

1683-06-18

Margery Vosse and Richard Mather , Ralph Pemberton, June 18, 1683; June 19, 1683

Margery Vosse

PRINT Identifier: 16160

 Part of the Archival Science Commons, and the History Commons

Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton>

University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

---

Citation

Margery Vosse and Richard Mather , [Radcliffe Bridge; Radcliffe Lancashire, England], to Ralph Pemberton, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1683-06-18;;1683-06-19, vol. 1, pg. 211, Pemberton Family Papers, 1641-1880, 0484A, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PRINT, 16160, <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/printmigrationnetwork-pemberton/403/>.

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Quaker Correspondence at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Pemberton Correspondence by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

1683

My dear old mother and good friend my wife dear to me & I and to ffbp and abigail and Joseph and to James wife and our ann le die and my dear brother that Thomas le die & sister both be so for a while be so for a while with you / and I hope for the will my friends would not have me to go so far and as for my master I have not reason to complain on him yet short of what Phineas was in his place and as for Thomas Tilsley he doth much what as he did but he his money at the house which put my master to some inconvenience for he offered more money for it than we gave and as for neighbors I have been very loving to me since you went and my old costumers come still to me for y<sup>e</sup> love y<sup>e</sup> bare to you and y<sup>e</sup> you remember your love to desire to be remembered to you againe and many of y<sup>e</sup> givers you thanks for your good counsell and as concerning halfe hoops of meal and my table my master says he wil pay Phineas 10 shillings when he pays him the rest and yet Dr Richard walker and his wife remembers their love to you and he is hardly well or else he says he would have like himselfe and his wife says she coud be glad to see you againe Radcliffe Brigg and son Rich: and Rich: crosse desire sorely to be remembered to you and Peter Jordan desires to be rem'd to you: and I would see y<sup>e</sup> sister Elizabeth but I hear say that she is at home is wont to be and old John flocker is dead and Rich: Doughton of Apple James adams & his wife love has sent you here a token one single penny and margery has sent you one single penny and apene in remembrance of her love to you both

Chargery Vase
 Richard Walker

Amos 1683

Phineas le die

My dear old mother and good friend
 my wife dear to me & I
 and to ffbp and abigail and Joseph and to James
 wife and our ann le die and my dear brother
 that Thomas le die & sister both be so for a while
 be so for a while with you / and I hope for the will
 my friends would not have me to go so far and as for
 my master I have not reason to complain on him yet
 short of what Phineas was in his place and as for Thomas Tilsley he doth much what as he did but he
 his money at the house which put my master to
 some inconvenience for he offered more money for
 it than we gave and as for neighbors I have been
 very loving to me since you went and my old
 costumers come still to me for y<sup>e</sup> love y<sup>e</sup> bare to you and y<sup>e</sup> you remember your love to desire to be remembered to you againe and many of y<sup>e</sup> givers
 you thanks for your good counsell and as concerning
 halfe hoops of meal and my table my master says
 he wil pay Phineas 10 shillings when he pays him
 the rest and yet Dr Richard walker and his wife
 remembers their love to you and he is hardly well
 or else he says he would have like himselfe and his wife says she coud be glad to see you againe Radcliffe Brigg and son Rich: and Rich: crosse desire
 sorely to be remembered to you and Peter Jordan
 desires to be rem'd to you: and I would see y<sup>e</sup>
 sister Elizabeth but I hear say that she is at home
 is wont to be and old John flocker is dead and Rich:
 Doughton of Apple James adams & his wife love
 has sent you here a token one single penny and
 margery has sent you one single penny and
 apene in remembrance of her love to you both

My dear old mother and good friend
 my wife dear to me & I
 and to ffbp and abigail and Joseph and to James
 wife and our ann le die and my dear brother
 that Thomas le die & sister both be so for a while
 be so for a while with you / and I hope for the will
 my friends would not have me to go so far and as for
 my master I have not reason to complain on him yet
 short of what Phineas was in his place and as for Thomas Tilsley he doth much what as he did but he
 his money at the house which put my master to
 some inconvenience for he offered more money for
 it than we gave and as for neighbors I have been
 very loving to me since you went and my old
 costumers come still to me for y<sup>e</sup> love y<sup>e</sup> bare to you and y<sup>e</sup> you remember your love to desire to be remembered to you againe and many of y<sup>e</sup> givers
 you thanks for your good counsell and as concerning
 halfe hoops of meal and my table my master says
 he wil pay Phineas 10 shillings when he pays him
 the rest and yet Dr Richard walker and his wife
 remembers their love to you and he is hardly well
 or else he says he would have like himselfe and his
 wife says she coud be glad to see you againe Radcliffe Brigg and son Rich: and Rich: crosse desire
 sorely to be remembered to you and Peter Jordan
 desires to be rem'd to you: and I would see y<sup>e</sup>
 sister Elizabeth but I hear say that she is at home
 is wont to be and old John flocker is dead and Rich:
 Doughton of Apple James adams & his wife love
 has sent you here a token one single penny and
 margery has sent you one single penny and
 apene in remembrance of her love to you both

1683

My dear old mother and good friend
 my wife dear to me & I
 and to ffbp and abigail and Joseph and to James
 wife and our ann le die and my dear brother
 that Thomas le die & sister both be so for a while
 be so for a while with you / and I hope for the will
 my friends would not have me to go so far and as for
 my master I have not reason to complain on him yet
 short of what Phineas was in his place and as for
 Thomas Tilsley he doth much what as he did but he
 his money at the house which put my master to
 some inconvenience for he offered more money for
 it than we gave and as for neighbors I have been
 very loving to me since you went and my old
 costumers come still to me for y<sup>e</sup> love y<sup>e</sup> bare to you and y<sup>e</sup> you remember your love to desire to be remembered to you againe and many of y<sup>e</sup> givers
 you thanks for your good counsell and as concerning
 halfe hoops of meal and my table my master says
 he wil pay Phineas 10 shillings when he pays him
 the rest and yet Dr Richard walker and his wife
 remembers their love to you and he is hardly well
 or else he says he would have like himselfe and his
 wife says she coud be glad to see you againe Radcliffe Brigg and son Rich: and Rich: crosse desire
 sorely to be remembered to you and Peter Jordan
 desires to be rem'd to you: and I would see y<sup>e</sup>
 sister Elizabeth but I hear say that she is at home
 is wont to be and old John flocker is dead and Rich:
 Doughton of Apple James adams & his wife love
 has sent you here a token one single penny and
 margery has sent you one single penny and
 apene in remembrance of her love to you both

2821-11-11-1683

Handwritten text on the left page, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side.

9 day of Dec 1683 and as for samuel mather he is well and is at London and hatin dikes Remembers her love to you and says if she had never known you she had never known if want of you our old woman Remembers her love to you and many crosses Remembers her love to you Ralph Pemberton my dear love to you and to my Brother Joseph and they may let you understand if I am at this present in Reasonable good health as I hope these lines will find you yet I am not clear of my old cofs tho through mercy a great deal better mairery Remembers one more her love to you she says will do her best endeavour to get in your old depts but it is a very hard time and poor people are very hard lot and she says she you find her word of your health all for and she would faine know how you keeps in health now you are all Land and I received your letter of 9 day of <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~ and all your old neighbors came into house it being house was full y<sup>e</sup> was for throug that I had scarce Room to stir the were for glad to hear from you and Richard Mason wife Remem ber love to you and widow Smith Remem ber love and Richard ath hall everlasting love to you for ever thers Remem her love to you I do we Rest your Loving friends Tell death enargery wote and Richard Mather