Birkbeck B.C. of 4. mo: 1877

Dear p.p. u:

unto whom is the salutation of my Dear Son, to thee thy wife and her father and mother. Dear friends my Dear Dear and true Son (of <sup>our</sup> God Jesus Christ) which has lately said to Spring our towards a mother in which I dearly salute you all our at this time. and desires the Lord may ~~you~~ ~~your~~ prosper by all worthy of his Love for our a man Dear p.p. I recd thy dated of 27th of the 9. mo: 83. in wh<sup>ch</sup> I was glad to hear of thy great well fare. friends are generally well here a way. the last assizes the Judge gave in charge they must put the Lawes in Execution against defaulters. Justices entwistle or have sent warrants to look for Conventicles meetings by officers are very small at the present. our Dear friend James Fletcher went for Ireland this last winter. and I recd a letter from him yesterday. and he says W. Edmondson is gone the west Judges before he was there. and Jo. Burnett is all gone who of wife had born him a son but it is dead: and he so friends are generally well (meeting) quit and the Lords goodness man manifest for with we have all say to love the name of the Lord for the same who is in larding the hearts of his people by the shedding of his love a blood in the same. So Dear friend our most with the remembrance of my love and my wifes Dear love to you all I rest thy friend

George Shaw

remember me to A. Dickson. and to any other who know me. as they see meet: as for goods I send thee now. but if thou ~~cannot~~ sooth it would do well for me to send: I would have thee to let me what sort of goods would be best to send and if for return if thou could send too barter in thy own time: not that I would put any thing upon thee except thou see ~~it~~ ~~is~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~thing~~
