ROLLINS DAY BY DAY

(PICKARD-POUND-PICKARD)

The team "goes to war" again tomorrow. Turn out and cheer our heroes on.

Doc Holt agrees with Serman about war. If he would agree with us about football, our athletic difficulties could be easily overcome.

In football arbitration does not work so well. Big, tough, fighting morons settle things much more satisfactorily.

For the above reason Rollins has not done so much in football. Our morons have been neither big nor tough enough.

Sorry to wisecrack. The boys did fight hard Saturday. It has been a long time however, since a Rollins team actually "brought home" the bacon.

To fight and win at football, football players are most essential. Rather than constantly fight a foolish, losing battle—"let us have peace."

Prexy favors Al in the interest of World Peace. We know and Prexy knows that even domestic peace is unheard of in Al's old neighborhood.

Weinberg says, "Smith make a good president? Why it took two Smiths to make a rough drop."

But Hoover, oleomargarine, beanery grub etc., are too closely associated in our minds for us to get "hot" about Herbie.

Oftentimes in this column mistakes in spelling, punctuation, etc, convey a wrong impression. We are sorry. In this one respect at least it is not us but the printer that is dumb.

LE CERCLE FRANCAISE HOLDS FIRST MEETING

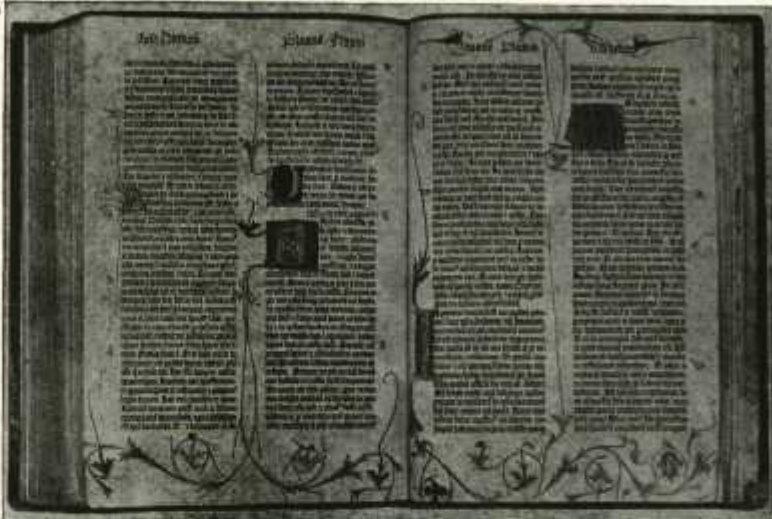

Thursday evening, October 25, Le Cercle Francaise held their first meeting of the year at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

The short program was opened by a French song. Miss Moore gave a piano solo. This was followed by two playlets, Le Muecin Mistif with Harry James, Aurora McKay, Virginia Stella and Le Deux Sourdis with Albert Newton, Donald White, Richard Hayward, Iverne Galloway. (Continued on page 4)

Swim Classes Plan Meet Team Captains Elected

Tuesday, October 23, the captains of the girls' swimming teams were elected. Louise Shinn was chosen to lead the Freshmen, Jewel Lewter the Sophomores and Camille Beach the Juniors. The Senior class is handicapped by lack of material.

ROLLINS COLLEGE RECEIVES RARE DOCUMENT

ELEONORE LEMBECK

The most interesting and valuable addition to the Rollins college library is a large folio volume containing a leaf from the earliest and most perfect book in the world, the Gutenberg Bible. With it comes an essay on Johann Gutenberg by A. Edward Newton; the book was compiled and edited in 1921 by Gabriel Wells. Both men are famous book collectors of New York.

Mr. Hugh McKean, now a junior in Rollins college, recently purchased this folio and presented it to the Rollins College Loan Collection Library. A special exhibition glass case has been ordered in which to show the page of this precious volume.

This leaf has stood the test of time for nearly five centuries. It is remarkable for the strength, crispness and luster of its paper, brilliancy of ink and exactness of execution. The page is printed in two columns, 42 lines to the column.

The text is 2nd Kings, chapter 23 and beginning of chapter 24. The large Latin Gothic characters were

FIRST ANNUAL GREEK DANCE TO BE GIVEN

Tomorrow night, at the Sandalwood Country club, from 8:30 to 12 the first annual Greek Letter Dance will be given, sponsored by the social fraternal organizations of the campus.

The faculty and all of the student body are cordially invited to attend the affair. It is expected that this dance will be one of the biggest events of the year, since it is the result of the combined efforts of all of the fraternities and sororities.

With the final plans nearing completion, all are assured a delightful evening's entertainment.

used to imitate script. Every chapter begins with gorgeous illuminated letters in designs in red and blue, and the capital in every new sentence is colored red throughout the book. The page measures 11½ by 15½ inches.

This valuable leaf from the world's greatest and first printed book was taken from an incomplete copy at Yale University and is the only specimen of its kind in the South, the one leaf being valued at $500.00.

According to Dr. W. S. Rosen-back of Philadelphia there is but one more Gutenberg Bible likely to be auctioned off, and it is expected that it will bring one million dollars. The two most perfect copies in this country are kept at the Morgan Library and at the public library, New York.

Out of the 200 bibles printed there are now twenty copies in existence, (Continued on page 4)

ROLLINS UNABLE TO KEEP LEAD OVER HATTERS

Although completely outplaying the Stetson Hatters during the entire first half of their annual battle, the Rollins Tars, still fighting gamely, finally came out on the short end of a 19-0 score.

The Tars came out at the start full of determination, and continued throughout the entire game with a spirit of gameness such as has seldom before been displayed by a Rollins team.

The Rollins score came in the first few minutes of play, when a trick pass play by Ibrig carried the ball over the Hatters' goal. In the second half, the Stetson line was continually re-enforced by fresh men, and the tired but fighting Tar line was unable to stop the Hatters' attack.

In the final quarter with three men out of the game, the Tars rallied (Continued on page 4)

Tommy Spencer, captain-elect, will lead the Rollins Tar Babies against the Stetson frosh in DeLand tomorrow.

Established in 1924 with the following editorial: "Disseminating yet mighty, sharp and pointed, well-mounted yet unexpedited, astute and incisive, yet so gritty and energetic as its terse logic, victorious in single combat and therefore without a peer, wonderfully attractive and extensive in circulation, all these will be found upon investigation to be among the extraordinary qualities of The Sandspur."

When Tar warriors of the cleared shoe and Stetson wearers of the toeskin clashed in Orlando last Saturday Rollins came into her own. For the first time in a number of years Rollins gave Stetson a genuine fight.

There, in the thick of the battle, a real vibrant thing came to life, surely the spirits of those men who have fought for Rollins in almost forgotten years came back at the starter's whistle. Or was it the new found self-respect and determination to fight "unto the utmost" of the team? Our men went out to prove their calibre and they did!

But the important thing is that the student body suddenly found its long lost voice and yelled—yes, verily, shouted itself hoarse! That team put the fighting spirit back into us and now it is up to us all to maintain it.

The Stetson defeat was nothing to worry about. The gang fought. It was a distinct victory in defeat. We have found ourselves. Now, let's go!

ALPHA OMEGA ANTICS

Virginia Lawrence, Carol Walter, and Flora Furen entertained with a "Woolworth" bridge Tuesday evening. The high score prize, a double compact, was won by Margaret Chapman. At the end of every progression the two at each table holding high score were allowed to draw "Woolworth" prizes of Halloween caps, dolls, and what-not. Refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches, and punch were served and dancing was enjoyed. Among those present were Elizabeth Hurr, Lucille Tolson, Miriam Sprague, Thera Fluno, Harriet Van Dams, Mary Veasey, Vivian Mousillet, Jerry Trull, Clementine Hall, Donna Kimball, Audrey Snyder, Margaret Chapman, Lottin Turner, and Carolyn Heine.

The Latchstring was the scene of a dinner party Thursday evening with Miss Lila May Chapman of Birmingham, Ala., as guest of honor. We are grateful for the hospitality shown us that evening by the Gamma Phi Beta's in behalf of Miss Chapman.

Friday afternoon from three to five o'clock Alpha Omega served tea in honor of Miss Chapman.

Mother Wheatley pleased the "gang" with a strange breakfast Sunday morning. Guess what we had! Weiners and baked beans from the night before, topped off with rolls, cherry preserves, and coffee.

Ginnie Lawrence was the guest of Mrs. Hury and Elizabeth at a duck dinner at the Latchstring on Sunday.

Almost as long as the Rollins-Stetson parade Saturday afternoon was the string of cars that followed the by-ways and hedges to the Wilson camp on Trout lake that evening. The lives of about forty-five starving souls were saved by weiners and all of their paraphernalia. A small but hefty Vic in the center of the room served as an adequate orchestra. For those for whom dancing became too violent and perspiring an occupation, the cool waters of the lake proved a too alluring invitation, and a perfectly luscious moon shone on a gurgling, splashing group of swimmers.

The affair was given by Viola Wilson, Dot Hartridge, Ellen Huffer, Lucille Langston, and Ginnie Lawrence. We enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mother Wheatley and Miss Hughes as chaperones.

LAKESIDE RIPPLES

Lakeside has as their guests this week-end six charming girls from Stetson. They were: Isabel Remson of Brooklyn, N. Y., Ruth Baker of Indiana, and Virginia Cheney, Esther Hansen, Lily Leary, and Mary Gibbs, all of DeLund.

We regret that Anne Lupton has left Lakeland for Cloverleaf but know that she will enjoy her new position there as assistant to Miss Huggins.

Miss Eleanor Pressley has joined the bob-heads and looks very cunning with short hair.

We are indebted to Professor Grover for the lovely prints he has so kindly loaned us.

A lily has been noticed blooming in front of Chase Hall. On passing, the following well known quotation came to mind:

"Consider the lilies of the field, They toil not, neither do they spin— And we wonder about the boys within!"

The Old Maid: Has the canary had its bath yet?

The Maid: Yes, he has, ma'am. You can come in now.—F. P. I. Skipper.

PHI BETA

Phi Beta rush week closed Friday evening with a banquet at the Ruthanna Weaver Tea Room in Orlando. The color scheme was carried out in the fraternity colors, lavender and gold, by the use of golden-rod and lavender flowers while tall tapers furnished the only light. The place-cards were miniature Phi Beta coats-of-arms. The program consisted of A Welcome, Gertrude Ward; History of Phi Beta, Helen Morrow; The Ideals of Phi Beta, Dorothea Thomas.

The invited guests were: Aurora McKay, Velma Elson, Elsie Branes, Frances Arnold, Flora Foren, Aldia La Vigne, Ethelweine Knickerbocker, Thelma Cawood, Mary Hall, Charlotte Steinhaus, and several alumnae of the active chapter.

Phi Beta announces as pledges: Frances Arnold, Thelma Cawood, Velma Elson, Flora Foren, Mary Hall, Ethelweine Knickerbocker, Aldia La Vigne, Aurora McKay and Charlotte Steinhaus.

CHASE HALL

The Chase Hall open house went over big. Everybody seemed to enjoy the cider, doughnuts and dancing.

The boys proved themselves to be good house-keepers, and some of the rooms were "just gorgeous."

Those attending the nightly meetings in Cumming's room, agree with Mitchell when he says Spanish, French, German, Italian, English, and American (spoken at the same time) create a language stranger than Esperanto.

We are taking this opportunity to thank Dorothy Ann Minter, Bob Timson and Bill Rice for contributing their music to the success of our open house.

SIGMA PHI SEX

Sigma Phi was very glad to welcome Mrs. Bartlett, an honorary member, back to Winter Park.

A group of girls enjoyed a steak-roast at the Family Tree Tuesday night.

At a six table bridge given by Poca James, Eleanor Prosser, Virginia Fisher, and Mary Hall, Miss Harriet Van Dame won first prize, and Miss Helen Foley the consolation prize.

We were glad to have a number of the members of the Stetson Glee Club as guests at the Sigma Phi house Friday night.

After the game, some of the Stetson Pi Phi's stopped at the house to introduce their new pledges to us.

Carol Warner came down to the game and spent Saturday night with us.

After the Open House Sunday night, Mrs. Sprague entertained the Sigma Phi's with a dinner at her house.

KAPPA ALPHA BALONEY

We were glad to see so many of our friends at open house. The house is always "open" so drop in often.

Ernest Upmeyer and Ross Robertson, our seniors, have all received liberal offers from large New York firms to become doormen after Wednesday evening's exhibition. It is surprising how some of these young college fellows can break right into big positions.

The Veterans club of the chapter is due to hold a meeting soon. The club is composed of Brother Zoller, president, several other noted brothers of Alpha Psi and Neophilite Schanck. We are sure to say that it looks as if "Snake" Schinck won't be able to meet the requirements.

Captain Ibrig is recovering rapidly, and we hope he will be able to lead the Tars to victory over Piedmont tomorrow.

We hope to see a big turn out at the Greek Letter party Saturday night.

K. E. KOMMENTS

Dr. and Mrs. Vincent entertained with a reception Saturday evening for Tricie and Don. The fraternity presented Tricie with a handsome pair of cast iron fire irons.

Edna and Elizabeth were up for the Stetson game and week-end excitement.

"Shorly" Messer, Maybelle Gaudier, Muriel Mahoney (president of Stetson Phi Beta) and Elizabeth Rhodes, Tri Delta, were our guests from the Stetson Glee Club.

THETA KAPPA NU NOTES

The prize joke of the week—"Unk" Starves mistook some hair shampoo for throat gargle. His favorite song now is "I'm forever Blowing Bubbles."

Jack Evans has returned to Miami after a week's visit. Harry back, Jack old boy.

We enjoyed hot dogs, punch and all the 6x11's at Viola Wilson's camp on Trout Lake last Saturday night.

Have you seen "Bus" Warner's toothless grin since the Stetson game? Well, it was lost in a good cause, old kid.

Congratulations on your open house; Chase Hall—nice work all around—and the cider was a good idea—at least you know what you're drinking.

The Fralicks are back. Old timers will remember "Fat" Fralick as a Tar tackle under Coach Talman.

Mrs. H. B. Hibbard, conductress of the Stetson Glee Club, Mary Louise Crutcher and Lucille Spinks, of the Stetson Tri Delta Chapter spent Friday and Saturday with us.

Alice Briggs of Alpha Theta Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta was a visitor for the week end.

Mrs. Ruby Warren Newby entertained at her home on Richmond Road Friday night with a waffle party. Those invited were Mrs. Lois Walker, Misses Virginia Wilder, Louise Brett, Alice Burdette, Louise Shinn, Anita Cross, Lucille Tolson, Estelle Pipkorn, Harriet Pipkorn, Camille Beach, Ione Pope, Mary Rice, Martha Schanck and Helen Morrow.

The Thetas and "Jimmy Fees" had a steak roast at the Family tree Thursday night.

You are cordially invited to our open house Sunday afternoon from four to six.

CLOVERLEAF CHATTER

Frankie and Elva Arnold spent this week-end in Groveland, Stella Lane and Doris Stone were in Tampa, and Irene Hartsell went home to Lakeland.

A budding detective detected that Cloverleaf closets were used for something besides clothes. He spoke too soon. We have nothing on Chase Hall. However, we enjoyed your desperately to stave off defeat, marching 43 yards toward the Stetson line. The way in which the Rollins routers contributed to this spirit it was very commendable. Never before has a Rollins following showed its loyalty to its team to such a degree as it did at this game.

Much could be said for the work of every man on the team, but in fairness to all, it is sufficient to say that each man did his best.

 four on vellum and the rest on paper of remarkable texture. They contain 641 pages in two or three volumes each. During the years 1480-1485 these masterpieces were produced in Mainz on the Rhine, Germany, the birthplace of Gutenberg. Here and in Strassburg he spent years of toil developing the art of printing.

The crude wood blocks used during the 14th century for the production of playing cards and suitably legends were labeled with picture-words carved in the wood. Gutenberg sliced the words off from these blocks and separated the single letters by cutting them apart. With the financial assistance of Dr. Johann Fustus he used it to print these rarest of all books. It is astonishing that these Bibles remained hidden from the world for three hundred years, when the first one was found in possession of Cardinal Mazarin of Paris, France.

Professor Edwin O. Grover, the director of Rollins college library, hopes that this genuine leaf of the Gutenberg Bible will form the cornerstone of a fine collection of rare documents.
