Deare father Great Choptank 14 ii day mo 82 by this thou may know how kind thy letter but I can give thee no certain amount of phinde as the boat I was at meeting last fore day whereof I saw also blackshaws who said A man told her that the slays was gott to ~~Apogomopa~~ Apogomopa but I cannot sertain that her said true but sheps he gott up before the frost came for some looke notes that the had winter 6 j day fore wind which some say would bring them there And about Cristofar matters that fore day after thou went from here I sent the letter that her should take with him by Mr. Dixon to the meeting as her gave them to Cristofar but I did not goe my self but Eliz. Brodbery went with phinshas to take leave of her father as for her to com to the meeting and speak to Cristofar about going to take a tobe but shee did not com till 2 days so that now I understand that her is gone as I have not good him for which I am much troubled I suppose thou knows ph: ordered mee to take of Mr. Dokes the A side off arriving so when her had brought them home I desired him to com and looke all the goods that ph: had left me as her said her would
