my Dear

The 04 day ⁹ mo 1700 in that endearing relation of Love & Kindness that Duty brought us together & united us in that oneness that makes us one whose Love freely flows and then very near & Dear welcome I am still well tho' the place is not so happy as I wish thro' the latter end of that ~~the~~ week & sooner I do not expect it may be longer but I hope not my absence now so long from the makes me long to see the & to see the this is the fourth letter I have sent the last whether thou had' read them or no I know not but I have not had one line from the but hope all is well my kind love to the & pray let Mr. know I look'd it out kindly from the the did not write to me by the Indian that came down from persborough help'd to let me know how you were at home I do not now expect to hear from the until I see the I am in haste but remain thyne as above

I I
