Dear James Harrison after my Dear & Love to you & to thy wife, & my Love to your Governor William Fenn who is an honest & a good man, I have some of his books, & I think so well of them, that I am willing often to look into, and though an outwardly unknown yet in spirit I know him & have communion with him, farewell, Joseph Hudson my wife & my family are all well at present, & of course are pretty well yet, yet secured from troubles that have fallen upon many of our friends in our parts - now as concerning that matter sent to you when thou wast to transplant, I never heard any thing how thou dost determine with me about it, but I would care as much as 2. from you who are thy friend: Joseph Hudson.

from Boston ye 10th of ye 6th mo..

Joseph Endon
