London y^e 18. of y^e mo: 1682

Dear Brother and well beloved and truly honored in the Lord, whom I cordially salute and embrace in London I saw that flows unto thee, the Lord god of my life be with thee a mon, by this thou may understand I bid him, and was glad to hear of your health and well being the Lord continue it, I have spoken with will. I am againe and will. Gibson on y^e kinde at court, and he will perform what he hath said if the Lord bring him. I knowe for that he will not be quicker any further will. Gibson has entered 25 more, I am now ready to take shipping this evening at the tower in a Dutch ship with a Dutch friend, I have been with G. H. this day and many friends taking leave with them, for that I have not time to say much, meetings and ginal and friends are well for with my love to thy dear wife y^e kinde as shee and all friends who may inquire after mee, let mee hear from thee, direct to Stephen Crispe at Colchester to be sent forwards who take care many sugarake send it to thee Q. H. E. H. m. C. tho: Altho' I am in hast fear, will thy friend
