improved by the removal of certain eye-sores. Results were immediately achieved, but in a not too commendable manner.

It is time for Rollins to make some constructive improvements in some other field than merely in the class room. A particular grievance of the men in Chase Hall is the germ-carrying unsanitary water cooler with its accompanying evil—the old rusty tin cup. This cup is used by any and all who do not carry their own individual cups with them. Not only is this true but it is not restricted to any one race—but both black and white drink from this same cup. This is particularly distasteful, at least to the Southerner.

The water in the cooler is often dirty as the cooler is seldom scrubbed or even washed out. Could not a bottle cooler with sanitary cups be provided at a not too great expense? Let us get rid of this menace to the health of the students residing in Chase Hall.

One more Chase Hall problem is becoming more noticeable as the days and nights grow warm. The screens on some of the windows in Chase Hall are loose and full of holes. Mosquitoes are rather adept at finding these holes, and night after night a game is played in the room called "hide and seek." The mosquito bites and hides and the seeker arises from the arms of Morpheus and seeks. These little pests then proceed to laugh gleefully at the futile efforts of a mere mortal to squelch them. In the meantime the light has attracted many of the brothers and sisters of the already happy inmates and they too join in the fun. It is no fun, however, for the unlucky human inmate of Chase who parades around at all hours of the night with a swatter in one hand and a scratcher in the other. A little netting and a little attention would bring forth the everlasting thanks of the "skeeter pestered inmates of Chase." There is something more that I would like to say and that—damn that skelter, I'll get it yet.

SOCIETY

Y. W. PICNIC WEDNESDAY

The Y. W. Cabinet decided in the meeting of March 21 to hold a picnic for all the members on the twenty-eighth of the month, that is next Wednesday. It is expected to make this an annual affair and one of the outstanding events of the Y. W. year since it brings the girls together in a spirit of fellowship. All the girls watch the bulletin boards for announcements as to the completed details for the picnic and everybody be on hand Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 for a good old time at Pleasure Beach.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Kappa Epsilon wishes to announce as honorary member Mrs. Kenneth Kraft.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodward and family called on us Saturday afternoon. Miss Gartland, Elizabeth Atkinson, Barney Woodward, Pet and Aurora McKay were their guests for a picnic at Sandland Springs. Incidentally, Barney received a big old fashioned hamper of homecooking as a farewell gift!

SIGMA PHI SLIVERS

Sigma Phi wishes to announce Louise Hall of Crescent City as a pledge.

Visiting over the week end with us were, Mrs. Frank Larkin, alias Leila Hale, and Margaret White. Leila was en route for Texas.

Dickie took three days off for her birthday and spent them at home in Mt. Dora.

"Tis 'tain't anymore. Oh! where, oh! where has our little dog gone? Easy and Kay think she ran away when she knew it was their week to feed her.

The "March Hares" had a dinner at Barbara Sheffield's Monday celebrating en masse the anniversaries (birthdays) of Helen Massey, Louise Holland, Dickie Dickson, and Gladys Wilkinson. It was a delightful affair and much startling 'inside information' was revealed when the candles were blown out. You'd never guess—?

Saturday evening a St. Patrick's dinner was given at the Kettle in honor of Miss Louise Hall. After this the jolly group attended the dance at the Club.

Another "Family Tree" picnic with steak an' all. On Monday night the entire crowd toured to this historical spot and did the usual (EAT) in the characteristically happy way.

You'll miss the treat of a lifetime if you don't see the "Twig of Thorn." It's truly a masterpiece with all our leading ladies and for the men, Colfax Sanderson as the lover and D. B. McKay, the priest. Student tickets at the reduced price of only fifty cents. Come every one of you.

PHI OMEGA

Don't forget our Benefit Bridge at the Woman's Club Saturday! Here's an opportunity for the bridge fiends to get together once and for all and arrive at a decision as to the All-Rollins Championship Card Shark.

Flornice had a visitor from Gainesville this week and we don't imply perhaps! However, she's so easily teased that we just won't say any more about it.

Marion McCutcheon and Harriet Pipkorn actually went way to Lakeland Saturday to hear Will Rogers. That is hero worship for you. The visit must have proved a howling success, however, for they still have tears in their eyes when they repeat some of his wise cracks.

Lucy Baker was also "among those absent" as she decamped for a few days' visit to Miami. No wonder the Silver Slipper was so crowded.

As to the rest of us, there is absolutely nothing to say.

ALPHA OMEGA NOTES

The sorority wishes to announce as faculty adviser, Mrs. Maud B. Carlson.

Week-ends certainly fail to lack popularity around here. Tiny, Nadine, Gerry, and Gene all went home, while Ginny visited Eleanor in Benson Springs. But Margaret, Ruth, and Flora should worry—especially with exam week following. At last they found a little peace and quiet in which to study.

Monday evening the sorority was the guests of Mrs. Kennedy at the bridge given by the Business and Professional Women's Club at the Chamber of Commerce.

Our idea of perseverance was personified by Ellen last Friday when she braved the deluge and drove to Lake Wales in an open car "just for fun" and didn't she have "it," too!

R. L. S. ELECTS OFFICERS

Rollins Literary Society elected officers for the last school term Friday night at their regular meeting in the Books room. Annie Campbell was named for president to fill the unexpired term of Louise Ferguson, who is completing her college work this term and leaving for Ohio. Katherin Hosmer was elected chairman of the program committee.

"I hear you neck."

"Sorry, I'll try to be quieter next time."

The g. p.'s look worn to a thread. It is not only the student body but the professors who need a few days of real rest.

We forgot to tell you that Prof. McWhite got a new car. That holds more people. Those interested call 50-J.

Poor Miss Kimmel! She will be loaded with work when Miss McVee goes and will have another eight o'clock!

It has been noted that Dr. Burks is on the faculty list. All there is to say is: he never misses getting fun and a laugh from some helpless student or faculty member.

Mrs. Johnston had to walk to the Beanery again and exclaim, "Mendelson, old dear, you need a new tire!"

LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN

LOST—Our little dog. A thoroughbred pedigree pup with ancestors of both German police and Eskimo spitz. Her color, usually a muddy black, is faded with canine buff. She has an unsteady gait, irregular torso, tail and legs annoyingly long, a pleasing look in deep-set eyes, and answers to the name of "Tis" by dashing away in the opposite direction. Last seen following Frank Abbot Monday afternoon a week ago. Any information leading to the recovery of our pet will be appreciated and rewarded by her weeping owners, the Sigma Phis.

Found under the back steps of Cloverleaf one collar button. Owner may have same by calling at the office of the Dean of Women.

Lost—One dozen blonde hairs. Finder please return to Coach Sam Hill and receive reward.

Found—One bottle of home brew on the steps of the K. A. house. Try and get it.

Lost—"Saint Andy." Finder please return to the Evens.

Found—Five gallons of gas. Owner may have same by calling on Bob Proctor's car.

SPEAKERS OF THE WEEK

Wednesday, March 14, in chapel, Dean Carrothers told the student body about the convention in Boston which he attended. He said that there were four outstanding topics of discussion at this convention—namely: the methods of teaching in colleges, health education, curriculum, and the orientation of college problems. He added that the convention was a good place to meet old and new friends.

Friday, March 16, in chapel, Student Association Day.

It was decided that three members from each class be selected to vote upon the Senior class ring. Also it was voted that Friday be retained as Student Association Day in chapel.

Monday, March 19, in chapel, Dr. Ingersoll, a well-known Baptist minister, spoke to the student body, offering to assist them in their choice of churches or in any personal problem. He stated that one's ambition in life should not be to gain wealth, applause, or power, but just to be of service to the world.

SLENDER SILHOUETTES
FEATURED AT ROLLINS

Buxom Betties at Rollins? No, we don't have 'em! Far be it from us! All recent girl visitors at the College have become visibly green with envy at sight of the willowy, sylphlike forms swaying in the breeze. What I mean—there's actually something in the atmosphere here. "Come to Rollins and get thin"—that's the idea girls! We're all doing it.

And how? Easy! You see, it's like this.

To begin with, no true Rollins girl has ever been seen gazing from behind a mountain of whipped cream at Gary's. No, never! Again, we don't believe in the more sickening type of pink teas. These we turn down for the more worthwhile sports, hiking, swimming and rowing always!

Further, we have developed a devastating mania for studying until all hours of the night. It just whips us right down to a nub, you know. Absolutely!

Quite simple, you see. And it does pay girls, really it does! You've no idea, the advantages we really slender girls have over those who just don't care.

SURVEYORS TOUR TO BIG CITY OF TAMPA

On Tuesday morning the Surveying class started out for Tampa to visit the new $5,000,000 plant of the Florida Portland Cement Co. They arrived at Ybor City about noon, and had lunch at Las Noveadas. Red Winterweede tried his best to exhaust the bean soup supply, but was forced to give up after the second dish. Cy Leabury showed his true Yankee blood when he persuaded the manager to sell him $6.50 worth of cigarettes for $4.00; Cy says that if he could speak Spanish, he could have bought them for a dollar less.

After lunch, the class was shown through the cement plant by one of the officers of the company. First they saw how the lime rock is crushed and mixed with clay; then how the mixture is baked in a clinker in the rotary kilns at a heat of 3000 degrees. Upon looking inside of these kilns, they are reported to have decided that in the future they would never go astray from the straight and narrow path. Then came the inspection of the tumblers which pulverize the burned clinkers into the finished product. The group next watched the cement being sacked by an automatic sacking machine. The guide told how the operator of the sacking machine was paid $12 a day, and he was immediately besieged with applications for the job. The visit concluded with an inspection of the testing laboratory.

Up town at a drug store Prof. Weinberg generously offered to treat to drinks; however, when he heard two orders of chocolate milk shakes, he tried to leave; but was stopped. Shortly afterwards, the poor boys experienced a period of great anxiety, for Willie Seaver had disappeared. One of the fellows volunteered the information that he had last seen Willie walking down the street following a girl in a red dress. Finally, Guy Colado started in search of Willie and found him in the Tampa Terrace Hotel.

After a short trip through Davis Islands and Beach Park there was a sound-up at Las Noveadas where Mancel Lawrence imbibed certain doubtful beverages. Several members of the expedition sighed on the way back, "Tampa certainly has many things that Winter Park does not have."

Every fellow agreed that it had been a trip well worth while. Those who made the trip were: Prof. Weinberg, Ellsworth Bassett, Leonard Seaver, Wallace Champney, Ross Robinson, Leroy Pease, Elbert Winterweede, Ralph Lashbury, and Mancel Lawrence.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS
CRITICIZE MINISTER

Columbus, Ohio, (By New Student Service).—Ohio ministers in convention at Ohio State University were somewhat disconcerted when university students, whom they had invited to present undergraduate views on religious leadership, became truly critical. Ministers, the students said, pose as final authorities and never admit they do not know, fail to discuss frankly, sincerely, willingly and intelligently the most vital problems of life, and talk at, rather than with, their followers. At first the ministers rose in protest and wanted to give battle. After a lively meeting the clerics agreed to wait until all the students' criticisms were in before making their defense.

MARY'S LITTLE SKIRT

New York World: The venerable Bishop of Ely and Viscount Lascelles, the King's son-in-law, are debating the authorship of the following deathless rhyme directed against the short skirt:

Half an inch, half an inch, half an inch shorter;

The skirts are the same of mother and daughter.

When the wind blows each one of them shows

Half an inch, half an inch, more than she oughter.

The Viscount says the Bishop wrote it; he does, however, confess to the authorship of this one:

Mary has a little skirt,

So neat, so bright, so aye;

It never shows a speck of dirt,

But it surely does show Mary.

If we could be convicted for our thoughts, we'd all be in the penitentiary.
