Dear Phineas

By the same hand I recd. thine, I intend this: wh was by Dear Han: Delaval: But I had heard of the Death of thy wife before: And at the hearing of it, It came near me, for I Lovd her much, and was in hope, to a soon see her aways this spring for thou kindd such a thing to me in a former Letter. She was a woman that I always Lovd from the very first of my Acquaintance with her. I cannot forget her kindnes, when I parted from her out of Mary-Land, Taking my Journey hom-wards; neither can I forget our last parting, wh was at yo: ferry, in much tenderness & Love: so that though she be gon, her memorial Remains;
Her Love will never be extinct: I know it still Remains in the Bowoms of the upright. Concerning the state of things and meetings in this Country this Board: Cantell thee at large, having bin through most of friends in the Country. Thomas Jannoy, and Griff: Owen, I have them oft in Remembrance, If at home, Let them know my Love, wh my Love also to all the faithful among you.
When I shall Com that ways, I know not: my wife being very Crazy and weakly, keeps me at home a little the more: she has her Love to thee: and as for me; I have not words, as many have; yet I know I Love the strongest hearted: And I know also,
that its natural for them to Love one another.

So Dear heart, In that wh is unrevocable I Rest (Hoping to be Comprehended and Read in the same)

4 mo: 97.

Thy Friend and Bro<sup>r</sup>.

our yearly meeting is just over, and a good Clogid:
we had, as by this Board: y:
may more fully know, if I have now time to tell thee.

Dan: Gould.
