Library Exhibit: “The Print: Selections from the Print Collection”

Inspired by the etchings of UCF School of Visual Art and Design professor Robert Rivers, the exhibit, “The Print: Selections from the Print Collection,” showcases various types of printmaking drawn from the collections of the UCF Libraries Special Collections & University Archives department. In addition to four of Robert Rivers’ hauntingly beautiful etchings, the exhibit includes prints from East/West: A Survey of Contemporary Printmaking [East Portfolio], a portfolio of 50 limited edition prints by prominent American printmakers/educators. A number of printmaking techniques are featured in the exhibit including etchings, woodcuts, serigraphs, linocuts, lithographs, mezzotints, and silkscreens.

John C. Hitt Library 5th floor exhibit space, runs through the end of September 2018

The John C. Hitt Library will be CLOSED on Labor Day—Monday, September 3rd.
