

1686-01-01

Henry Haydock and Martha Haydock, Phineas Pemberton, 1686

Henry Haydock

PRINT Identifier: 15919

 Part of the Archival Science Commons, and the History Commons

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>

University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

Henry Haydock and Martha Haydock, [England], to Phineas Pemberton, [Pennsylvania], 1686, vol. 2, pg. 28, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 15919, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/384/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Dear D.D.

beloved in the Lord Jesus Christ in whom our nearness and dearness is day as in days by past and gone in which we have sat down together and unity of the one spirit and in the bond of heavenly peace we have to our mutual joy enjoyed each other and now being for removed to outwardly yet inwardly we and might dear to one another in that heavenly word and blessed fellowship of the glorious gospel of peace which is and shall be preserved throughout the whole world in this fellowship our dear love kindly salutes thee and thy dear wife and tender babes along thy father and mother and the rest of your family if the be all living give them the salutation of our dear love in the Lord in whom is all our being and well being this day in whom living refreshment is to the depending soul who would preserve their daily refreshings from him to such he is a selfish one toward at all times and in all places indeed dear friend the very remembrance of thee and thy faithful love with our money aimed in whose remembrance heart is comforted and our spirit is right glad to enjoy thee and to hear of thee love to our dear friend and in the arms that are open we can enjoy the and that divine holy kiss of pure and fervent love drop upon thee for its not absent that will bring this love to an end which god in his infinite love has bathed together in our to one another in which love and peace proceed out for our if we never be together one another again where we may rejoice one to another and shall one another far beyond what by outward carriage we can set forth or dom-
 -on that will dear friend soul thou our love and that thy heart be refreshed ab-ours is this day in a living as well as fresh remembrance of thee our hearts is drawn forth those four carriage to us comend thee which is little content but a faint salutation of that which is beloved and his cordial love with is what it our was and remains to be what it now is to thee for more than that we have been refreshed money aimed together so now being separated we may still feel the heavenly power and presence of the Lord god with us which is we desire for you as for our selves for indeed it is the Lord's presence that makes heard things easy and the feeling of the gods glorious power that sanctifies our exercise and makes sweet every trial with presence and power to with you and about you all for our is that our souls that dear love you desire for for your good in god we rely breath for and your prosperity in the truth by you is soon truly we dearly desire that soon in a holy life and a goodly vocation that will adorn the blessed gospel you with you and you in the may be found for indeed dear friend thy faithful way shall proforth the truth here for among the sons of men there is not so goodly spoken all of thee indeed I must needs say to thee thou hast lost a sweet savor behind thee and the truth is honored by thy upright and well spoken of by thy work walking: so that god that gave thee wisdom to order thy conversation might be the living praise freely given for he is worthy for ever to him our dear love thee with their truly desiring the Lord may be with you and bless you in every undertaking and preserve you at all times both by sea and by land in the real brotherings and true desires of our souls for you our that the Lord's blessings may be with you his heavenly peace multiplied upon you to him to him that as a kind of first fruits to him for may be in your day him well dear friend our dear love abundantly flourish towards thee in with whom we have perfect unity in the seed of life and living and last fellowship in gods heavenly truth the which truth we love thee our most dear thee the cordial salutation of our dear love in the Lord and so bids thee four well salute dear friends whom we know whose good and welfare we wish in the truth and so concludes and rest thy loving friend and sister in my measure Let our hear from thee of truth receive Henry & Martha Haydock as soon as thou can I desire thee I have heard sent thee according to thy order first 2 pair of shoes for thy self 2 pair for thy wife 0-2-4 one children 0-5-0 a pair of slippers for thee at 0-3-4 also a pair for thy wife 0-2-4 one but of leather at 6-4 and as for the return I love to thy self for so the shoes slippers and collar stands me to hear besides what the carrier will be I have heard sent thee 3 pair of hose of 0-4-0 a pair thou may make what thou can of them and send with the other things I also have sent a pair of pocket stuff that come from the shop of London for thy father I have sent for carriage 0-0-8 I have also sent thee some more of the goods I have sent to thee in all 2-2-8 so our most dear love and rest thy loving friend Henry & Martha Haydock

Henry and Martha Haydock
England
to Shiner Pemberton
Pennsylvania.

1863

p. 28