

1697-02-01

William Emley, Phineas Pemberton, February 1697

William Emley

PRINT Identifier: 16034

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Citation

William Emley, Nottingham, Nottinghamshire, England; , to Phineas Pemberton, n.p., 1697-02, vol. 2, pg. 136, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 16034, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/393/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

From Nottingham 12: th May 1696

London's Business after my kind love remembrance unto thy self and children, & longing of your Health, I was as far as Wm Dicks House, without intent to see thee at Home, but being caught by Joseph Hurby of my disappointment, if at this time I should venture down, thy self being as far as the other House. And I had not much courage to venture over the Sea, but over this day heard don it upon some occasion with W Dicks, but cannot now spare time, to come so low, so much take the Will for this Deal
But this comes at this time, upon a further Suit, than this last information, and tis to solicit a Parliament
I want a Bill of Parliament accordingly, and will then do more that favour us to help, need, I not only will give, want thou please for it, but as I know they regard therein - my occasion at present is present is something urgent, and if I cannot get a little parliament I shall lose it - And if at any time hereafter, when an opportunity presents, I might offer for sale, if will be so kind as buy for me 3 or 4 shares, a $\frac{1}{2}$ doz of the Quakers Will board it - and help Quakers of Royal paper at any time when need is without at Philadelphia, shall hand thy moneys, again, and thy kindnes not forgotten, I cannot now, write any more, the Dutch goes on my Dicks's Bill.

Deare Park will need to remember his love to those friends. Such cleares opportunity serving to send him his two little Books viz: Seder Olem, & Paper - he had thought to have hand some over, but something or other, always intervenes.

I Am now doing thy kindnes for sending me I Edward, but send my Protestants - till to thee, - and now no more but so: kind Love, from thy friend W Dicks May p Cash to favour me with a line whenever it comes to hand

William Emley
Nottingham. N. J.
12 mo 169 ⁶/₇
to Phineas Pemberton.

Phineas Pemberton

P. 136