The 14th 12^{mo} 1690

My deare Alice,

Mrs. Best of my Conscience

Left night came here & I: very empty handed on thy sword not a farole from ^{the} the value of an peny nor one ~~of~~ grains of love to any of the family so th^t Ab: took peny notice ad to enquire of me what was the matter & thought he lost it by the way or wanted the wit or manners to deliver it however we are sensible of thygn to us beyond the best of peny messengers; I had peny for from Griffith is comin here but thought not convenient to send it now but shall bring it when I come but when that will be I know not but if friends come up from your ward or St. J. w. 2: who I report this week may then come over & in the meane time rest in that sense I have of thy true respect for them I have an enjoynt beyond words and its in that I love thee & in love rest thy sincere friend

P:

Its no matter of taking any notice of what I write to thee here or mentioning it to J. B: for I praye mention it to thee that thou may know, that his count out stripes his Education Ab: tells me since that not being satisfied she asked particularly what or thou didst not write her love to her & she then I think he may not well stay home at present for Ab: I perceive had no present satisfaction farwell I have many business at this juncture and shall must out of order by reason of the cold I took at Burlington very makes me I can say
