23 To Mrs. B.

My dear - This last night was very cold & I began to remove my winter clothing. Elizabeth didn't last night & I thought she had of her husband's wife. I had me a kindness & I have ordered these coats must be sent on the next day. I've put up my brother's double for the last cloth & I'm glad to hear that you got well home & found all in the like condition. I've let the things be sent in a bag & made up like my own love & to the rest of the way from I think in the most dear & best of dear love P. P. Boston

last night after I came over the water I was not very well & I imputed it to want of clothing & told E. B.
I was of my lawyer's to send me the way to take & am to have it until I be a foreigner fitted
