Dearlly

belov'd friend phoeby from Barton these few lines are to informe thee a little how it has been with mee since I saw thee for I know thy desires are to heere of my well fare It has been much otherwise with mee then it was before when I met with so much exercise of body which I gould thee some amount of so that I have hope I shall, ^{not} be as I was before It is now five weekes wanting and day or two ~~but~~ ~~giving~~ since I perswaded my self to be quickned which gives mee some confortment and hope that I shall not be as before Dear phoeby I greatly want thy company and assistance my thinks I god my los more then euery day more and more and thy motherly advise would be a great comfort to mee I pray let mee heere from you as oft as you can conveniently for it will be a great comfort to mee to heere of you from you but more to god you, dear friends I have writ 2 letters before these and mist the opportunity my dear Husband writs to you now and gives you a more full account how things are upon his account, my dear Loue to youe both, fare well yours Dutyful ^{my dear} Phillis Mary Bownd
