COLLEGE OF LAW

ANNOUNCEMENT

JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

DE LAND, FLORIDA

GO TO A LAW SCHOOL

"There is little, if any, dispute now as to the relative merit of education by means of law schools, and that to be got by mere practical training or apprenticeship as an attorney's clerk.

"The benefits which law schools offer are easily suggested, and are of the most superior kind. They afford the student an acquaintance with general principles, difficult, if not impossible to be otherwise obtained; they serve to remove difficulties which are inherent in scientific and technical phraseology, and they, as a necessary consequence, furnish the student with the means for clear conception and accurate and precise expression. They familiarize him with leading cases, and the application of them to discussion. They give him the valuable habit of attention; teach him familiar maxims, and lead him readily to survey the law as a science. Disputing, reasoning, reading, and discoursing, become his constant exercises; he improves remarkably as he becomes acquainted with them, and obtains progress otherwise beyond his reach."—From the Report of the Committee on Legal Education to the American Bar Association.

"The American Law Schools have convinced the profession that they do teach law in an efficient way, in a way which makes the man not only a better instructed lawyer, but a better practical lawyer."—Sir Frederick Pollock.

The lawyers of former generations got their preliminary training in an office. But in the words of Chief Justice Waite, "The time has gone by when an eminent lawyer, in full practice, can take a class of students into his office and become their teacher. Once that was practicable, but now it is not. The consequence is that law schools are now a necessity."

The young man who supposes that passing the bar examination makes him a lawyer, and who yields to the infatuation of entering an office to be initiated into the profession, will find that he has begun at the wrong end, and that he has mistaken the work of an office clerk for training in the law.

College of Law

GENERAL STATEMENT

Quite a large number had received College degrees before entering upon the study of law. The college began its work in 1900. It has had the strongest support of the Florida Legislature, Bar and Bench from the beginning. The next fall term begins September 21st.

LAW SCHOOLS

In all the states the Law School has practically supplanted the law office as a place of preparation for the practice of law. It is obvious that systematic instruction by experienced teachers will result not only in a more thorough, but a more speedy, preparation for the bar, than is possible through the desultory reading in a busy law office.

STETSON'S PURPOSE

It is the purpose of this college to prepare students to practice law. In carrying out this purpose, it is sought not merely to familiarize the student with certain rules of law, but also to develop a legal mind and to train him in the art of legal reasoning. The right to modify, without notice, the work and requirements of the University, as set forth in this catalogue, as occasion demands it any time, is reserved.

THE DEPARTMENT BUILDING

During the first two years the College occupied rooms in Elizabeth Hall. These quarters were necessarily cramped and entirely inadequate to the needs of the rapidly growing work. In October, 1912, the new Science Hall, a beautiful brick building two hundred feet long, eighty feet deep, and three stories high, was opened. The style of the building is of the Spanish Renaissance, with low, nearly flat roof, the brick walls being finished in grey stucco. The entire south half of its third floor is given up to the College of Law. This provides two large lecture rooms, a room for the Library, a Practice Court room, the Dean's office, and a hall for the Kent Club, the law debating society, thus furnishing ample room for the College of Law and giving it a home second to none in the South.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

It is important for law students as a class to have the maturity, culture, and ethical ideals for which an American college education stands and all those who are able to complete a college course before entering the Law School are advised to do so. The diploma of any reputable college, academy or high school will be received as evidence of sufficient preliminary education without examination. Other students who hold no diploma, but who have received such a training in the schools, or by private study, or other means, as to qualify themselves to begin the study of law may be admitted. All prospective students are requested to correspond with the dean, who will advise them fully upon the matter of admission.

FURTHER REQUIREMENTS

Applicants for admission to the Junior Class must be nineteen years of age, and to the Senior Class twenty. Graduates or matriculates of colleges and students who have completed an Academy or High School course satisfactory to the faculty will be enrolled as Juniors. Those who have had in addition a year of law in a high grade law school will be enrolled as Seniors. Until proof is given of educational ability to pursue successfully the study of law all others will be classed as Freshmen in a three years course.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Attorneys at law who have been admitted to practice in the courts of this State since the new law regulating admission to the bar went into effect will be admitted to the Senior class without examination. Other applicants for advanced standing must pass an examination in all subjects in which advanced credit is sought.

ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS

Persons who are unable to comply with the above requirements are allowed to become special students, with the privilege of pursuing a selected course of study, but without the privilege of being enrolled as a candidate for a degree. They are permitted, under the guidance of the Dean, to select such subjects from the different courses as they are able to pursue with profit to themselves.

A like privilege is extended to all other persons desiring to take only certain courses offered in the College of Law. All persons admitted to the College of Law are admitted subject to all the general rules and regulations of the University and such special rules as the President of the University is empowered to enact and enforce.

The knowledge of law, and the discipline gained from a course of study in a law school is of the greatest value to those students who contemplate a business rather than a professional career. This class of students is increasing each year in all law schools.

EXAMINATIONS FOR ADMISSION

In the fall of 1922 examinations for admission will be held in the Law Building, September 20th and 21st, beginning at nine o'clock in the morning and at two o'clock in the afternoon of each day. The examinations of the first day will have reference to general education. The examinations on the second day will have reference to legal education, and will be confined to candidates for advanced standing. Applicants for advanced standing, unless exempt from the preliminary requirements, should be present at both of these examinations. Candidates should aim to present themselves on these days, as they are expected to be in attendance on the first day of the term, at which time the regular course of instruction will begin. No examinations for advanced standing will be given after the first month of the fall term.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

There are several methods of instruction used by law schools, namely: the text-book method, the problem method, the case method, the lecture method and the text book and case and problem methods combined. The work will not be confined to any one method. Realizing that each of these methods has in it elements of good, the faculty will endeavor to combine in the course the good features of all.

COURSE OF STUDY

The course of study is a graded one and covers a period of three years of thirty-six weeks each. The College year is divided into three terms, the fall, winter and spring terms of twelve weeks each. For strong students the course is two years. As the curriculum of the Law School covers a wide range and the work is exceptionally heavy, those students whose preliminary training is not the equivalent of a good high school course are earnestly advised to devote three years to the completion of their law studies. Students need a three years' course and are urged to take History, Economics and English in addition to law proper. The following is a statement of the subjects in which instruction is given, and the methods used, and embraces the subjects and text-books prescribed by the Supreme Court of Florida for examination for admission to the Bar:

EXAMINATIONS

It is the desire of the Faculty to characterize the work of the College of Law by its completeness and thoroughness. As one means to this end, two days are set apart at the close of each term for the examination of all students upon the work of the term. The examinations are in writing and are rigid and searching, but are not final. During the last week of the Senior year all members of the Senior class must pass an examination in all subjects given in the course and attain a minimum average grade of 75 per cent in each subject in order to be recommended for a degree.

THE PRACTICE COURT

A well organized Practice Court is a regular feature of the course in the Senior year, and the work in it is emphasized. Beginning with the Winter Term, weekly sessions of the Court are held, over which the Judge of the Practice Court presides. The object of the course in the Practice Court is to give the students practical instruction in pleading and practice at law and in equity and actual experience in the preparation and trial of cases, thus removing the main objection raised to law school training, that it is theoretical and not practical. The work in the Practice Court is divided into three classes of cases.

FIRST—Cases arising upon statements of facts prepared and assigned to the students, upon which they are to issue, serve and return process, prepare pleadings, and bring the cause to an issue on a question of law. The case is first heard on the pleadings and the questions arising thereon are argued and disposed of. At the second hearing, after the pleadings have been approved, the case is argued, and decided on the questions of law involved, the facts being admitted.

SECOND—In the second class, actual controversies are arranged and assigned for trial as issues of fact. The students are here required to issue the proper process and prepare and file the pleadings necessary to produce an issue of fact. They then subpoena the witness, impanel the jury, examine and cross-examine the witnesses and argue the cases to the court and jury.

THIRD—In this class the necessary papers are prepared to bring the case before the Supreme Court for review, and the legal questions arising in the lower court are argued and decided.

LAW LIBRARY

Through the generosity of the bar of Florida the College of Law was enabled to begin its career with a good working Library, including the reports of the Florida Supreme Court, the United States Supreme Court, the American Decisions, the American Reports and American State Reports, the Digest and Statutes of the State and the United States, and many of the leading text-books and books of reference. Since the year 1900, the reprint of the English reports, and also the National Reporter System complete have been added. The National Reporter System, issued by the West Publishing Company, gives every case decided in the court of last resort of every State in the Union since about 1870. This, with the selected cases before mentioned, and the American Digest System complete, and the Cyclopedia of Law and Procedure, affords most excellent facilities for the study of case law of the American States. The Class of 1903 left to the College of Law, as a memorial, the Chancery Reports of the State of New York; the Class of 1905, the New York Common Law Reports; the Class of 1906, the Lawyer's Reports Annotated; and the Class of 1907, the Michigan Reports up to the Northwestern Reporter. We also have the New Jersey Law Reports and the New Jersey Equity Reports, and a complete set, 224 volumes, of the Pennsylvania Reports, the gift of Hon. N. H. Larzelere, of Norristown, Pa., and the Illinois and Massachusetts Reports. We now have the complete unabridged edition of Federal Statutes Annotated, 13 volumes and supplements. During the past year we have added a well assorted collection of new text-books, from books and works on pleadings. Important additions will be made to the Library during the coming year. There are now over three thousand bound volumes in the Law Library, not including Law reviews.

The students of the College of Law have access to the General Library of the University.

BREWER CHAPTER PHI ALPHA DELTA FRATERNITY

The second largest national legal fraternity, Phi Alpha Delta, entered the Stetson College of Law in 1915 by installing a chapter in it. This is the first chapter of a national legal fraternity in the far South. Membership is restricted to the honor men. Several of the prominent jurists of the State have become honorary members since the founding of this Chapter.

THE SIGMA NU PHI FRATERNITY (LEGAL)

The John Marshall Chapter of the Sigma Nu Phi Legal Fraternity, was installed at Stetson University on April 23d, 1921. Although a new arrival at Stetson, this fraternity is already making rapid strides, and bids fair to become strong in its chosen field.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Kent Club was established as a literary society, the membership and work of which are under the control of the students of the College of Law.

The Professor of Argumentation and of Public Speaking offers all possible encouragement and direction and, when requested, all needed assistance to the members of the Law School in the preparation and effective public presentation of debates, orations and other forms of public address.

UNIVERSITY PRIVILEGES

The advantages of the other departments of the University are open to such students in the College of Law as desire and are able to accept them. Courses in Constitutional Law, Political Economy, Logic, Rhetoric, and English Composition are particularly recommended to law students. No extra charge will be made for such course, but students in the College of Law will be permitted to take them only by consent of the President.

DEGREES

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) will be conferred on the completion of the course of study previously outlined, provided the candidate satisfies the President that he is a person of worthy character. Students admitted to advanced standing may, if qualified, receive the degree after one year's residence, but in no case will the degree be granted unless the candidate is in actual residence during all of the senior year.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR

The graduates of the College of Law are licensed by the Supreme Court, without examination, to practice in all the Courts of Florida upon presenting their diplomas, duly issued by the proper authorities and upon furnishing satisfactory evidence that they are twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.
