Bishopstofte J. 30. of J. 4. month. 1683.

Dear friend John Charles, your brother, my dear brother and true friend in Christ.
I do salute thee, thy wife, and dear James Harson, and his wife.
Dear ^{friend} you have been often and many a time, bene now unto me, and fresh in my remembrance, And now a freshly at this present time.
My heart has been down as it were melted with it, and all the remembrance of you, and hoping that love which sayes and land cannot hinder as it is felt to Spring: I do I do deeply salute you all; And ever blesses the Lord, for his love which he has made to flow over say and land, and shall mind be never and do one unto another, as wee are kept too in his fear: with is the desire of my heart for ever, Amen my wife desired her love to be remembered unto you all. friends are goodly well have a bout; there ^{are} warrants out to break our meetings: the Constables are pity modest: but there is one William Lead better: called a baloy and a parrotter same with 2 Constables to our money meetings: but by meeting being ended, & friends going away could make nothing of it: And at ^{our} generall meeting by same men same again before of meeting was fully gathered, and took R. Cobban R. Johnson J. Ashton J. Bisham J. Altherton J. Jonket: before a Justice of peace: but of Constables would take no oath they would not our own tom. God we may see by howe ^{they} frustrated & wicked designes, and profanous his people that trostes in him, at half day meeting they have sent 86. friend to prison but they ^{find} friends care privily Chirre of it; I doo friend I had purposed to have sent some goods by Hoop's house but I had not all maid ready at this time. but it may be if I can well send by some other I may put the trouble upon them. our dear friend Elizabeth Grosbey ^{was} burried a but 14. days since, being delivered of a young wih was burried with her: remember my love to Mrs. Dickson & dear James's mother & thy father, and to any other friends as thou may see meet

Thine from thy loving friend
