Whines Pemberton my dear love salutes thee thy wife & little ones <sup>all</sup> have love also <sup>is</sup> & desire thee quite to thy father & mother in law <sup>all</sup> thy own father also <sup>is</sup> all friends <sup>all</sup> you to whom my love in the Lord is now by truly signified ever breathing to the God of all our mercies for thy prosperity and for many years the welfare of <sup>all</sup> (I know by a woman) is now desired than all the treasures of Egypt) And being I do not know whether I may have an opportunity to see thee before thou take thy great Journey I have therefore here will send thee thy little Native <sup>is</sup> of Justice was never married wife at to do any thing at it since it came from thee & also desire thee to carry this letter & deliver it as if directed when it shall please the Lord to give thee the opportunity to see either her or otherwise to send it carefully to him for omitting this to the protection of the almighty hardly desired the Lord to give thee & you all a prosperous Journey & comfortable success in all your undertakings is the true breathing to the only true God for you all of him who is thy love & well friend in that love the wider distance of place or time run ever wears out as in heaven white who is the churl of it & so of bid thee farewell Hen: Bayley
