NEWS YOU CAN USE FROM THE JOHN C. HITT LIBRARY

Beyond the Books the history of UCF's library

5th floor EXHIBIT AREA

The UCF Libraries' Special Collections & University Archives is pleased to announce the Beyond the Books: History of the UCF's Library exhibit, which looks at the history of the University of Central Florida's John C. Hitt Library including major renovations – both past and future – along with a selection of library resources.

When the University of Central Florida (then Florida Technological University) opened in 1968, the library was the only completed academic building on campus. As the student body grew, so did the campus. As the campus grew, the library was renovated to better suit the needs of students. The first major renovation occurred in 1982-1984 and included money for the acquisition of artwork. With the addition of new UCF campuses, partnerships, and online learning, the library expanded resources for students needing to access materials remotely. The materials in this exhibit are from UCF Libraries' Special Collections & University Archives.

The exhibit was curated by Elisabeth Jimenez, Special Collections & University Archives employee.

The exhibit is located in the exhibit space located on the 5th floor.

The exhibit runs from November 2019 to January 2020.
