

12-21-1994

Christmas Gift List for Sports Celebrities

Richard C. Crepeau
University of Central Florida, richard.crepeau@ucf.edu

 Part of the Cultural History Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, Other History Commons, Sports Management Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons
Find similar works at: <https://stars.library.ucf.edu/onsportandsociety>
University of Central Florida Libraries <http://library.ucf.edu>

This Commentary is brought to you for free and open access by the Public History at STARS. It has been accepted for inclusion in On Sport and Society by an authorized administrator of STARS. For more information, please contact STARS@ucf.edu.

Recommended Citation

Crepeau, Richard C., "Christmas Gift List for Sports Celebrities" (1994). On Sport and Society. 413.
<https://stars.library.ucf.edu/onsportandsociety/413>

SPORT AND SOCIETY FOR H-ARETE
December 21, 1994

With Christmas just a few days away it's time to put together a Christmas gift list for the wonderful people of sportsworld who seemingly have everything.

For Martina Navratolova-- a chance to turn back the clock ten years

For Monica Seles-- a shrink who can get her back on the tennis courts.

For men's tennis-- a new McEnroe and a new Connors

For Donald Fehr-- a sense of proportion

For Major League owners-- the ability to bargain collectively

For Gary Bettman-- platform shoes and an ego transplant

For the NBA-- a labor agreement before they go down the road after the NHL and Major League Baseball

For George Foreman-- the good sense to retire before Mike Tyson is out of jail

For Boxing-- a new star with some credibility

For the National Football League officials-- instant replay, continuously

For the Tampa Bay Bucs-- an end to the curse of Doug Williams without the need to bring in Jimmy Johnson

For NFL quarterbacks-- concussion free helmets.

For NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue-- a personality or an ID card.

For Dan Marino-- pass receivers who can catch the ball and a defense that can hold a lead.

For Brian Hill-- the sense to realize that a strong bench presupposes a strong Dennis Scott preferably in a starting role

For Shaq-- a major league baseball franchise

For Penny-- less fallout from the holdout

For Horace Grant-- decent looking glasses

For Pat Williams-- a meaningful role --- anywhere

For Dennis Rodman--a gallon of Clairol and an ounce of sense

For Universal Studios-- an NHL franchise in Orlando

For Rich DeVoss-- an IHL franchise in Peoria

For Marge Schott-- a translator and a cat

For Darryl Strawberry-- a tax consultant

For Larry Guest-- an idea, any idea

For Barry Cooper-- a clue

For Orlando Sentinel Sports-- a major league writer

For Marc Middleton--a free color blindness test

For Pat Clark and Mike Storms-- one way tickets

For Linda Chapin and Glenda Hood-- a major league baseball team.

For Fran Pignone-- two season tickets for the Orlando major league baseball team, not at taxpayer expense

For the Orlando Predators-- a season ending win

For UCF-- a hockey team

For FSU-- a footlocker

For the Gators-- a fourth quarter

For Bobby Bowden-- a Sugar Bowl tie

For Steve Spurrier-- all the cheese in the State of Wisconsin to go with his endless supply of whine

For Lou Holtz-- a sense of sportmanship and integrity

For Dick Vitale-- triple headers through the night

For Nebraska-- an orange bowl in Lincoln

For Penn State-- a dead duck and a conference that can count past ten

For Magic fans-- a sense of proportion and a calendar

And for everyone out there in Central Florida radioland, a very Merry Christmas!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

On Sport and Society this is Dick Crepeau reminding you that you don't have to be a good sport to be a bad loser.

Copyright 1994 by Richard C. Crepeau