Welcoming Stephanie Bertone, Monograph Cataloging Librarian

Orlando: The University of Central Florida (UCF) Libraries is pleased to welcome Stephanie Bertone '11 back to the Knight Nation. Stephanie will join the Libraries on August 8, 2023 as the Monograph Cataloging Librarian.

Ms. Bertone earned a Bachelor of Arts in Cinema Studies from UCF in 2011 before moving forward to complete a Master of Science in Library & Information Studies at Florida State University in 2012. She has worked for Barry University School of Law Library since 2015 where she gained experience as an Electronic Resources Librarian cataloging and managing access to online resources and print materials for students and staff. Her collaborative experience with projects involving the Florida Academic Repository (FLARE) and other collection management projects will be a great asset to the Libraries.
