Thomas wild

these are to lett thee understand that when I had made ready to send for a servant the indorser refused to sell, & moving thence my horse unless he had an order from thee, for thou not being in town I could not find I heard that one Mr. Ford hath locked the door & taken him away with he ought not to do so for I desire to hear from thee whether thou gave any such order & though I myself be detained in prison, I care for at home I believe will come for I would thou would not lett me be robbed or my horse plundered or rather stolen from me for such wrongs as I have met with hours in the City if my horse & saddle & cloath be taken away I be in prison is such as I live with before now it is unheard of cruelty it makes moderate people to wonder that a man cannot come to the City of west your going to stay but one night, I would not eat any man's bread for ought but be cast in prison, and have his horse taken from him, for I would have my horse restored that I who have most right may dispose of him for may thou do well this from one

70 that loves marriage truth & righteousness & the souls of all men for I am a prisoner
by thee
