ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

PICKARD—POUND—PICKARD

Well, folks, things are about over; this is the last edition of the Sandspur, so for a while at least we must say farewell.

Those wishing to say farewell, fond farewell especially, get in touch with the Pickard boys. They guarantee the last word in fond farewells.

We say so-long to those poor Seniors. How we pity them. Their vacation is about over and they must go to work.

We spent the winter quite successfully. Now our problem is to spend the summer as successfully.

We suggest that Doc Holt open a summer college "a la Rollins," in the Adirondacks perhaps. Then our problem of spending the summer would be solved.

We wonder where professors go and what they do between their vacations.

After three years of observation we now think of our professors as grown up students no longer kept by their papas.

Instead of small allowances from loving papas our profs get large allowances from papa Holt. And we had always connected professors with salaries, small salaries.

Well, so long profs, we have enjoyed spending the winter with you.

Say gents! Let us hope our football player does not get lost, or disinterested during the summer. We will in all probability need a good football man next fall.

Zip and Couch are leaving Rollins; they graduate, but if we knew them they will find some excuse to head south next fall.

Our seniors with the help of their diplomas and their degrees will all without doubt land jobs. Their diplomas and degrees will not help hold down those jobs, however.

It's going to be tough on those that must stay north and work next fall. When the leaves start falling—well that's the time they will wish they were heading south to Rollins.

Well, good bye and good luck. We may all meet again here next fall. We hope so, any bow.

Sigma Phi Annual Dance Spring Social Feature

Aloma Country Club was the scene of the annual Spring Dance given by Sigma Phi Sorority. An unusual lighting effect of blue moon's peeping over bamboo bowers lent enchantment and romantic mystification to the gay party.

FIRST W. A. A. BANQUET SNAPPY ENDING TO YEAR

The first annual W. A. A. Banquet was given last Friday, May 25, at the Water Witch Club in Orlando. It was the culmination of a most successful year of girls athletics here at Rollins.

The club house was tastefully decorated and 75 places were set with appropriate place cards done by Mary Race.

The Banquet was opened with the singing of the Rollins Rouser and a welcome by the President, Harriet Pipkorn. Interspersed with the fruit cocktail were a new pledge (Continued on page 3)

Rollins Conservatory Gives Debussy Program

The Debussy program given by the Rollins College Conservatory at the Congregational Church last Wednesday evening was an excellent rendition of the composer's work.

In his music there is a continuously moving background with clear melody notes. The openness of fourths, fifths and octaves, gives his music a lightness not found in the older masters, like Beethoven. The very essence of the French composer's art is subtlety and elusiveness. The piano is peculiarly suited to produce Debussy's tone.

Particularly in his later compositions there is a spirit of pervading sadness and despair, probably caused (Continued on page 3)

Orlando High Wins Walter Rose Trophy

Orlando High beat Miami in the tenth inning Saturday, May 19, to annex the Walter Rose cup for the second time. Miami captured a two-run lead early in the game on a walk and error by Whittaker and a home run by the Miami first sacker, Christianson.

Orlando scored their first run in the seventh when F. Yochum got an infield hit, went to third on a sac-

BIG BEN TO CONTINUE FIGHTING WITH TERRIS

Ruling that Sid Terris knocked out "Big Ben" Pound because of a foul blow delivered after the bell had rung for the end of the second round of their fight last Friday, the State Boxing Commission has ordered that the two heavies meet again in Tampa on June 8.

Ben was outboxing Terris in the first two rounds and in the second he landed his famous right to put Terris on the floor for a count of eight. Sid seemed to be in bad shape as he rose from the canvas. As the bell rang for the end of the round (Continued on page 3)

Dr. Taintor Makes His Last Chapel Address

Dr. Jessie F. Taintor gave his farewell chapel address Monday morning, May 27, before a large audience of students. Dr. Taintor has been the popular librarian of Rollins College for the past five years, and it is with genuine regret that the students of Rollins bid farewell to this man who has always proved himself their good friend and comrade.

Dr. Taintor opened his speech as follows: "It is always interesting to hear a man talk when he doesn't know what he is talking about. I have chosen a subject about which (Continued on page 3)

Gamma Phi's To Install Chapter Here The Ninth

The installation of Phi Omega sorority as the Alpha Mu chapter of Gamma Phi Beta will take place at the close of the school year immediately following commencement.

Mrs. Frank Thayer of Chicago, Illinois, will officiate as the installing officer. It is expected that Mrs. L. W. Hall of Minneapolis, Minnesota, a sister of Stella Weston, will assist Mrs. Thayer. A dozen girls from the Upsilon chapter at Rollins College, Virginia, and many Gamma Phis from out of town will also be present for the ceremonies.

Rusty Moody Recovering From Appendicitis Operation

Rusty Moody is slowly recovering at the Sanitarium in Fortuna from an operation for appendicitis to which he submitted last Wednesday afternoon.

Tuesday night Rusty complained of feeling ill and went to bed. The doctor pronounced it ptomaine poisoning. Wednesday morning however the symptoms revealed that it was a severe attack of appendicitis. The operation would have been too late if they had waited even a few hours. The entire school wishes Rusty and sends sincere wishes for a speedy recovery.

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR 43rd COMMENCEMENT

Forty-two Rollins seniors will receive their graduation diplomas at the forty-third annual Commencement exercises to be held in the Congregational Church Friday morning, June 8. This will be nearly twice as large as the largest class graduated heretofore, and marks a noteworthy period in the forward progress of the college. The next largest class numbered 24, in 1920.

The program of the exercises, which will begin at nine-thirty o'clock, is as follows:

Processional—Organ—Prelude to St. Francis—Tinel.

Senior-Faculty Picnic Proves Big Success

Saturday, May 19, the seniors and faculty ventured to Daytona Beach for their annual picnic. High wind and waves and a spirit to match made the affair a real success from the beginning. Bathing and beach baseball vied for popular attention until some one discovered an aeroplane.

At six Mrs. Haggerty served friend chicken, fruit salad, sand-

Even Swimming Team Wins Deciding Meet

The even team splashed away with a 20-28 score against the odds on Monday, May 21. The odd-even meet was a climax to the preliminary and class meets held this spring.

Ruth Cole was high point scorer, Maxey Wilson second, and Louisa Holland third, Holland placing first in diving come as a surprise. The result was an upset, since two of the evens, Camille Beach and H. Pipkorn, were out.

The officials were: Head judge, Fleet Peoples; judges, Miss Jackson and Clyde Russell; Chief Timer, Bob Burhans; assistants, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Carlson; Clerk of Course, M. V. Fisher; Scorer, J. M. Dickson; Announcer and Starter, Bill Rice.

Mortus (odd) placed first in the 50 yd. free style. Cole second, Holland third. Time 38.7.

K. A. Entertains Men Faculty Of Rollins

Thursday evening, May 17, Kappa Alpha entertained the masculine members of the Rollins faculty with a smoker at the K. A. house.

The students and "older boys" played bridge, "shot ball" and smoked until about ten when ice cream, cake and coffee came upon the scene.

After refreshments Prof. Wattles entertained those present with readings from a collection of poems he had written during the war.

The Sandspur

Established in 1904 with the following editorial: "Unassuming yet mighty, sharp and polished, well-considered yet many-sided, assiduously tenacious, yet as girly and unsexed as its cover implies, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation, all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

THE SENIORS

Commencement Week is approaching. The departure of Rollins' largest graduating class is imminent. The Sandspur can do no more than express the regret of the students—and faculty—that it is time for a progression. The future is promising, however. Rollins will succeed—through the efforts of the newest alumni as well as the student yet-to-come.

"GUNBYE"

With this issue of the Sandspur the present staff finishes its job. We have had a heap of fun getting out your paper for you. We have been gratified by the consistent and eager reception you have given it. In turning over the editorial pencil, scissors and paste-pot—we feel immensely sad. After being the official pulse-observer of the students for nine months it is hard to know that the end is here—but so be it—and so long.

THE S. A. CONSTITUTION

Little has been said in the Sandspur columns of the recent Student Association election.

Many hold different views regarding the manner in which the election was conducted and many offer sound proofs to substantiate their different opinions.

The election is past and gone and there is no use bringing out and hatching out old facts, but care should be taken that the Student Association Constitution is followed more carefully in the future. That the election did not conform to the constitution is perfectly obvious, but the election of officers is only one of the articles that have been violated.

A thorough survey of the constitution will enable one to realize that it is as elastic as an India rubber band. The obvious thing to do is somehow or other revise, amend or replace the old constitution with one that cannot be stretched, bent, or cramped to suit the needs of any certain occasion.

A DOUBTFUL SITUATION

With the recent elections in the majority of campus organizations, the old order is gradually being replaced by the new. Many things are expected of the new officers.

The duties incumbent upon them should be efficiently discharged.

Those who supported the successful candidates are anticipating a meritorious season of office. The embryonic office-holders are in the precarious position of being uncertain as to how the students will receive their efforts. Because they are dubious of the co-operation and strength behind them they are already putting out feelers to test the situation.

There is a grave danger in this. They may remain dubious and hesitant too long. Since they do not feel sure of adequate support from the student body for any worthwhile project, the result may be that few projects will be sponsored—somewhat after the fashion of the dog and eat both so zealous of watching each other that they allow the mice to destroy all the good things!

FACULTY-IN-TRANSIT

Are you going somewhere this summer? If not we are sorry for you. Everyone owes it to himself to get out of the state for a while. It makes him appreciate the place more when he gets back. Most of the faculty are going and here's where.

Dr. Sprague will be here till July and after that one of about fifty places, in fact anywhere but Houston, Texas.

Professor Fuernstein returns to New York for the summer to continue his philosophical studies.

Dr. and Mrs. Harris will be here until July 1, after which they plan to go to Mrs. Newby's camp at West Barrington, Mass. Here the Harris expect to write and Miss Ruth Harris will study art.

Dr. Campbell's summer address will be at Hartwood Club, Hartwood, Sullivan County, New York.

Dr. Boice will be in Balcon, N. C. Dr. Bailey is to teach in the Asheville Normal School the first six weeks of the summer. After that his plans are undecided.

Three of the Rollins faculty are to found at the University of Michigan Summer School this summer, Dean Carrothers and Professor and Mrs. Carlton. After the summer session Dean Carrothers has planned a pleasure trip which will take him through Ohio and New England.

Mrs. Newby has an art scholarship at Harvard.

Professor Jenks is to teach history at Columbia.

Professor Grover will teach a course in books at Breadloaf summer school in Vermont.

Mrs. Robie will spend the summer in Yarmouth, Maine.

Dr. Uphoff will be with the Tropical Plant Research Foundation the entire summer in Washington, D. C., and probably Cuba and Costa Rica.

Professor Wattle's remains in Winter Park until July 1, working on "Trail on Toby," a volume of poems. After the first Professor Wattle will attend the Breadloaf School of English at Middlebury, Vt., and visit the Edward MacDowell Colony, Peterborough, N. H.

Miss Shaw plans beginning work toward a Ph.D. at Cornell. After the middle of August she will be on her father's farm in Vermont.

Miss Gleason will be in Winter Park for several weeks after school closes and will return to her home in Ohio later in the summer.

Miss Thomas will enjoy a well earned vacation at Christmas Cove, Maine. She plans to spend two weeks in New York before returning next fall.

Dr. and Mrs. Tainter will spend the summer in Rippon, Wis.

President Holt and his family will spend the summer at their summer home, Sunset Hill, at Woodstock, Connecticut. In the latter part of the summer, President Holt will probably spend several weeks in Europe attending the World Peace Union at the University of Prague and the League of Nations at Geneva, Switzerland.

Mr. A. J. Hanna, Assistant to the President, will be with President Holt the entire summer at Woodstock, Connecticut.

Miss Lida Woods, Secretary to President Holt, will spend the summer at Woodstock, Connecticut.

Coch Sam Hill left Monday morning for Dallas, Texas, where he will attend the Knut Rockne football coaching school, July 1-15. After visiting with relatives in Oklahoma and Illinois, Mr. Hill will reach Wichita, Kansas, August 1, to take up his duties as director of athletics of the University of Wichita.

THE 1927-28 TOMOKAN

As each year passes and seniors depart from the halls of their Alma Mater to descend upon an awe-inspired world they leave behind many memories—some happy, some sad, and some rather humorous. As college days fade into the remote past so these cherished memories fade, unless kept in mind by some form of written record.

This is the legitimate excuse for a year-book, though many others are alleged. When the youngster of to-day reaches the stage of life where, perhaps, he forgets that he was young and a "regular guy" once, he can look through the record of his college days and friendships and think, "Well, there is the old gang. Boy, I can remember when—"

The seniors of Rollins may well feel proud of the record they have produced in the form of the Rollins

Tomokan—a year-book that is distinctly Rollins from cover to cover. The choosing of Rose Mills Powers' "The Ride of the Thirty Cavaliers," written on the Rollins campus, as the art motif of the book, gives it an intimate, personal appeal seldom achieved in annuals.

It is not as complete as it might possibly be—the class history and prophesy have been omitted, the snaps were too few and not plain enough, and the basket-ball squad evidently lost their names somewhere during the season.

The good points of the book so overwhelmingly outnumber the slight defects that there is no doubt but that this year's Tomokan is a high mark in Rollins year-books and that others in the future have a high mark to shoot at.

TREASURER E. T. BROWN JOINS RANKS OF AUTHORS

E. T. Brown, treasurer of Rollins College, has added his bit to the maintenance of the Rollins reputation for creative writing.

Mr. Brown recently received a prize of $100 for his story of a "real experience" which he submitted to the monthly contest conducted by the Blue Book magazine. The story appeared in the January number of the Blue Book and is entitled "Trapped." It is a mystery tale based on authentic experiences in a training camp during the World War.

Now we want to know whether Mr. Brown is an author of long standing who has been hiding his light under a bushel, or whether this development of his along literary lines is, rather, an indication that the spirit of creative writing at Rollins is so forceful that it even seeps into the financial department.

SIGMA PHI ANNUAL DANCE
SPRING'S SOCIAL FEATURE

Port Pitt Orchestra, a new and special combination, produced their "better than usual" syncopations. Punch was served during the evening which ended too soon as twelve bells struck.

Chaperones of the occasion were Dr. Hamilton Holt, Dean and Mrs. Carrothers, Miss Hannah Gartland, Miss Annette Burkhart and Mrs. Gage. Representatives from each sorority on the campus were special guests, all members of Sigma Phi, and of course all the true Rollins boys were present.

song taught by Marcelia Halper, Harriet Gleason and Mary Boyer, and a limerick with a pointed moral by Dot Emerson.

During the second course Glad Wilkinson read a clever W. A. A. poem by Daisy Atterbury. Ginny Lawrence and Mary Shepherd rendered, "A Sad Story," by Tillie Meyer.

The third course brought on much chicken, etc., and the singing of Dot Emerson's W. A. A. song. Mary Hall, Glad Wilkinson, Iverne Galloway and Mary Rhee presented "The Truth About Salem," a very appropriate little skit, written by Iverne Galloway. Mary Rhee, in a couple of bath mats and a straw hat, was undoubtedly the hit of the night, as John the Baptist.

The feature of the evening was the presentation of the awards. Miss Jackson displayed the small W. A. A. emblem which is to be presented to Ruth Cole, Maudie Wilson, Jewel Lawler and Mary Rhee.

She also showed the swimming emblem which is an "R" done in mermaid effect which will be worn by Ruth Cole, D. Pipkorn, Lou Pipkorn, Camille Beach, Easy Holland and Maudie Wilson.

The hockey emblem was awarded to Ginny Fisher for her conscientious and enthusiastic work throughout the term.

A beautiful silver class cup, presented by Mr. C. D. Walters of Orlando, was awarded to the Sophomore class. This award was based on the number of points won in all intra-mural contests.

The Rollins "R" was presented to Ruth Cole for her all-around sportsmanship qualities.

In her farewell address, the President thanked the members for their loyal support and expressed her appreciation to Miss Jackson for her enthusiasm, co-operation and labor to put W. A. A. over.

After the installation of the new officers, everyone sang a toast to Ruth, the "Girl with the Rollins R."

III. Piano solos—"Voiles," "Reflets dans l'eau," "Jardins sous la pluie."

IV. Violin solos—"C'est l'extase," "Ballade," "Minstrelle."

rifice bust, and scored on a fly to right field by U. Yochum. In the ninth the Tigers tied the score when Rogers singled to right field, stole second, and scored on a perfect squeeze play by P. Yochum.

With the score tied two—all in the tenth, Orlando pulled the second squeeze play of the day to score the winning run.

Preliminaries

On Thursday, May 17, Orlando beat Kissimmee 4 to 1. The game was a pitcher's duel between Yochum of Orlando and Tatsky of Kissimmee. Errors behind the batter cost Kissimmee the game. Putnam high of Palatka downed Ocoee in the other Thursday game. L. Buck allowed Ocoee but two hits while his team mates scored two runs to win 2 to 0.

Friday morning Miami won from Hillsborough 4 to 3 after the two teams had battled for 11 innings. The other morning game went to De Funiak Springs when they downed Miami by a 7 to 3 score.

The semi-final round found Orlando and Miami victorious over Palatka and De Funiak Springs. These victories placed them in the championship game Saturday.

LAST CHAPEL ADDRESS

I know nothing—psychology. I know less about it than any of you. However, I shall talk on the psychology of the button.

"As you know, the button on my coat has four holes in it. When a man sews on a button, he inserts the needle into each individual hole separately and uses his thumbnail for a thimble. When a woman sews on a button, she does it with one circular motion. However, when her attention is drawn to this fact, she immediately becomes clumsy, for 'accumulated power resulting from repeated action enables you to do some things easily and unconsciously which are done only with difficulty when you stop to think about them.'

"College should teach you to do things easily. When you get out in life, if you have nothing like Tennyson's gleam, nothing like the star of Bethlehem to mark for you the right path, your college course has been a failure. It means that you have done nothing there to develop a moral character of dignity and worth.

"Now to get back to my button. There are four holes in it. Likewise there are four holes in your life which you must guard. The first is honesty;—to yourself, to your fellow-men, and to your God. The second is cleanness of speech, for what you say enters into your very soul. You should remember the words of Galsahad: 'My strength is as the strength of ten because my heart is pure.' The third thing is fundamental religion. This consists in living your life day by day with the sense that this life belongs to the ages, and is not bounded by three score years and ten. Always live in this world as though you were always going to live in this world."

"The fourth and last hole is the sum of these three things: honesty, cleanness of speech, and fundamental religion."

Delightful refreshments of Sigma Phi punch, ice cream and cake were served to the girls.

SIGMA PHI NOTES

Sunday morning Barbara gave a farewell waffle breakfast for seniors. Guests were all the Sigma Phi around here who have been in the sorority for the past four years. Mrs. Sheffield had written a beautiful poem dedicated to Edna. Barbara read and presented it.

Monday afternoon after the last meeting of the year at Skipper's the seniors were presented with their Sigma Phi friendship circles. Punch and devil's food cake was served.

Sigma Phi wishes to announce that the Sigma Phi House for next year will be Mrs. Lenfest's house on Comstock avenue. Everyone is cordially invited to visit us next year.

After commencement there is going to be a Sigma Phi motorcade. Edna is driving to Cleveland, Dicky with Poon, Ginny Eddy, Glenison and Mazy are driving to the wilds of West Virginia. Sodie is against motorcades and so is hosting to New Orleans.

Eleanor Pressey has announced the glad news that she is coming back next year. She is to be Dorothea's assistant in the Little Theatre.

Sigma Phi was mighty proud of Glad the night of her recital. It was so very sad that she "got a pain in her sawdust."

PHI OMEGA ENTERTAINED

Miss Jewel Lewter entertained Phi Omega sorority at her home in Orlando Monday evening, May 21.

Four tables of Bunco were played by the guests. After many progressions, Stella Weston received a box of stationery for high score. Florence McKay, holder of low score, was consoled with a dainty handkerchief.

After refreshments of ice cream, punch, and wafers had been served dancing was enjoyed by the guests.

MISS FRANCES VALLETTE ENTERTAINED AT BRIDGE

Several college girls were entertained Friday evening, May 18, at the home of Miss Mary Chisholm of New England Avenue, in honor of Miss Frances Vallette.

At the conclusion of several progressions of bridge, Martha Mathis was awarded a woven purse, the first prize; while Martha Schenck received consolation, a box of dusting powder.

A refreshment course was served consisting of chicken salad and cheese sticks. This was followed by ice-cream, cake, and punch.

The list of guests included: Martha Mathis, Martha Schenck, Florence McKay, Dorothy Emerson, Isobel Green, Katherine Green, Elizabeth Atkinson, Stella Weston, Nancy Brown, Freda Kuebler, Lucille Waters, and Lucille Pipkorn.

R. L. S. HOLDS ELECTION

Officers for the coming year were elected at the final meeting of the Rollins Literary Society Wednesday evening, May 23, at the Sigma Phi house. The new officers are: Stella Weston, President; Frances Doggett, Secretary; and Iverne Galloway, Program Chairman.

The program for the evening consisted of a comprehensive review of "The Strange Interlude" by Eugene O'Neill. Iverne Galloway gave a brief summary of its plot followed by a critical analysis of all phases of the play. The unusual use of "asides" in this drama for the purpose of revealing the subconscious elements of the actors was given special consideration.

JACKSON GIVES W. A. A. EXECUTIVE BOARD PICNIC

Miss Lucille Jackson and the Executive Board of W. A. A. had a supper picnic 'neath Ye Olde Family Tree Wednesday evening.

Potato salad to Ambrosia delighted the hungry canoists—as they ate and said farewell for this year.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, May 27, Mrs. Gage, the Kappa Alpha boys' house mother, departed for her home in Cleveland.

The boys were sorry to see Mrs. Gage leave but were delighted to learn that she would be back next year.

Saturday evening Mrs. Gage gave a farewell smoker for the boys and President Holt. The guests of honor were Mr. Carl Warner and Mr. William Hohannes.

Thursday, May 23, the words were announced over the heads of John Smith and Willie—Mac Champneys at the Baptist Church in Apopka which united them in holy matrimony.

Miss Champneys is the daughter of Mr. Champneys, the Apopka fern king and sister of Wallace Champneys of Rollins College.

John Smith is an alumnus of Rollins having spent the year of '26, '27 with us; he is a member of the Theta Kappa Nu fraternity and a prominent resident of Apopka.

Mr. Charlie "Zip" Zehler and Miss Aurora McKay officially announced their engagement Sunday, May 30.

Miss McKay is the daughter of Mayor McKay of Tampa and sister of Pet and D. B. McKay of Rollins.

Aurora was recently elected editor of the Sandspur for the year '28, '29. She is vice-president of the sophomore class, and a member of the Kappa Epsilon sorority.

Zip is one of Rollins' outstanding athletes, having been captain of the football team for two years. He is a member of the Theta Kappa Nu fraternity and a member of this year's graduating class.

Aurora and "Zip" spent the week-end in Tampa, visiting Aurora's family.

Margaret Brown and Fred Keiser spent the week-end at Margaret's home making plans for their marriage which will take place soon after the close of school.

AROUND CHASE HALL

Only a few more days and the little Chase Hall boys will be tripping along home to see mother and father. Let's see, there'll be tricycles to be repaired and painted, little express wagons to be fetched from the attic and o-o-o-oh! so many things to be done, all at once! The old tabby cat has found a whole slough of kittens out behind the barn; Fanny, the old brindle cow, has a new calf that can hardly stand up, its legs are so wobbly and funny looking—"see it mama!"

Uncle Dan will come over from Hickory Ridge to take us back home with him to spend a whole week. We can play with cousin Elmer and go topdole fishing down in the branch. "Won't that be fun, grandma?"

Some of us will have to stay in great big old cities such as Waterbury (the town that made the dollar watch famous) and Davenport (where the East stops); there will be street cars to look at, and milk wagons to steal rides on.

"Bus" Tracy, "Al" Gough and John Quill will all three go back to Waterbury for the summer.

"Al" West says Cleveland will provide food and raiment for him this summer.

Dick Wallace will play the organ in a theatre in West Palm Beach, starting this coming Sunday.

"Reaty" Moody will again assist the City of Miami with its building program for the summer months.

"Cy" Cockrell may work about a month on the campus and then visit his old home in Ohio. Father time has sowed and reaped his harvest for thirteen seasons and "Little Cy" has viewed his native land but once in that time. "All things come to him who waits, Cy."

Carl Luttrell says that he will help his dad hew a few stones in his father's quarry at Brooksville, Fla.

Frank Abbott thinks Norwalk, Conn., will make a good place to rest a "spell" in, for the summer.

John Ostlund, a Miami boy, will work there during vacation time.

Bob Stevens believes in Ft. Myers so strongly that he is willing to risk three whole months there, seeking work.

Brother Irby Shelton is going to attend summer school at Berea College, Berea, Kentucky.

Detroit will open its arms to Al Rashid. Al intends to find employment after the reception is over.

Iowa will claim its own, when Goodell and Zoller return to the fold.

Goldsmith will wonder back to the "deserted village" in Pennsylvania, for a short time. Wallace will then seek employment in a northern hotel for the rest of the summer.

McConnell reports that he will probably help his father with his groves out from Daytona—a while.

Babich says he is just going to work, somewhere. Peter's home is in Simpson, Pa.

Ben Pound let it leak out to our of presmen, early this week, that in the fight game nothing was certain; therefore, Benjamin has no plans for the summer.

A letter from "Lefty" Moore, football captain-elect, arrived on the campus a few days ago and brought the good news that "Lefty" is recovering rapidly from his recent illness.

Although he lost thirty pounds during the month he was in the hospital he is regaining weight at the rate of a pound a day. He expects to spend the summer in Clarksburg getting in condition to return to school in the fall.

FIRST GIRLS' SWIMMING RECORDS ESTABLISHED

ALPHA OMEGA

We take great pleasure in announcing as pledges: VERA MAXSON of Tampa, Gertrude Douglas and Lucile Langston of Orlando.

Palm Springs—that is the place where the water seems just a little cooler and clearer on a hot day, where weiners have just a little better flavor, and marshmallows toast a crisper brown. At least this was the case Thursday at an impromptu swim and picnic supper.

Another house party! This time at Viola Wilson's camp on Lake Trout. In spite of the fact that one of the cars refused to budge on the way out (even though its name was not Maud) it was coaxed into a better humor, and arrived, finally.

All the stunts that go to make a perfect camping trip were fully participated in. For further proof, ask Hazel Coley, Fritz Kuebler, Tiny Peterson, Kitty Kinsball, Jewel Lewter, Elsie Braun, Flora Furen, or even the gracious hostess, Viola.
