from Apocuinema in Pennsylvania Dear father

my very Dear low Salute by the, with Goufory by his wife Tho Faylor & his wife, hereby know that I of the way got to the head of Bohmiah River the 9th of August where we stayed what through the badness of the weather, the time of getting over board, by land to this place, until the last 2nd day being the 14th of August, at this time we came to this place & have stayed here for want of a Schoop to carry us up the river, the water being so low, it was so run on ground that it cannot be got of & we now have that to our hind and so, it is so little that if it take of all water it will be all it can do, we had about 100 Carl loads of goods amongst us, I think much how did not write by the friends that came up from those places away as a at very well; the the season is very hot & hot to glad to have letters from you or please, but we know if there willy how it is by all our's all with much respect how it is by Tho Faylor wife I have the horse I had on it found & brought home; I write divers letters to England from this place; I hope you will some time ere long as soon as the season is convenient go south all with Dickinson's; & my intention is to go afore by land to strike a place for us, I write to the from Sasafrag and I suppose; thou may have seen afore this my mother to the her love of to friends there, to you with his wife to Henry parrot to with Henry's wife had them three son is well only had got a boile is some thing troublesome to him, as I write in my last as it is in my mind to write the same to the againe & very careful of taking care; & if thou too take sometimes a little of of wormwood in thy drink; because thou hast been used to it & I believe it may be good for the Joseph major low is to the; I shall conclud my loving son

Allis love is to the I have write by this Diarror to the be
