John B. Stetson University Views

A partial view of Science Hall, the gift of Henry M. Flagler, as a School of Engineering.

Some of the men students assembled in front of Elizabeth Hall. The tower is a replica of the tower in Old Independence Hall, Philadelphia.

The Auditorium. Note the beautiful architecture, terra cotta trimmings, and stained glass windows. This building was the gift of Mr. John B. Stetson.

The daily morning Chapel Service. This room seats more than 900. Not all of the students are visible.

There are two dormitories for young women. This one was built first. The other was built later at right angles, and the two are called Chaudoin Hall.

Carnegie Library with Women
Students.

This beautiful building was the gift of Mr. Carnegie. The Countess of Santa Eulalia endowed it, and it contains the Sampson Library and Endowment.
